JUDGE CAUDILL, HEART VICTIM WEDNESDAY

HELD CONVALESCING. FORMER JURIST IS SEIZURE VICTIM

Believed convalescing from injuries FLOYD BEAUTY sustained in a recent automobile wreck, former Circuit Judge John W. Caudill, 55 years old, Prestonsburg, died suddenly early Wednesday night at the Paintsville hospital of a heart

The end came at 7:15 o'clock without warning. During the day, the former jurist's condition had been encouraging. A blood clot in the cardiac region was said to have caused the fatal attack.

News of his passing was first received here with incredulity which, as the report was confirmed, changed to a sense of deep loss on the part of all who knew Judge Caudill.

The victim was born June 17, 1884 son Hollybush, Knott county, the son of the late A. L. Caudill and Mrs. Martha Thornsbury Caudill. Educated at Bowling Green, Ky., and at Transylvania College, Lexington, he for a time was a teacher and otherwise connected in school work, a field of endeavor in which he remained interested throughout his life. In this work he was prominently identified with the Caney Creek Community Center at Pippapass, Knott county.

Judge Caudill and family moved to Prestonsburg in 1923 and here he enone of the most influential members May 23-24. a leader in the Independent Order of the junior class, a member of the stu-Odd Fellows, being a past grand mas- dent council, the Y.W.C.A., and is ter of Kentucky Odd Fellows and a representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the World.

That the district office of the Kentucky state re-employment service may be moved from Pikeville to Prestonsburg within the next few months is highly probable, it was said here this week

Work toward effecting its removal was started a few weeks ago by County Judge E. P. Hill, Jr., and recently it was unofficially reported that the move is being given favorable consideration.

For the office to be brought to Floyd county the county and the city of Prestonsburg will be required to furto pay $25 a month on office rent.

It's A Grand Old World

Every now and then you meet a man who'll tell you what a great place this world of ours is . . . and nine chances out of ten he's a fellow who has no financial worries. It's a grand and glorious feeling to be in his shoes, isn't it? The surprising thing is that it is not so difficult to put yourself in his place. An average income can be so invested that it will provide luxuries otherwise unattainable. This is a service we are giving to scores of families constantly . . . a service available to all.

Birth Registration To Be Tested By Census Bureau

The U. S. Census Bureau, in confunction with the State Health Department, is planning to make a test of birth registration in the state covering the four months period, Deember, 1939, January, February and March, 1940.

The tests will be made in connection with the census enumeration, which started April 2. The census enumerators will fill out a special card for each child born during this four months' period and these cards will be checked in Washington with copies of all birth certificates filed with the Bureau of Vital Statistics of the state health department.

In his way, every birth that occurred in the state during these four months which was not registered will be ascertained and located. Every unreport- really IS a J. D. Bond, Jr. ed birth thus discovered will be investigated to learn why it was not yourself! registered by the attendant.

All parents are requested to report to the local registrar any birth occurring in the family during these four months and which they have reason be likewise reported to the local reg-

OFFICIAL ORGAN FOR FLOYD COUNTY, KY. Payable In Advance

NORMAN ALLEN Editor

Entered as second class matter June 18, 1927, at the postoffice at Prestonsburg, Ky., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

THE TIMES ENDORSES

- 1. Immediate completion of the Left Beaver, Middle Creek and Johns Creek road.
- 2. Consideration by officials of human needs, not the need for political influence.
- 3. Completion of all Farm-to-Market reads, by W. P. A. labor if possible, maintenance of these routes by the state rural road fund.
- 4. A trade-at-home policy followed by merchants and customers alike.
- 5. Full co-operation with all county and city officials, insisting that lawmakers and enforcement officers themselves obey the law to the letter.
- 6. Continuance of the Floyd county health department and the county agricultural agent work.

BEAT "RETREAT"!

THE FLOYD COUNTY TIMES stands indicted of having enlisted the support of a United States Senator in a cause which does not exist.

After we had troubled Senator Alben W. Barkley with considerable correspondence, after Mr. Barkley had communicated with F. C. Harrington, Commissionerof Works Projects, and after Commissioner Harrington had, in turn, consulted George H. Goodman, state WPA administrator for Kentucky-after all that, it was learned that THE TIMES had conveyed to Senator Barkley a swell piece of fiction.

Maybe THE TIMES had no business stepping in where it was not invited, anyway. But we thought we had, and so we propose to publish here our own "Blue Book" of the matter:

All this began with THE TIMES' interest in those women of this county who need work on sewing projects but who have been denied such employment on the unreasonable grounds that they had no previous work history, no gainful employment before they applied for WPA help, or that they lacked sufficient educational qualifications.

So when the Floyd fiscal court, on February 29, caused to be entered upon its records a resolution promising to withdraw its support from sewing projects unless this ruling was changed, THE TIMES thought it saw an opportunity to be of service to the "forgotten women" of the county.

Believing that the fiscal court meant "business," we promptly wired Senator Barkley, as follows:

> "Fiscal court here withdrawing support sewing projects protesting WPA educational and work history ruling. Cannot regulation be changed? No good mother whose work has been only that of housekeeper and homemaker can qual ify under present regulations. Please advise, our expense

Promptly Senator Barkley gave assurance of his willingness to co-operate. And he did with the result that, on March 12, Commissioner Harrington wrote

> "This will acknowledge the receipt of your letter of March 8, 1940, enclosing a telegram sent to you by Mr. Norman Allen, editor of The Floyd County Times, Prestonsburg, Kentucky, regarding the employment of women on projects of this administration

> "Information in this connection is being obtained from the State Works Projects Administrator for Kentucky, Mr. George H. Goodman, and upon the receipt of his report further advice will be forwarded."

We were getting along fine, up to that point. We at least still cherished the hope that somebody was doing some serious thinking about the injustice being and Hazel Green, Prestonsburg, typwrought by the ruling which demanded of a needy widow that she must possess the equivalent of an eighth-grade education, or must have had previous to her period of need, lucrative employment before she could work on a sewing center.

Yes, we had hopes.

But, on March 30, came the following word from Mae Banks Martin, Prestonsburg. Commissioner Harrington to Senator Barkley:

"The State Administrator for Kentucky, Mr. George H. Goodman, advises that the projects in question were not closed but are all operating at the present time . .

And so THE FLOYD COUNTY TIMES became Betsy Layne; Morton Allen, Hueysknown as a liar.

And so the fiscal court retreated from a position Leo Carter, Prestonsburg. which was highly defensible in the mind of every ba May, Langley; Millard Roberts man or woman who believes that human need is not Ochorne; Rebecca Burchett, Betsy predicated on past opportunity, who holds that Layne; John R. turing plant and the anticipated social security and re-employment offices. County Judge Hill and County Attorney Short, opposing the move, based their opposition to purchase of the site on the grounds that, since all other county offices are located in Prestonsburg, and are interdependent upon each other, it would be impractical to buy property for the location of county-owned buildings and governmental departments having business with the county 10 miles from the county seat.

Finding its rural road program, as adopted a few weeks ago and including the Betsy Layne railroad bridge unacceptable to the state rural highway administration, the court Monday amended the list of its projects so as to omit the Betsy Layne bridge.
