SPEAKING OF AND FOR FLOYD COUNTY

PRESTONSBURG, KENTUCKY

OCTOBER 8, 1942

This Town--
That World

THE TIMES AND NEWSPAPER WEEK

This, my friends, is National Newspaper Week, THE FLOYD COUNTY TIMES, as a participant therein, has been urged to do some "tootin' of its own horn, point out what it means to the community, print on Page 1 those very fine proclamations in tribute to the American press by President Roosevelt and Governor Johnson, try to make the occasion memorable by getting an expression of goodwill--by way of advertising--from business firms.

Ah! that advertising . . . But for those regulars, the faithful--bless their hearts!--every week in the year, the advertising is nothing to celebrate about.

Yet THE TIMES knows that, had it gone to the business men of Prestonsburg, told them that it would like their advertising this particular week as a sort of testimonial at their expense, they would have responded liberally. As liberally as I would have responded, if they were to come to me, saying they needed my support.

But this newspaper doesn't happen to believe in doing business that way. When the business men of Prestonsburg want advertising and want to pay for it, THE TIMES will serve them. But charity--please, no.

For the horn-tootin', see editorial. For our observation, otherwise, of a grand week in the life of a nation now fighting for free speech and free press, see the flags at the top of this page.

As Education Board Names Trustees For 4 Years

The no-trustee-election system initiated by the Floyd County Board of Education four years ago was renewed for another four years Tuesday as the Board named 123 trustees for the 113 of the county's 118 rural schools.

Elimination of the trustee election was originally voted to prevent a recurrence of such outbreaks of violence as took place at Prater Creek a few years ago, at a sub-district trustee election and to curb the practise of teacher-appointments being bought from trustees. Both aims have been achieved under the present system, County Superintendent Town Hall said.

In some districts more than one trustee was named. In such cases, it was explained, the first-named trustee will serve the first year, after which terms of office will alternate between the two or more trustees chosen over the succeeding three years.

A new member of the Board of Education took the oath of office Wednesday, with Bill Allen, of Allen, succeeding Wesley Campbell, who had moved from Martin in District No. 2 to West Prestonsburg. Mr. Campbell is now employed by The First National Bank here. Tuesday's meeting of the Board was attended by the remaining four members, Dr. J. H. Allen, Dr. Dewey Osborne, Ray Fraley and T. N. Newsome.

A payroll of approximately $38,000 to teachers was voted at the meeting.

X-Ray Clinic Slated Here, October 20, Ransdell Says

A second x-ray clinic for teachers and all tuberculosis contacts and suspects will be held here on the afternoon of Oct. 20 by Dr. John B. Floyd, of the State Board of Health. It was announced this week by Dr. Marvin Ransdell, director of the Floyd County Health Department.

Sixty-four teachers who were not in the county when the August clinic was held will be expected to appear for x-ray examination at the clinic this month. Persons scheduled for a second x-ray examination will also be examined, Dr. Ransdell said.

The clinic will be held only during the afternoon of the 20th.

CATS SUFFER SECOND LOSS

Pass by Whitesburg Is Fatal to Hopes Of P'burg for Win

A long pass in the first quarter sent the Prestonsburg Black Cats tumbling Saturday afternoon to their second consecutive gridiron loss, the visiting Whitesburg Yellow Jackets thereafter staving off repeated Prestonsburg scoring threats and clinging to their 6-0 lead.

Except for that one scoring thrust, the Cats had the edge on the visitors who, on the preceding weekend, had held the strong Middleboro team to a 6-0 victory. But for fumbles and intercepted passes, Prestonsburg would have made at least two touchdowns.

Prestonsburg held the initiative almost entirely through the last half, particularly in the third quarter. That period was fought out mostly within the Whitesburg 20-yard marker. But, as each touchdown march started, a fumble or pass interception came along to upset matters.

Although not satisfied to take a loss, Coach Branham expressed his admiration of the fighting qualities of his team. Freddie James, a regular back, was not in uniform, suffering from an infected arm. Line play of Hubbard, Heinze and Wells was outstanding for Prestonsburg, and Combs' and Miller's passing to Heinze and May clicked at times.

The Cats are idle this week-end, and have until Oct. 17 to prepare for Jenkins' visit here. The Jenkins team Saturday defeated Walter Price's Wheelwright eleven, 37 to 0.

ATTEND HOWES FUNERAL

The many friends of Mrs. Victoria Layne Howes, wife of Will Howes, of Betsy Layne, were grieved to learn of her death on last Tuesday at her home. Her granddaughter, Mrs. Jack Salisbury, has lived here for a few years. Those from Prestonsburg attending the funeral on Thursday at the high school building at Betsy Layne were Messadams Jo M. Davidson, Everett Sowards, Lida Spradlin, Josie D. Harkins, Harry Sandige, Newman Sharpe, and Curtis Clarke. Her sister, Mrs. Belle Brown, of Miami, Fla., was at her bedside when she passed away, having been with her for many weeks.

Miners To Work Saturday In 'All-Out' Scrap Drive

Twelve More Schools Report on Recent Junk Campaign

As the thousands of pounds of scrap metals and rubber accumulated over the county in the school junk drive were being gathered up this week, miners of the county were ready to begin Saturday the task of collecting the huge quantities of scrap in and around Floyd county mines. S. L. Isbell, Floyd salvage chairman, said Wednesday.

Meanwhile plans are being laid for a second county-wide drive to round up the last scrap stragglers that enthusiastic school children and other workers have missed. Date for this second attack on the junk front will be announced later.

Total tonnage expected to be contributed by the miners in their collection drive to the 5,298,600-pound quota assigned Floyd county is not known. One mine, that of the Stephens Elkhorn Coal Company at Manton, set its goal, however, at 60 tons. It was announced there that not only the miners will give their

Service Flag Dedication Here Honors Men in Armed Forces

A Service flag bearing 23 stars representing Methodist boys in army and navy service and a gold star for one who died in action was dedicated at the Prestonsburg Methodist Church Sunday morning following observance of World Communion Service.

The flag was presented by Mrs. R. V. May on behalf of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Guild, and was accepted on behalf of the church by the pastor, the Rev. W. B. Garriott. Names of those represented by stars were read by Mrs. W. P. Mayo. At the close of the service an offering for service camps and chaplains in various parts of the county was received.

A Home-Front Soldier Doing Bit To Lick Nazis and Japs

This lad is out to lick the Nazis and the Japs by collecting cans for the tin salvage drive. He is preparing cans for collection by tearing off the labels and squeezing the cans for convenience in packing. Tin cans, of course, are wanted only in certain areas accessible to de-tinning plants. Scrap metal, rubber, rags, manila rope, burlap bags and waste fats, however, are wanted in all parts of the county. Sell your waste fats to your meat dealer. Sell scrap metals and waste materials to your junk dealer . . . give it to a charity or take it yourself to nearest collection point.

CELEBRATE 50TH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Nesbitt, former residents of Prestonsburg, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at their home in Lucasville, O., Sunday, October 4. Mr. Nesbitt is a son of the late William Nesbitt, of Floyd county, and a brother of Mrs. Jeff Brown, who passed away last year.

Names read by Mrs. Mayo follow:

Glenn Cole, who was killed in action; Lieut. Lewis Harkey Mayo, Lieut. David Darwin May, Walter Davidson Howard, Marshall Davidson, Henry A. Howard, Sam Hatcher, James Stuart Neff, Byron Nunnery, John Graham Leroy Combs, William R. Callihan, Jr., Martin J. Leete, Jr., Jack Goble Jones, William Arnold Spradlin, James Henry Hatcher, William Henry Jones, Jr., Monte Scott Harkins, Harold Lee Lockwood, Quentin Lockwood, Z. S. Dickerson, Jr., Jack Hill.

A register will be kept in the church and any member entering the armed forces will be recognized in the future by a star on the Service flag, it was announced.

Damron Under Bond After Uncle Cut; Others Hurt

Norman Damron was at liberty under $250 bond after having been jailed here, charged with cutting and wounding his uncle, Reece Damron, at Honaker Saturday. He was alleged to have inflicted a minor wound on his uncle's neck and to have stabbed him in the back. The wounded man is convalescing.

Wince Yates, another resident of Honaker, was seriously stabbed Saturday night at Pikeville by an unknown assailant. While he was making a minor repair of his truck, a man entered the truck, whereupon Mr. Yates asked him to stay out. A second man stabbed him from behind, Magistrate Dewey Roberts said he was told.

At Boldman, Pike county, Luther Conn, of Osborne, was shot through his hand by Corbett Howell, of Toler's Creek, it was reported here.

GRAND JURY FILES REPORT

Says Crime Is Less, Though Ten Named In Murder Bills

Although it returned 10 murder indictments during its nine-day session which ended last week, the grand jury of the Floyd circuit court in its final report to Circuit Judge Henry Stephens stated that yet there is a "less number of felonies committed . . . than in previous years."

Continuing the report, signed by John Derossett, foreman, said: "We attribute this reduction . . . to the fact that the officers are performing their duties and that a large number of the people . . . are now engaged in defense industries and are in the armed forces."

The grand jury examined 171 witnesses and returned 138 indictments. After inspecting the jail, courthouse and public grounds, the jury said it found all in good condition and well-kept.

Civilian term of court convened Monday morning.

Blood Clot Is Fatal To Babe Following Fall at Hunter

A cerebral blood clot resulting from an injury sustained in a fall from the porch steps at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Sammons, at Hunter, on Sept. 25, resulted Tuesday in the death at the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, of eight-months-old Ronald Lee Sammons.

Besides the bereaved parents, one sister survives. The body was taken to Boones Camp, Johnson county, birthplace of Mr. Sammons, for interment Wednesday under direction of the Ryan Funeral Home.

NO-GAMBLING MOVE MADE

City Council Orders Benje, Shepherd To Close Place

Amusement place operated here by John Benje and Wils Shepherd was ordered closed by the City Council at its Monday night meeting after the place had been reported as a scene of gambling.

At the same time, the Council instructed police to notify all poolroom operators to keep minors out of their places of business unless they have the consent of their parents to play.

The Council's action against gambling followed several complaints made to its members and police claiming that considerable money had been won and lost at rook or other card games played in Benje and Shepherd's place.

Declared a nuisance, the place was given three days in which to close, and operation thereafter will cost its operators $10 for the first day, $25 for the second day and $50 and a 30-day jail sentence for the third day.

Of the seven Council members present at Monday night's meeting, five voted for the resolution, one voted against it and the seventh declined to vote.

Idleness of young poolroom habits in wartime was given by a Councilman as the reason for the poolroom edict.

As a result of the Council's resolution, all "rook parlors" here were reported as discontinuing business this week.

GUESTS OF PAINTSVILLE CHAPTER

Mrs. Everett H. Sowards, State Librarian of Kentucky, D.A.R., and Mrs. Claude P. Stephens, Regent of John Graham Chapter, were guests of the Paintsville Chapter on Thursday evening of last week. Mrs. Sowards gave a report on library work, while Mrs. Stephens gave the report of the District meeting held at Hazard on Sept. 9.

MAY ELECTED PARTY LEADER

At Democratic Meet Here; 2nd District Poll Scheduled

John May, Floyd county chairman of the Democratic party, was unanimously chosen chairman of Legislative District No. 1 of Floyd county by the 29 party precinct committee members present Saturday afternoon at the Democratic caucus held here.

He and a chairman of Legislative District 2 to be named at a caucus scheduled Oct. 17 at McDowell will name a Democratic county chairman in accordance with party rules, Mr. May said. In the event of a tie vote between the two, Mr. May as president chairman would have the power to name the county chairman.

Earlier attempts to name legislative district chairmen were thwarted by failure of a quorum to attend the meetings scheduled here and at McDowell.

Commenting on the party situation in the county, Mr. May said Monday, "The opposition to me was unusual, since it did not come out and try to defeat me by vote of precinct committeemen, but all the time tried to keep enough committee members away to prevent a quorum from being present."

Although a statement was not forthcoming from the opposition, it was hinted that the method followed by Chairman May in filling precinct committee vacancies might be open to attack.

MURDER WRITS SEEN FOR FOUR IN SLAYING

Wadkins Succumbs To Head Injuries; Barnetts Named

Melis Barnett and three other members of his family face possible murder charges as a result of the death Tuesday morning at Brainerd of Walter Wadkins, 50, whom Melis is alleged to have struck with a rock Sept. 21 at Brainerd. The others--Lacey, Warren and Riley Barnett--were accused with Melis in recent grand jury indictments of striking and wounding Wadkins and murder warrants are expected to be sworn out for their arrest.

Wadkins died at the home of his brother-in-law, Dud Barnett, of Brainerd, who is the father of Melis Barnett. He was removed from the Prestonsburg General hospital, a few days earlier, after physicians had despaired of his recovery.

To add to the strange break-down of family ties found in the case, it was Mrs. Dud Barnett, mother of the alleged slayer, who appeared before the grand jury here to add her testimony in the hearing which resulted in striking and wounding indictments being returned against her son and the other Barnetts, County Attorney Woodrow W. Burchett said.

Wadkins, a man of slight stature, weighing little more than 100 pounds, was assaulted as he walked homeward, carrying a load of cabbage given him as a commodity client of the Works Progress Administration, it was said here this week. Although no definite motive was given for the attack, it was hinted by a kinsman of the Barnetts last week that the crime had its foundation in jealousy.

Wadkins, in 1937, was a figure in the trial here in circuit court of several Magoffin countians named as members of "The Blackleg Gang," Miles Barnett, a member of the Middle Creek family figuring in the Wadkins slaying, was severely beaten by the Blacklegs on the night of April 2, 1937, and orders went out at that time, it was alleged, to watch

FIVE TAKEN TO LA GRANGE

4 of Group Sentenced After Murder Trials; Two Are Women

Five prisoners taken from this county Wednesday to the reformatory at LaGrange are slated to serve an aggregate of 13 years. Two of the five were women, and all except one were convicted in murder trials.

Names of prisoners and terms to which they were sentenced, follow: James Arthur Rogers, five years; Mrs. Penny Lee Fambro, Mrs. Mary Tackett, James Bailey, Kelly Combs, two years each. Combs, the only one of the five not sentenced in murder cases, was convicted of shooting and wounding Constable Willie Johnson at Wheelwright Junction.

They were taken to the reformatory by Mrs. Annie Stumbo, Floyd county Sheriff, and Deputy Sheriffs B. L. Sturgill and E. C. Slade.

THURSDAY, OCT. 8

And, if you think this newspaper isn't read, consider the results of our mistake, last week, in stating that Draft Board 44's selectees would leave here Tuesday morning. Confusion reigned; we were mortified. And when Prof. Jesse Elliott, one of those slated to leave, appeared at school here Tuesday to give band instruction, he found a large number of pupils without their instruments. For, had said The Floyd County Times, Jesse Elliott was leaving by bus Tuesday morning for final army examination, and his pupils had decided "school was out" as far as he was concerned.

HERE'S WHY

Of course, we should have said Thursday morning. Here's how

MRS. HOWES IS CLAIMED

Floyd Woman Dies At Betsy Layne, Cancer Victim

Funeral rites for Mrs. Alice Victoria Howes, 70 years old, wife of W. C. Howes, who died Sept. 29 at home at Betsy Layne, were conducted last Thursday from the Methodist Church, Betsy Layne, the pastor, the Reverend Elswick, officiating.

Mrs. Howes, one of Floyd county's best women, succumbed after months of suffering from cancer. She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John L. Layne, and was a native of the community in which she died.

She was married in 1898 to Mr. W. C. Howes, a resident of Paintsville, and to this union were born two children: James B. Howes and Mrs. Oneida Howes Williams, both of Betsy Layne. She also leaves four sisters and two brothers: F. M., Thomas and L. M. Layne, all of Betsy Layne; Frank Layne, Akron, Ohio; Mrs. Belle Layne Brown, Miami, Fla.; Mrs. C. S. Hitchins, Lockhaven, Pennsylvania.

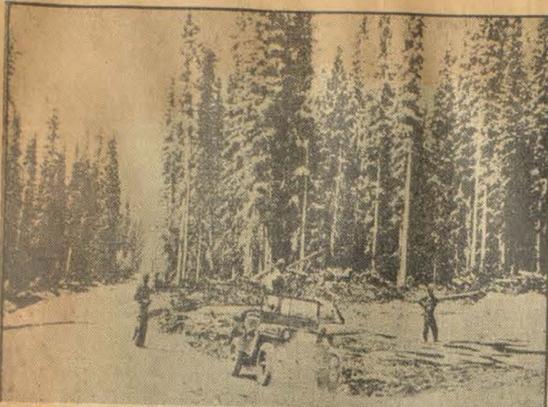

Burial was made in Betsy Layne cemetery under direction of the Call Funeral Home.

Body of Mrs. Risner Returned to Martin

Burial of Mrs. Mary Hunter Risner, 59 years old, wife of Val Risner, who died Oct. 4 at Waterloo, Mich., was made at Martin Wednesday following funeral rites at the Mormon Church.

Mrs. Risner was a former resident of Martin. She is survived by her husband and several children.

The Office of Price Administration cut the meat last week!

In order to conserve sufficient meat for the armed forces and for lend-lease purposes, the OPA set limits to the amount of beef, pork, veal, mutton and lamb that may be distributed for civilian use.

Deliveries to civilians from Oct. 1 to Dec. 31 by those who slaughter more than 500,000 pounds a quarter were limited to the following percentages of such deliveries in the corresponding period of 1941: beef, 80 per cent; pork, 75 per cent; lamb and mutton, 95 per cent; veal, 100 per cent. Other slaughterers were limited to the amount of their 1941 deliveries.

Shortly before this curb was set on meat deliveries, the OPA took action to check the rapidly rising cost of live cattle by limiting top prices which slaughterers and wholesalers may charge for the dressed product. Twenty-three cents a pound is the top price to be paid for choice or Grade AA steers and heifers at that level, for example.

This move eliminates the advantage held by certain buyers whose ceiling prices were unduly high and who, heretofore, could afford to outbid buyers with lower ceiling prices.

Rubber Director William M. Jeffers asks all American newspapers, daily and weekly, to carry a special message as often as possible until gas rationing has been started. His suggested text for a "boxed" item was:

"You Can Save Rubber and Help Win the War If You Will Do These Things:

"DRIVE only when absolutely necessary; KEEP under 35 miles an hour; KEEP your tires properly inflated; HAVE them inspected regularly; SHARE your car with others."

WPA officials have been directed to step up the training of women and older unskilled workers to fit them for skilled and semi-skilled jobs in war industries. Over 5,000,000 women must be added to payrolls in 15 months.

American farms and dairies will make available almost 18,000 tons of steel for war production in the next 12 months by getting along with simpler and fewer milk cans. A WPA order has limited the amount manufacturers can use and has ordered a reduction in the number of types.

Automobile graveyards are producing about 20 per cent of all the iron and steel scrap being used in the wartime steel industry. That's how important your old jalopy has become. Call the scrap man if the old job is out of commission.

Retail grocers who attempt to evade WPA restrictions on roasted coffee by the sale of green coffee are in jeopardy of losing their entire coffee business and of suffering other penalties.

The nation is being warned that its big scrap drive will produce large piles of metal which may stand for some time before being picked up. Victory stock piles cannot be moved at once because of the transportation problem involved, but their size measures their community's determination to win the war.

The familiar Mason jar, known to generations of housewives, is a war casualty, but it will survive. The WPA has banned the use of zinc for making the lids after Oct. 10. The order saves enough material to make 35,000 tons of brass for munitions uses. Porcelain lids with steel rims will be used.

Maximum prices for 45 imported spices and spice seeds have been set. A new OPA order raises the ceiling prices for attaching rubber topfits to women's shoes, but eliminates the extra service charge for repairs made to the heel in the attaching process. The prices vary according to quality and sizes.

Special trains have been forbidden, new runs may not be added to railroad schedules and trains may not be run in extra sections unless such extra sections have been run at least 20 per cent of the time in the last 90 days. A new ODT order acts to conserve equipment.

A supplementary recapping quota slightly more than doubles the month's original quota — and the OPA asks all eligible passenger car owners whose tire casings are worn smooth to apply for recapping certificates.

American shipyards have reached their promised goal of three ships a day.

Creation of a War Liabilities Adjustment Board to facilitate the use of all productive capacities during the war and to assure small business enterprises the opportunity of re-entering a competitive economy after the war ends has been suggested to the Senate by WPB Chairman Donald M. Nelson.

All states have agreed to enforce the 35-mile speed limit. Anybody going faster is a Hitler-Helper.

The OPA has frozen the sale of used tires and tubes and soon will ration used tires.

Retailers' representatives have been meeting with OPA men to work out ways of eliminating "luxury" services.

Preferred mileage for cars carrying students, teachers, and school employes to and from school is to be provided by OPA.

The nation's 3,800 concrete products manufacturers have been urged to maintain production to supply these materials as a substitute for lumber, of which there is a shortage.

The Bureau of Governmental Requirements has urged schools and other public institutions to obtain supplies without priority aid, if possible, or to devise substitutes.

Men's rubber boots and work shoes have been rationed.

The August munitions output increased approximately 8 per cent over the July figure, the WPB announces.

Apple butter prices have been increased approximately 10 per cent at the packer level.

You don't need a priority to have your mechanical refrigerator repaired.

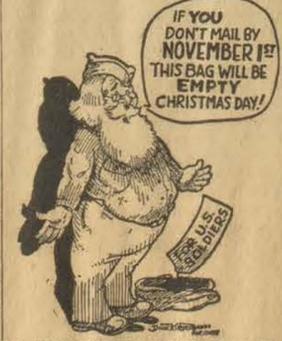

RESOLUTIONS
Whereas, God, the Divine Father, saw fit on Sunday, Aug. 30, 1942, to call from among us our beloved sister, Louise Patrick, now therefore: Be it resolved, that in her passing Adah Chapter has lost a true and loyal member whose lovely personality will long be remembered and whose good influence will continue to bear fruit in the years to come.

"They never leave us, these friends who have passed
Through the shadows of death to the sunlight above,
A thousand memories holding them fast
To the place they blessed with their memory of love."

Resolved, that we extend to her bereaved family our sincere sympathy in their sorrow and commend them to the wise care of the heavenly Father who led her through the storms of life to such a beautiful and peaceful end.

Be it further resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this chapter, a copy be sent to her husband and a copy be sent to The Floyd County Times for publication.

GAS RATIONING

Within a few weeks automobile driving will be "by card only." It will no longer be a question of where you will go for your Sunday auto trip, but how?

Week-end motor trips are to become short distance affairs, and on any summer vacation trip by sedan a bicycle strapped on the back will be compulsory equipment.

Americans have become accustomed to pile into the old boiler, step on the gas and keep driving until the family took pity or the car hit a tree. "Fill 'er up!" have long been the three most common words in the language. And it is going to be quite an experience for the average man to realize that even his detours are being rationed.

Guns must get priorities over joyrides and no real American will question the justice of putting bombers, tanks and warships ahead of hot brakes, hot dogs and hot radiators.

We have driven by ear, by intuition, by habit and by orders, but driving by card will be a new experience.

It will not be a question of how many miles does she give to the gallon, but how many gallons does she get to the card.

"Well," we can hear mom saying Sunday morning, "where will we go for a ride today?"

"Look at the ration card and see," we can hear pop reply.

"You've got it," mom will reply. "No, I haven't. I left it right there on the table so you could all make your Sunday plans accordingly."

"It's only got two punches left," sister Susie will observe as she examines it. "Then that's as far as we'll go," dad will snip.

"How far can we go on two punches?" little Edgar will ask. "That will get us just about enough gasoline for one bathing beach, four all-hot and two arguments with a motorcycle cop," dad will explain.

And a motorist already has to carry so many cards there will be serious complications. He is practically a walking card case right now. Once he empties his pockets it is hard to tell whether he is a motorist or a fortune teller.

However, war is war, and from now on most auto trips will be demitasse travels. And if you are an autoist disposed to squawk, forget it. Just think about the luck of the poor fellow who just bought a rural tavern, a roadside lunch or one of those tourist camps. Oh, man!

THE GARDEN

By JOHN S. GARDNER
Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics

LAST THINGS

With frost in the air, as this is being written, comes the reminder to put the garden in the best possible condition for the winter. And, under a green, winter-growing cover is that best condition.

Since early August many gardeners have been sowing their cover crops progressively, in the rows and patches of expending vegetables. They started with crimson clover and winter hardy strains of barley, but, Sept. 15 changed from clover to the hardier legume, hairy vetch. It is "smart" to grow one's nitrogen, in legumes, as the commercial nitrates are so much needed to make munitions.

Sowing of hairy vetch may reasonably continue until frost, but after that only the small grains are dependable. Of these the most so is rye, and if seed can be got, it is strongly urged that it be of the Balbo variety, as it has performed outstandingly in all the cover crop demonstrations of last winter.

The reasons why a winter cover crop is good for a garden have been given so often that it may be trite to repeat them, but here again are a few of the most cogent:

A cover crop holds soil against washing, even the "sheet erosion" which, because no definite gullies are made, is so generally ignored.

A cover crop makes a good garden even better. Turned under, its fiber becomes humus, soil conditioner, to contribute to the soil's sponginess, so moisture can be held, and to its workability, offsetting baking and running-together. It is not denied that stable manure would do the same, but there is not enough stable manure anywhere. A nomination for the ideal would be a cover crop top-dressed with manure just before breaking.

The reasons are so many and so sound that no gardener who has at heart his own best interests, and those of his garden, may omit now sowing his winter cover crop.

So saying, this column takes its leave for the year. But next spring, with the resuming of gardening, or, rather, with the resurgence of the gardens, it hopes to do its bit to help those of 1943 become truly Victory gardens.

WHAT EVERY... KENTUCKIAN... MUST KNOW ABOUT... AN IMPORTANT TAX SOURCE.....

Q: What benefits does Kentucky receive from the legal beer industry?

A: Nearly $8,000,000 in taxes paid into the State treasury since 1935; honest jobs at good pay for more than 15,000 Kentuckians; more than $70,000,000 to date, in salaries and wages for Kentucky workers; plus countless benefits to counties and municipalities throughout the State in taxes, license fees, etc.

Q: Does the State of Kentucky need the beer industry's taxes?

A: Yes—every dollar! Kentucky's Commissioner of Revenue recently estimated that the State will have $6,500,000 less revenue during the 1942-43 fiscal year than it had last year. With many sources of revenue drying up, the beer industry's $1,300,000 (estimated) taxes are more important than ever. Without this revenue, you might have to dig still deeper into your own pocket to help make up for the loss.

Q: How does the State use the taxes paid by the beer industry?

A: This revenue, which amounted to approximately $1,360,000 in the 1941-42 fiscal year, is used for educational purposes throughout the State; for Old Age Assistance, Aid to Dependent Children, Aid to the Blind, Health Service, Confederate Pensions, etc., and for expenses of State government.

Every county, every city and town, every individual in Kentucky benefits directly or indirectly from beer's taxes.

Sunday was the memorial of "Aunt" Kate Wireman. A large crowd was present. Revs. Alex Stephens and J. H. Conley were the ministers.

G. W. Adams, former postmaster at Myrtle, was baptized Sunday. The following children were present for the occasion: Mrs. M. M. Collins, Lackey; Mrs. H. H. Hornsby, Garrett; Mrs. Milt Stanley, Bonanza; W. C. Adams, Myrtle. The Sunday preceding his baptism was his 85th birthday.

Dr. C. T. Stanley, of Ashland, was the guest of relatives here over the week-end.

Alex Music, of Stephens Branch, was visiting here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Woods and baby, Judith Carroll, were week-end visitors of Mrs. Woods' mother, Mrs. Baldrige.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stephens and son, of Prestonsburg, visited Mrs. Stephens' mother here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Ratliff and daughter, Mary Elizabeth, have returned from an extended visit in Indiana.

CHILDREN'S COLDS

FOR DIRECT RELIEF from miseries of colds—coughing, phlegm, irritation, clogged upper air passages—rub throat, chest, and back with Vicks VapoRub. Its poultice-and-vapor action brings relief without dosing.

ALSO, FOR HEAD COLD "sniffles", melt a spoonful of VapoRub in hot water. Then have the child breathe in the steaming vapors.

Mrs. Bill Pettry, of Alexandria, Va., is visiting relatives here this week. She was guest of honor at a dinner Wednesday night at Louie's Cafe in Pikeville. Other members of the party were Mesdames C. B. Ison, J. O. Webb, Rudolph Spencer, E. C. Blanton and F. M. Rasnick. After the dinner, the party visited Mrs. R. H. Messer at the Methodist hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bamer and daughter spent the week-end in Fort Gay, W. Va.

Mrs. Versa Moore, of Laporte, Ind., is guest this week of her sister, Mrs. Lloyd Hughes.

Mrs. J. E. Martin and daughter Ruth were shopping in Hazard Thursday.

Mrs. Richard Martin is suffering from a dislocated arm caused by a fall at her home.

Mrs. Barbara Pack entertained with a family dinner Sunday, honoring her son Glenn who was inducted into the army Tuesday.

The many friends of Mrs. R. H. Messer will be glad to know she has returned home after undergoing a major operation in Pikeville. She is recuperating nicely.

Mrs. H. H. Hornsby and daughter Sue visited relatives at Bonanza Sunday.

Citizens of Lackey-Garrett donated very generously to the fund for cigarettes to be given to the draftees who left Tuesday to be inducted into the army.

Last Friday night the P.-T.A. gave a second ice cream social, making a total of $70.13 on the two socials. From this fund the P.-T. A. has bought work books for every student in school as well as other school supplies and an oil cook stove. Painting inside of the school building is planned. The P.-T. A. will very soon make plans for the Halloween carnival.

Mrs. Otto Fannin, who has been very ill, is home from the hospital.

Pvt. Jake Bates was called home from Florida, where he is stationed, by the death of his grandfather, J. P. Akers.

Mrs. Harry Patton and daughter Fay were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lackey Salisbury Saturday evening.

Happy parents were Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Conn last Sunday when they had seven of their nine children home for dinner—Claude, Dewey and Ann from Postoria, O.; Pvt. Frank Conn from Indiana; Nora from Pikeville; Edna and Jack, at home. Those absent were Capt. Charles Conn, of Texas, Pvt. Bill Conn, in Tennessee. They already have three sons in the army. Dewey is home to enlist. Jack says he is going to enlist as soon as this year's school is over. He is a senior in high school.

ORKNEY

(Last week's correspondence)

Here's some news from a little community in Floyd county most people forget about. Just to show you we aren't forgetting Pearl Harbor, here's the names of some of the boys in the service, and some things people might want to know:

Private Marion Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Anderson, is stationed at Barksdale Field, La.—air corps.

Private Ivan Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hamilton, is stationed at Drew Field, Tampa, Fla.

Sgt. Clyde Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hamilton, is stationed at Ft. McClellan, Ala.

Pvt. Jesse Vance, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Vance, is at Camp Perry, Ohio.

Pvt. Robert Vance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Vance, is stationed at Salt Lake City, Utah.

Pvt. Herman Conley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Conley, is stationed at Camp Crowder, Mo.

Seaman 2nd class Charles George, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve George, is at South Brooklyn, N. Y.

Misses Daisy Lea Sizemore and Wilma Hamilton are working in Danville, Ky.

Mrs. J. C. Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Anderson, has returned to her home in Plaup, Ill.

Theodore Storie was visiting his daughter last week-end. He is in the signal corps at Lexington.

Milford (Burr) Anderson is in the signal corps at Lexington.

Miss Mame Lea Bellamy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bellamy, is visiting her sister, Clara, who is employed in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. J. F. Ring was in Prestonsburg last week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Eph Edwards and family, formerly of Estill, have moved to Midas.

Mrs. Bunyan Oney is leaving for Akron, O., where she has a position in the Akron Bible School.

Mrs. R. P. Crumpler, of Wayland, plans to return home Oct. 9 from Cascade, Va., where she has been visiting relatives since Sept. 23.

Richard Vincent has been confined to his home with a rather serious throat ailment.

John Haymond has been ill with tonsillitis.

Mrs. Andrew Pow, of Northampton, Mass., has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Pow.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harmon and sons spent the week-end at Norris Lake, Tenn.

Mrs. W. O. Campbell has heard from her brother, Pvt. Lindsay Calhoun, who is somewhere "across the water."

Pvt. Edgar (Blackie) Johnson, former employe at Wayland, is at Camp Stewart, Ga. Pvt. Chester Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Allen, Steele's Creek, is home on furlough.

Misses Beulah Wolf and Zella Boyd are selling Christmas cards to finish paying for the piano at the Church of God.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Chambers, former managers of the Glo boarding house, have moved up Beaver Creek.

Lawrence Woodall, formerly of Wayland, is in the service, and has been home on furlough.

Henry Sparks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sparks, of New Estill, is home on furlough.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. (Bud) Ford, of Holden, W. Va., were visiting friends and relatives at Wayland and Steele's Creek, over the week-end.

Mrs. Charley Curnutte is doing practical nursing at the Stumbo Memorial hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. John Warman have purchased property in New Estill, and now are making plans to remodel their house.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn (Nig) Cooper will move into their new home at Martin Branch, next week. A "house-warming" or camp-fire cooked steaks seem indicated, as a welcome for the new neighbors.

Mrs. Rachel Beverly, widow of Hiram Beverly, of Martin, was visiting relatives at Wayland and Steele's Creek last week-end.

DIED

Mrs. Smith Elder, sister of Mrs. W. S. Warwick, of Wayland, died suddenly last week. Mrs. Elder was known to young and old as "Aunt Molly," for she had made the Warwick residence her home since the death of her husband, a few years ago. Mrs. Elder was born at Dayton, Tenn., about 66 years ago, and is survived by one sister, Mrs. W. S. Warwick; three brothers, D. W. and Arthur J. Eastman, of Cleveland, Ohio; Dr. Thomas Eastman, of Chicago, Ill. Besides her sister and brothers, Mrs. Elder leaves a son and two daughters, Webster Elder, Cleveland, Ohio, Mrs. Jim Stines, Middlesboro, Ky., and Mrs. Paris Algood, Harlan, Ky. The burial took place at the Martin Branch cemetery last Friday.

GOING AWAY PARTY

Mesdames V. A. Hayes and Arnold Cassidy were hostesses to a delightful "going-away" party for Mrs. Paul Wells Tuesday evening in the Cassidy home, when a large number of friends called to bid Mrs. Wells goodbye. The honoree was the recipient of numerous attractive gifts, which she acknowledged. The hostesses served dainty refreshments to their guests.

RED CROSS WORK STARTED

Mrs. Ed Sutton is newly appointed chairman of the Maytown Red Cross sewing, and desires that all who will assist, contact her at once. There will be both machine and handwork to do, also knitting for those who are capable. It is hoped that every woman will do something in connection with this work. None should be a slacker here. For those who cannot sew are volunteer teachers or the worthy example of some busy woman who donate the snaps, thread and findings, or who employ some needy woman to do their share of the sewing. All who wish to help with this, worthwhile of all programs, will do so in some form.

BIG ENOUGH to do a BIG JOB!

This huge American bomber carries a large load a long distance—and does a job no smaller plane can do.

Size is America's salvation today in other ways as well. The size of our land and its rich resources. The size of our great production plants. And the size of the electric industry that powers the machines that make planes, tanks, guns and ships.

Like other American industries, the electric industry gained its size, skill and experience under the free democratic system for which we're fighting. It grew by supplying better and better service to more and more people at lower and lower price—building on the invested savings of millions of Americans—under practical business management and public regulation.

Because the electric companies were ready when war came—because no war plant had to wait for power—precious time was saved for Victory. How big should an electric company be? Big enough to do the job, right around the clock and the calendar.

THE TIMES—And Newspaper Week

THIS is National Newspaper Week, and so the occasion presents itself for newspapers to take time out to remind their respective communities of what the nation's newspapers mean to our way of life.

This occasion offers some excuse for newspapers to "sound off," to tell their readers how important they are to the American Way, how much they serve, and in how many ways, the public in general.

THE FLOYD COUNTY TIMES is not without pride, it does not shun the appreciation of its readers and those whom it tries to serve. Yet it declines to "pat itself on the back" by way of advertising its virtues.

This newspaper is convinced that one's friends believe the best of you; that one's enemies believe the worst—that, therefore, explanations of works and policies achieve no great end.

Upon receipt Monday morning of a helpful press association bulletin, suggesting ways and means of showing our readers what THE TIMES has done for its community (Floyd county), we were tempted to take a yardstick, measure up all those hundreds of inches we gave during the past year to community interests—to Floyd county's churches, schools, civic clubs, charitable endeavors, the war effort, et cetera. We were, we admit, tempted to try to reduce those services into dollars and cents.

But we decided against that. We made that decision, because we are convinced that those of our readers who really THINK and who have a sense of values are as well-qualified as we to measure this newspaper's worth to the public as a whole. Whatever we might say to those minus this gift would be wasted. So, this National Newspaper Week, when American journalism is being honored, THE TIMES merely asks the forbearance of all for its imperfections, the friendship of all as its services and its desires to serve merit friendship.

ON THE WRONG TACK?

IT may be that THE TIMES has been on the wrong tack, after all. Maybe we shouldn't have taken off from this end of the field. Maybe the other end would have been better.

What we mean to say is, the WPA commodity distribution in Floyd county, even if it is exorbitantly high, is altogether in line with the WPA national policy, and the only way to reduce this waste of foodstuffs needed by this country, Britain, Russia and others of the Allied Nations is for Washington to cut down on the distribution of surplus foodstuffs of the country.

Floyd county will save not a cent in reduction of these foodstuffs, as long as the Certifying Agent and the Commodity Supervisor continue their work. Whatever this one county might save by cutting off food supplies to those who do not need them would, under the WPA organization, be wasted elsewhere.

Yet THE TIMES contends that a saving of food is a patriotic duty.

It contends that those aged persons past their days of wage-earning, those diseased beyond such service to themselves and their country, the orphans and a few gamins of the streets should be fed at public expense. That is nothing but humaneness and practical human-ity.

But this newspaper, on the other hand, steadfastly maintains that the men and women and the children who belong to them, who are able to feed and clothe themselves have no claim on a nation at war for their upkeep at the expense of those who buy War Bonds and suffer rationing of foodstuffs and other necessities of life.

If rationing is necessary, why does not the federal government ration the things on which this nation must subsist until victory is won.

FIRST WOMAN TO TEACH AT ARMY AIR SCHOOL

LOWRY FIELD, COLORADO — Official Lowry Field Photo—Civilian men and women will soon take over much of the teaching of the schools of the Army Air Forces—technical training command in line with the War Department's policy of relieving soldier-instructors for more active assignments. First lady instructor to teach at the Armament School here is Miss Fran McVey of Dallas, Texas shown looking over one of the Army Air Force aircraft machine guns. She will teach the armament phase to future aces.

and large, there is so little interest here for a coal miner's wife that I can't understand how or why anyone would or could possibly choose COAL for their beginning and ending! It seems that coal-mining is considered Anathema; or, I should have said, it was the miners, their wives and children who are considered Anathema. Why? Do we not have intelligence, ability, talent, perhaps even skill, in something as individuals? A diamond does not lose its brilliance because it happens to be among stones of lesser brilliance or value.

There is no community activity or interest that the miners' wives may share. The officials' and bosses' wives?—yes. They have the Woman's Club, the Red Cross, their missionary work and the P.-T. A., which is supposed to be for all parents, but hasn't been for all, for a number of years, now. Why? Other parents tell me that they have no voice in the P.-T. A. I go, now and then, but am well-snubbed. So it goes. The majority is ignored, held down, so a very few may seem more fortunate, or receive more advantages than the rest. This country is supposed to be a democratic nation. Then why all this UN-democratic way of life? One would think, with our country in this awful war, that there would be more friendly co-operation, less selfishness, less striving to be the "top horse." There are hundreds of willing hands to do their part in our war effort, but their self-respect will not let them intrude where they are not wanted!

There is surely something, an outside interest, that would include all families in a community; for one becomes dull without some kind of intellectual or social interest, including the usual home, church and school activities. The life of a coal miner, to me, seems a dull, hopeless, uninspiring sort of existence, anyway it is looked at. It reminds me of years and years ago, when I little dreamed that I would ever live in the "mountains" of Kentucky. I used to do institutional nursing. Naturally, it took me to different states. Invariably, after getting acquainted with other nurses and employees, when it was known that I was a Kentuckian, the question was, "Oh, are you from the mountains?" And if any of them were inclined to do social work, it was, "I am going to Kentucky and do Settlement Work." I must not have been a very good, complimentary advertisement for Kentucky. I wonder what became of those "social workers" inclined persons. They would have a rich, fertile field to expand their intellectual energies on now. The little, dull, uninteresting coal-mining camps would be fine material for those ambitious "Social Workers," if I knew how and where to contact them all.

Yes, I feel bitter. Twelve years of my life in what was, to me, a completely new and strange field of occupation, and a yet stranger field or code of living. Your mountains and coal-mining communities. When I first came here, the people were not friendly, not like where I came from; they seemed to resent outsiders. I was even called a "Furriner," yet I have tried to be friendly and neighborly. I do not believe in being contented to remain in a "rut." I do not begrudge anyone, who is trying to better himself, or "get somewhere"; but it is not necessary to be ruthless about it. People could be so much happier every where, even here, if we would only be friendly and not so class-conscious. Pedigree wear out; wealth can dwindle away; position or prominence or prestige all can be lost quicker than attained; death takes friends and loved ones, and so all that remains is memories, just memories! I don't have very flattering or kind and loving memories, so far, of Floyd county, although I have praised it to the folks back home, for I don't like raised eye-

MAY, CRITICAL OF FARM BLOC

Position Is Unique Among Agriculture Commissioners

Washington, Sept. 24—William H. May, Kentucky's Commissioner of Agriculture, today criticized sharply members of the farm bloc in the House of Representatives who voted yesterday to give farm products prices a 12½ per cent of parity. Mr. May declared that the majority of American farmers are satisfied with parity prices, and that to add 12½ per cent is "just like putting whipped cream on the top of a marshmallow sundae."

SERIOUSLY SPEAKING

By E. F. EPLING
Most all of us have seen the home front in action. But have you seen the little fellows trying to compete with the others in this drive for scrap? Loads too heavy for them; but by their determination, strength beyond their years is mustered to drag it in. And the piles grow and grow. Their eyes behold the work of their hands and their hearts swell with pride in knowing they are little Americans.

I glanced again at the well-stocked shelves and show-cases in a certain store as I heard a customer say, "Why don't you go out of business?" Just because the clerk could not sell him a particular kind of meat. Plenty of food for thought there.

Here's a real tip. But you might have had same down pat also. Try to keep a pencil and piece of paper always handy. And when you see a car speeding, take down the license number. You'll help your country more than you think—not just to be messy or smart, but always to be ready to help curb these things that our government says must be stopped.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAM
HERE OCTOBER 13
A civil service examination will be conducted at the postoffice here Tuesday, Oct. 13, at 9 a.m., for applicants desiring positions with the U. S. government as junior stenographers, senior and junior typists, Mrs. Emma Osborne, local examiner, announces.

whatever those differences may be, they should be settled by Americans and not by our enemies. To lose this war means only one thing, farm peasantry and enslavement of labor. Let's defeat the common enemy and then resume the fight among ourselves.

"Farm bloc members, who voted yesterday to re-write the parity formula, might find that their action made it possible for Hitler to decide by decree at some future time just what return the American farmer shall get for his crops."

DRIFT NOSES EMMA, 3-1

Next of 3-Game Series Scheduled Sunday At P'burg Park

Emma, Ky., Oct. 4 (Spl.)—In the first of a three-game series Drift's B team defeated the Emma youths, 2-1. Don Weddington pitched excellent ball for Emma, but was the victim of two unearned runs in the eighth and ninth. Adrian Gunnell and Joe Weddington played excellent defensive ball. Gunnell accepted six consecutive chances, and Weddington made several nice running catches besides nabbing two at the plate on nice throws. Joe Weddington and Walter Mullins led the Emma hitting attack with 3 each. Mullins doubled Children in the ninth, for their only run.

McSurlay struck out 13 Emma batsmen and Weddington struck out 11. Next game will be played at Prestonsburg Sunday at 1:30 p. m. The box score:

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

WET-AND-DRY CHOOSE-UP

Editor, The Times:
Well, it looks like my letter got by the man with the blue pencil (maybe he was not in). Shikepoke is on the warpath again, and this time he is right. Work, fight or go to H— (I could mean Hitler). I see where we are going to have a wet-dry election in Floyd county. Well, all the good retail liquor stores tell me the bootleggers are about to put them out of business, anyway. Ask W. W. Cooley (he tried to sell legal whisky awhile). Now it is red whisky they are selling.

You know, if it was not for a lot of drunks who can't take a drink and stop, no one would ever think about prohibition. The drunks bring this on themselves. Now the dealer who puts a few cents profit above decency and sells to those men who continually stay drunk, starve and mistreat their families (the dealer knows them)—he is helping bring on this vote to dry up this county. He can do more than anyone else. Why don't these dealers call a meeting and pledge that no one will sell a confirmed drunkard or minor any kind of intoxicating liquor? Also to help rid the county of bootleggers. If this was done, the county would never go dry. But something must be done soon, or else!

I am not a crank on the whisky question; I'll take a drink. I don't think a drink or two will send you to hell, but when it makes you helpless for two or three days, keeps your children home from school without clothes and proper food to eat, then the dealer who sells you liquor is cutting his own throat by bringing public opinion down on the whisky business. Next step, dry election and dry victory. Better think it over and get together if it is not too late.

Well, I'll probably catch plenty for this. Who cares? I don't. I just say what I think.

J. S. H.

SUGGESTS WORKABLE PROGRAM
I have often read in THE TIMES where boys write open letters to the paper. I'd like to tell you Uncle Sam's view on sports.

When I first took over this job as athletic director of this post we had only a few bats and balls, baseball and softball, and one weight-lifting outfit—$100 worth of equipment at the most. Now we have over $6,000 worth of equipment and $2,000 in the bank.

The Red Cross donates a lot. But ferent communities to get a program started, it would be a great thing. You cannot stress the physical culture of our youths too much in my opinion. Speak to Dr. Ransdell about the lectures and motion pictures. Have a meeting of coaches and principals about the athletic program and the exercises. I am sure you will do a great deal of good for the morale and the building up of the community if you can find time to do this. Somebody should! Every male from 10 to 50 should have a certain amount of exercise to stay fit—to do his work better and to help win the war.

If you plan to go through with this, drop me a line some time and let me know how things are going.

MINER'S WIFE PROTESTS

Editor, The Times:
"Backward, turn backward, O, Time, in your flight!
Make me a child again, just for tonight.
Rock me to sleep, Mother! Rock me to sleep."

Yes, that old song brings back to me vivid memories of childhood happiness and security; memories of contented, hard-working, honest and upright farmers, their motherly wives with their large families. The peaceful, wide country-ides; the meadows full of grazing sheep and the cunning little lambs; pastures of sleek cattle, when, at the close of evening, I would mount "Ben," my school pony, and bring the cows in to be milked. The early risings and the late hours that it required to put the crops in; or the hurry and bustle of harvesting. Those harvest dinners were the high lights to the young ladies of the big, old, rambling farm-houses, who did the cake-making or the pies, who, also, waited on the tables, for it was a pleasure to steal glances at the handsome, brawny, sun-tanned young farm-hands who were with the "harvesting gang."

Why does it make me homesick? Because those kind, helpful farmers believed in the Golden Rule. They did not hesitate to lay aside their own work to help a neighbor in time of need. There was no such thing as selfishness or snobbishness among those good farmers and citizens of Hardin and Meade counties where I was born and lived for nearly twenty years. One did not set himself above a neighbor, because of pedigree or education or wealth; for they were all men and women of the soil, and tried to live Christian lives.

No, I am not a native-born Floyd countian. I often think I have wasted the best years of my life, living here in one of our coal-mining communities, Wayland, where so much "class distinction" is made in a class of working people. It all seems so illogical to me. Taken by

One of the nicest courtesies you show your guests from out of town is to have their visits mentioned on this local page.

Floyd County Goes To War

Where Floyd Countians in Armed Forces Are, What They're Doing Told

Newspaper readers over America, a few weeks back, found a photo showing a young American soldier of the armored forces making a little bit of water go a long way, out on the Libyan desert, of interest. But to folks hereabouts the picture was deeply interesting. For the soldier facing the camera was Prestonsburg's Cpl. Bob Walters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brad Walters. Since that time, he more than likely has been in several brushes with Rommel and his Afrika corps.

Capt. Grady Sellards, formerly of Prestonsburg and the University of Kentucky, Lexington, is now Post Property Officer at Camp Swift, Texas.

Inducted at Fort Thomas July 11, Pvt. Beckham Stumbo, former assistant at the Floyd county jail, completed training at the 990th air force technical school, Atlantic City, N. J., in seven weeks and now is with the 4th air base squadron at Selbridge Field, Michigan.

William (Bill) Bowling, of Prestonsburg, is studying instrument surveying in the field artillery at Fort Bragg, N. C.

Assigned to the 49th general hospital, Camp Carson, Colo., recently was Pvt. Herbert Spradlin, of Cliff.

Skillfully trained in the use and repair of deadly weapons of an American armored division, Cpl. Thomas Burga, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Burga, of Edgar, last week was graduated from the gunnery department of the armored force school at Fort Knox.

Roy J. Shepherd, of Wheelwright, completed a 16 week course of intensive training in the school for aviation machinist's mates at the service schools of the U. S. Navy at Great Lakes, Ill., Oct. 2.

BETSY LAYNE PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Whitt, of Lexington, were the week-end guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lum Whitt, here. Glenn is employed in the U. S. radio signal corps.

Kermit Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Martin, here, enlisted in the U. S. Marine corps and left Wednesday for the training station at Parris Island, South Carolina.

Nine of the 76 army selectees to leave this week for Huntington, W. Va., for the final check-up prior to induction for the U. S. army, were from Betsy Layne and surrounding communities. They were—from Betsy Layne, Haskel Crum, Thomas Eugene Lewis, Jesse Elliott and Cecil Rice; from Harold, Ots Frasure, Irvin Lee Clark, Bert Perry and Carl Robbette; from Justell, Kenneth Tackett.

For the past several weeks, Dr. O. G. Pennington, of the State Department of Health, Bureau of Dental Health, has been on the Betsy Layne high school grounds repairing or extracting faulty teeth of students of Betsy Layne school and various other schools of the county.

REWARD

About two months ago I left a bill fold lying in Kroger's store one Saturday afternoon and some one found it and kept it. I had a Sugar Ration ticket in it with my name on it. Any one furnishing information sufficient to convict the party who found it and kept it will receive a cash reward from me of $25.

About two weeks ago some one stole my practically new "AIRMAR" bicycle, color red and white. To the party furnishing information sufficient to convict this THIEF I will pay a cash reward of $10.00.

I hate thieves. Come on, good citizens, and help stop so much stealing.

JOE P. TACKETT

Lyons, 1st Floyd Man To Receive Officer Candidate Bars

Special to The Times Fort Knox, Ky., Oct. 5—Harry D. Lyons, Glo, Ky., accomplished the greatest step in the private-to-general course—the step from non-commissioned officer to commissioned officer status—as he graduated last week from the Armored Force Officer Candidate School here with the gold bars of a second lieutenant in the army of the United States. A son of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Lyons, of Glo, he is the first Floyd countian to earn a commission from an officer candidate school.

Second Lieutenant Lyons' class of selected enlisted men is the eleventh to be graduated from this department of the Armored Force School, and the tenth since Pearl Harbor. Under the new expansion policy, the school graduates several thousand officers annually instead of a few hundred as originally planned.

For the past three months these new officers have received detached training regarding all eight branches of the Armored Force, including actual maintenance and operation of the main types of vehicles in the hardest-hitting land branch of the army. In addition to required shop practice and classroom work, tactical operations in the field and physical are being emphasized.

WINNING the WAR
Begins
on the farm

IT'S TRUE . . .

that no planes roar down upon your home . . . no shells plow your fields . . . no armies trample your crops and fields. Yet in this war, victory begins on your farm—by producing more Food for Freedom—and by saving more in War Bonds and Stamps. Here indeed is an opportunity every American will welcome. For by saving your money, you help save for yourself as well as your country. What's more, your money invested in War Bonds helps keep down the prices of the things you buy; helps make the money you spend go further—now. By putting your money into War Bonds and keeping it up regularly, month after month, you will be sure of having the money when you can use it best. And if you need the money, you can get it back anytime after 60 days from issue date of the Bond. Don't delay—your "fighting dollars" are needed now. Make Every Market Day "Bond Day"—Invest At Least 10%.

Hybrid corn in Owsley county is expected to yield 60 to 70 bushels to the acre.
Potato production is thought to be the largest in the history of Green county.
A survey in Jackson county revealed nearly 30 per cent increase in chicken raising.
In Pendleton county, about 1,000 acres of vetch will be seeded as a cover and green manure crop.

SHIKE'S POKES

(The views expressed herein are those of the writer and not necessarily those of this newspaper.—Editor.)

If I was a judge in that potato contest at Martin between Val Hatton and Doc Collins—well, I could see them both as winners. Val could sell his sweet potatoes for pumpkins (most of Beaver Creek's pumpkins were washed off this year) and Doc could whitewash his Irish potatoes and sell them for aspirin. But then I was talking to Doc Sunday, and he sez that Val and Ducky, instead of digging their 50-foot rows of potatoes made a mistake and dug his 100-foot row. Doc sez that is an awful mistake for an engineer and a math teacher to make.

Synthetic rubber seems to be a mysterious substance that everybody knows how to make, but nobody makes any of it.

Boys, after all, it's a lot better to lend Uncle Sam 10 per cent rather than give Hitler 80 per cent.

I saw a woman the other day who called her husband "Airplane," because he was no good on earth.

Talking about production, that poem by an American Marine hits the spot: "Suppose our lines should form, then break. Because of things you failed to make— That Extra tank, or ship, or plane For which we waited, all in vain. Will you then come and take the blame?"

For we, not you, will pay the cost Of battles you, not we, have lost."

The way I see it, the main thing the matter with our war effort—it's a startling thing to say, nevertheless true—there are too many people concerned about how to make a good thing out of this war—how to dodge sacrifice—let the other fellow do it—how to take advantage of war opportunities at others' expense. If we survive this ordeal—AND WE MUST—then every fellow will have to "paddle his own canoe."

I'll bet Mr. Curry Ginter from Jack's Creek is eating more this week. New store teeth.

Yep, you can tell it's war time, I saw Harve riding his "Spotted Buck" to work Friday—the Arkansas Traveler.

Washington, D. C.
WAGE STABILIZATION
You can write it down that the President will use his executive powers to keep wages in check rather than ask congress for any new legislation dealing with wage stabilization.

There are two reasons for this:
(1) Wage control legislation would be sure to stir up another bitter congressional controversy, as bad or worse than the brawl over farm parity prices. It might even require months to get both houses to agree on a bill satisfactory to the administration.

(2) The President believes that the policy proposed by the War Labor board's recent steel wage decision—limiting wage increases to 15 per cent over scales prevailing on January 1, 1941—plus additional rationing of consumer goods, will be sufficient for the time being to brake inflation threats to the working man's pocketbook.

Inside fact is that the War Labor board is contemplating only one further step in its wage stabilization program, and this is not so much an anti-inflation move as a concession to certain labor groups and a contribution to the prosecution of the war.

Wages in certain industries, including shipyards and tool-and-die plants, are above the 15 per cent increase ceiling set by the board. This raises the question—shall wages in these industries be brought down to conform with scales in other war plants which pay below the ceiling?

The answer is—there will be no reduction in wages. The President has decided definitely against this. Instead, to prevent piracy and migration of workers away from vital war plants paying below the 15 per cent ceiling, the War Labor board is planning to amend its wage policy to permit the payment of "premium wages" (above the ceiling) in such plants.

Note: One industry sure to be allowed "premium wages" is aircraft, which has lost many workmen, by piracy and migration, to higher-paying shipyards.

NEW ARMY FOOD

To save shipping space, the army is sending food overseas in dehydrated form. Experiments in taste-preserving dehydration have been carried out and tested on a group of army cooks.

At the Chicago depot of the quartermaster corps, the cooks sat down to a meal of dehydrated foods, principal item on the menu being scrambled eggs made by adding water to a yellow powder.

It has been discovered that one pound of dehydrated turnips will serve 28 persons, after water is added.

BEHIND THE AIR CORPS

This war will be won or lost in the air. But despite that fact the air forces will win or lose the war on the ground. In other words, the success of operations in the air depends on ground crews, who outnumber air crews ten to one.

Featured in the headlines and the newsreels every day are the pilots and machine gunners. But the unsung heroes of this war are the ground crews.

Real fact is that it takes only one man to pilot a fighter plane, but it takes eight or ten maintenance men to keep it in shape to fight. A four-engine bomber requires a flying crew of nine, and a maintenance crew of 25. Often a ground crew will be assigned exclusively to one plane, and will become attached to it with the affection a stable boy has for a race horse.

Chief of Staff General Marshall has revealed that the overall strength of the air force is expected to reach 1,000,000 men by the end of 1942, and 2,000,000 by the end of next year. If the war is won in 1943, it will be won by these 2,000,000 men. But 1,800,000 of them will be "fighting" on the ground.

They are the overall-boys, the grease monkeys, the men who spend all day overhauling an engine which has been flying all night, the men who know what heat is like in the deserts of Africa, because they don't get up in the air for relief, as do the pilots.

OVERSEAS CANDY

The quartermaster corps is in the market to buy 2,500,000 pounds of hard candy: peppermint, orange, lemon, lime, anise, and cherry.

The hard candy is being bought for overseas troops, as part of the regular field ration. Official explanation is that candy is an excellent source of energy.

AFRICAN CAMEL CREWS

They are the mechanics, the armorers, the metal workers, the welders—yes, and they are the pick and shovel men who build the landing fields in foreign posts, and repair them after enemy bombers have passed over. They are also the cooks and the mess boys, the pay masters, the doctors, and the truck drivers. In short, they are the men who perform every duty that keeps a plane in the air.

They do everything except replace the African camels.

THIS seems to be a good spot in which to pay additional tribute to a fellow by the name of Carl Owen Hubbell, a pitcher for Mel Ott's New York Giants.

After taking in all the testimony available from Mel Ott, his fellow Giants and his opponents from the National and American league, Carl Hubbell comes closer to being: "The perfect ball player" than any one we've ever known.

There is, of course, no such word as "perfection" in the human layout. It is the closest approach to perfection that one must consider.

"Here is what Carl Hubbell has," Mel Ott told me. "Just check against it—"

"Skill, courage, brains, modesty, humility, loyalty, stamina, the will to win, concentration, physical fitness—100 per cent of which qualities he has at every start."

This happens to be a fair collection of worthwhile ingredients in an age where such features as "modesty," "humility," "loyalty," "stamina" and "concentration" are often well below par.

Skill, courage and brains combined in one system are rare enough.

But these qualities are usually accompanied by arrogance, over-confidence, physical unfitness and spotty concentration.

About Carl Hubbell

Lon Warneke, the tobacco chewer from Mt. Ida, Ark., one of the best pitchers in the game, said recently that Hubbell was the greatest pitcher he had ever seen.

"That tells only half the story," Mel Ott said. "Carl Hubbell is the most remarkable man I've ever known in baseball."

CARL HUBBELL
ARMY CHILDERS

"When he started this season with the Giants back in April he was 39 years old. He had been a star pitcher for 20 years. We kicked away one game after another back of him. He never had a complaint. He had lost six of his first seven starts. He took all the blame. But in place of losing heart he kept working just as hard and then won his next six straight starts."

"It doesn't make any difference how many errors you make back of Carl. He takes the blame. He never has an alibi or an excuse. It took him five years through seven different towns to reach the Giants in 1928, but this never slowed him down. He has been their star ever since he arrived."

"Carl has won 19 games in a row. He fanned five of the greatest hitters the American league ever knew in succession. He has won four of his six World Series starts. He won 116 games in five years for the Giants, a remarkable record with only a fair hitting ball club. But that's only a small part of the real Carl Hubbell."

Still Learning

"Hubbell, after 20 years, is still learning. When he sits on the bench he watches every batter that comes to the plate. He watches every pitcher to see just what he has. He works just as hard when he isn't pitching as he does in the box. The greatest pitcher of them all, he takes nothing for granted. During a game, even when he is on the bench, he overlooks nothing. He rarely says a word.

"His whole heart and soul are in that ball game—and that's after 20 years of competition. He is just as keen to win now—I think even keener—than he was at his prime.

"And through it all he is the most modest man I ever knew. If Carl won 40 consecutive games, if he broke every pitching record, he would still be the same quiet, loyal, modest fellow trying to learn—and giving all the credit to the team."

I talked with several of the Giants about Hubbell.

"He is under one tough hand-cap," a Giant veteran said. "When Carl pitches we all are so keen to win for him that we tighten up. We know there's no one like him. We'd break a leg and an arm to win for him. So at times we get over anxious, try too hard, and lose games he should have won. But you can make six errors back of Hub and you'll never hear a squawk. When he loses he is the one who takes the blame. When he wins—it's the team that did it."

LACKEY
Mrs. Thomas Hatcher entertained the Woman's Club in the home of Mrs. W. T. Hatcher Wednesday evening, last week. Mrs. George Pow, of Wayland, had as guest at the meeting her sister, Mrs. Andrew Pow, Northampton, Massachusetts.

John Frasure, Jr., of Auxier, is working at Porter Junction depot during the absence of J. R. Lee, who is ill at his home in Stanton, Virginia.

Dr. and Mrs. M. M. Collins have returned home after an absence of several days. While away Mrs. Collins attended the board meeting of the Kentucky Federation of Woman's Clubs in Louisville. From there they went to Dillsboro, Indiana, for a few days.

Pvt. Cordell Castle is visiting his mother, Mrs. Jennie Castle, here.

Mrs. W. T. Hatcher, Mrs. Mike Staley and Mrs. M. M. Collins attended the funeral of Mrs. Will Howes at Betsy Layne Thursday.

HUEYSVILLE
Mrs. Wayne Hall, Miss Nola Gearheart and Mrs. Lee Crisp were Shopping in Garrett Tuesday.

Mrs. Jack Fitzpatrick and children were visiting friends at Reed Branch Friday.

Several residents of this place attended the annual meeting of the Church of Christ at Gio last weekend.

Several Hueysville boys who are in the army have been home on furlough, the past week. Some have longer furloughs and will remain for another week. Burt Patrick, son of C. D. Patrick, got 20 days off.

Pft. Lawrence Bates left Monday for Louisville where he will stop for a few days with relatives before going on to Camp Breckinridge.

Cpl. Edgar W. Coburn left Wednesday, last week, for Camp Breckinridge, Ky. He will make a short visit in Ashland and Ironton with his sisters, Mrs. Tip Ratliff and Mrs. A. J. Conley.

$5,000<sup>00</sup> in PRIZES

offered in Kentucky's Big State-Wide
SCRAP COLLECTION DRIVE
STARTING MONDAY, OCTOBER 12TH
in every COUNTY and CORNER and HOME in this State!

Donald M. Nelson says "There is enough iron and steel on farms alone, if used with other materials, to make twice as many battleships as there are in the world today, or enough 2,000-lb. bombs to drop three per minute from big bombers incessantly for more than three years." ... The scrap is HERE, hidden, covered-up, forgotten. But it is vital to victory—and MUST be uncovered, dug up, rounded up NOW! Comb your home, your farm, your business, this week, for every pound, and have it READY at once to turn in. You'll get credit for it in the big $5,000 contest. Kentucky will get in the SCRAP to win the war. Be ready when the collection call comes.

SCRAP COLLECTION CONTEST RULES

1. ELIGIBILITY—

Every person residing within a Kentucky county is eligible to contribute to the county's total collection. Persons and their families engaged in the business of buying and selling scrap iron or collecting it on a commission are NOT eligible to compete as individuals or firms. They may, however, help to increase the county's total by initiating scrap collection, the contest credit to go to the original owner who turned it in. All the organizations, competing as such for one of the prizes, are eligible to collect scrap metal to be entered in the name of that organization. The same material, however, may NOT be credited to both the organization and the individual. Every individual living in the state and not engaged in the business of collecting scrap metal, is eligible to compete for the prize to an individual. Every state Junior Organization (in units) such as 4-H Clubs, Boy Scouts, F.A.A. Clubs, Girl Scouts or Camp

Fire Girls, is eligible to compete for Boys' and Girls' prizes.

2. PROCEDURE—

The County Salvage Committee in each county in the state will be in charge of collection of all scrap metal entered in the contest. All scrap metal turned in, must be credited to the one turning it in by means of an official receipt indicating the pounds received at delivery point. Credit in the contest will be given ONLY on the basis of these receipts. Be sure to get and hold your receipts. Credit in the Scrap Metal Contest will be granted only on scrap turned in from Oct. 12 to Oct. 31 inclusive.

3. CONTEST JUDGES

The judges of this contest will consist of a committee of three, to be named by Judge E. C. O'Rear, State Salvage Chairman, and Mrs. T. C. Carroll, State Salvage Chairwoman. The decisions of this committee of judges as to the winners in the contest will be final.

Each native totes about forty pounds of supplies over the hard route to the fighting line.

Seven Floyd Students Enroll at Morehead

Seven Floyd county students are enrolled for the fall quarter at Morehead State Teachers' College, according to the final registration count, completed last Tuesday. They are Gayle Bickford, Winifred Sturgill, William David Skiles, Gordon Moore, Oliver Little, Jr., Edna Glyn Jones, and Ruth Helen Hewitt. Morehead College has adopted an accelerated study plan as a part of the wartime program, which divides the school year into quarter periods instead of the semester system formerly used, and which will allow students to finish an ordinary four-year college course in three years. The present quarter, which opened Sept. 23, will close on Dec. 19, and the winter quarter's registration will begin Monday, Jan. 4.

Flocks of northwestern ewes in Todd county show profits of $15 to $23 per head.

Cover crop seedings in Lee county include 30,000 pounds of vetch seed, 7,500 pounds of rye grass and 5,000 pounds of crimson clover.

DO YOU WANT A BABY?

New Vitamin Combination Brings Hope to Childless Homes

Nothing equals a baby to bring complete unity and happiness into the home and tie husband and wife together in a stronger bond of enduring love and mutual interest. Divorce is rare in the homes of couples that have children.

Unhappy wives, childless due to relievable functional weakness may now enjoy the desires and activity of Nature's most wonderful creation—a normal, fully-developed, vigorous woman. A sensational new vitamin treatment specifically for women may be just the thing needed by the childless wife and quickly bring the happiness of a baby in the home. It is, of course, absolutely harmless. If you are childless due to functional weakness and lack normal vigor—if you wish to eliminate one of the great causes of unhappy marriages, by all means try Perlex for one week. To introduce this new vitamin combination to a million women quickly, the Perlex Company, 314 N. Michigan Ave. Chicago, Illinois, will send a full $2.00 supply for only $1.00 and a few cents postage. Send no money—just your name and address. Perlex comes in a plain wrapper—directions are very simple and no diet or exercise is required.

Nuptials of Miss Webb, Mr. Martin Solemnized At Lexington, Ky.

Marriage of Miss Jo Webb, of Lackey and Mr. William Edward Martin, of the U. S. Navy, at Lexington, Ky., on Tuesday, Sept. 29, is announced.

Plans for the wedding were kept a complete secret to relatives and friends, and, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. W. R. Smith, of Hindman, Miss Webb met the train in Lexington on which Mr. Martin arrived for a 10-day leave.

The bride is the attractive daughter of the late S. B. Webb and of Mrs. Minta Allen Webb, of Lackey. The union culminated a courtship of several years.

The wedding was a complete surprise to many friends and relatives throughout this section, but this surprise was no less than that experienced by the bridal couple when, on the day following their marriage, the groom received orders to report for duty at once.

Mrs. Branham, Hostess To Woman's Group

Regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church was held in the home of Mrs. Goble Branham, West Prestonsburg, Tuesday evening. The topic was, "One Great Fellowship of Love."

Mrs. Mabel Branham, leader, was assisted by Mrs. M. J. Leete, Miss Anna Woods, Mrs. Cecil Kendrick, Mrs. G. R. Allen and Mrs. O. T. Stephens in presenting the devotional program. The Society will observe the annual "Week of Prayer and Self Denial" with an all-day meeting in the church, Thursday, October 29.

Mrs. G. R. Allen and Mrs. J. D. Mayo were appointed delegates to the district conference at Ashland, October 29.

Mrs. G. R. Allen, chairman of the Christian Social Relations committee, presented a plan for the "School Children's Aid," which was heartily approved.

The Society will solicit clothing and any wearing apparel which can be renovated and remodeled to fit children, ages 6 to 14. The work will be done by the women of the church and distributed by Mrs. O. T. Stephens.

Mrs. Stephens stated that there is a great need for this work and the Society solicits the aid of any family who has clothing that can be used and will gladly call for them. Call telephone No. 6551 or 4501.

At the close of the business session Mrs. Branham served refreshments to the following members: Mrs. K. J. Whaley, Mrs. Anna Carter, Mrs. Cecil Kendrick, Mrs. O. T. Stephens, Mrs. W. B. Garriott, Mrs. G. R. Allen, Mrs. M. J. Leete, Mrs. Mabel Branham, Mrs. Lillian Keenan, Mrs. Okey Dorton, Miss Anna Woods, Miss Golbek, Mrs. J. D. Mayo, Mrs. Ike Lockwood.

Trustee Vote Elimination

ing, with the consolidated teachers being voted their first month's pay and rural teachers pay for their third month as soon as monthly reports are received at the Superintendent's office.

Because of a teacher shortage resulting from army demands and attractive defense jobs, the Board of Education this week applied to the State Department of Education for its first emergency certificates to qualify as teachers persons who lacked the ordinary qualifications of teachers. These certificates were sought for Otis Conley, named as successor to George E. Allen, Trades and Industries teacher at Martin and Maytown high schools; Miss Luta England, who will fill the vacancy created at Jack's Creek by the resignation of Minta Baldrige. There yet remains a vacancy in the Branham's Creek school.

Part-time Agriculture teaching contracts in the Betsy Layne, McDowell, Martin and Maytown schools were approved by the Board at the meeting. Under these contracts the Agriculture teachers for each school will conduct evening classes for adult farmers, the state paying two-thirds of the $150 cost of the course, the Board of Education the remainder.

Because of a shortage of school buses and of road conditions which make bus transportation of pupils impossible in some parts of the county, the Board Tuesday employed the following to operate trucks as "feeders" to the regular bus lines: Eph Delong, from Johns Creek to the mouth of Brandy Keg; Jim Reynolds, from Frasure's Creek to the McDowell consolidated school; Denzil Whitten, from Johns Creek to the mouth of Cow Creek; Wm. T. Gilbert, from Weeksbury to Wheelwright.

the home of Wadkins and "blow his head off his shoulders if he sticks his head out of the door." The Black Leg deprecations followed an organization formed as a sort of employment agency at a time when employment was hard to find and when the WPA was aiding thousands.

Lacey Barnett was in jail here this week on a striking and wounding charge in connection with the Wadkins case. Murder warrants were expected to be sworn out by members of the Wadkins family, soon after the burial Wednesday.

Burial of the victim was conducted by the Arnold Funeral Home.

come we didn't.

Writer of the draft story was told the "boys" would leave, morning of the 8th. Back at the office, he looked to his right. On that calendar the 8th was Tuesday. Unfortunately, he had forgotten to tear off the September page.

Why tell a country boy anything about coming events by day of the month, anyhow? Make it next Thursday or Friday, or the Friday and Saturday before the third Sunday, next month.

MOTHER AND "CHILD"

That particular type of individual who will jerk his car all over the road, just to hit a dog and break some child's heart, should have witnessed the scene on the highway at "Bald Alley," near here, Wednesday morning. A little, of hound pup had been hit by a car, his hind legs broken. He was down, in the middle of the highway. And out there with him was another pup, evidently a brother or sister—and, of course, his mother. A long stream of cars approached; horns blew raucously. But the two uninjured dogs did not budge. The pup that had been hurt was doing nothing but standing there, hurt inside, I honestly believe. The mother, like a real mother, she was catching her "child" with her teeth, jerking him along, trying her doggone best to get him off that highway and the path of danger. And no car or car horn was scaring her away from her mother's duty, either.

Hope that pup gets well, just for his mother's sake.

Davidson, Hartsook, Civilian Recruiters Named by Navy

Lt. G. E. Kincannon, Jr., officer in charge of naval recruiting in Kentucky, announces the appointment of Alex L. Davidson, Prestonsburg, Tate Hartsook, Wheelwright, and Roy Shortridge, of Pikeville, as civilian representatives of the navy for their localities. They have been issued certificates as "Honorary Member, Civilian Recruiter, U. S. Navy."

These men have been especially active in keeping their respective localities up to par with other localities in navy enlistments and as ex-navy men are well qualified to answer questions pertaining to the navy and naval reserve. Anyone desiring this information is requested to contact one of these civilian representatives or the regular navy recruiter.

Hunters Are Cautioned Against Damaging Telephone Lines

Hunters are requested to be doubly cautious this season when in the vicinity of telephone lines, lest their gunshots accidentally damage vital telephone equipment which must be kept working full time in interest of the war effort.

With the armed forces and war industries depending so heavily on telephone communication, it is especially important that every line be kept in service at all times.

To do this, it is essential to keep the equipment free of damage. Shots fired near telephone wires or cables may miss their mark and accidentally cut a wire or shatter an insulator. Aside from putting scores or possibly hundreds of telephones out of service, this might interfere with an important war call.

H. L. McCrary, group manager of Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, says that caution against accidental damage to telephone facilities is just another of the simple but vitally important ways in which civilians can help assure the best possible telephone service for the calls of war.

Remember These Six Points in Your Daily Buying!

RATIONING:
Rationing safeguards your share of goods that are scarce. Co-operate with the government and your local merchant in making rationing work—whether it's sugar or tires. Remember, it's not smart to get more than your share.

PRICE CONTROL:
Price Control protects you from rapidly rising prices—safeguards your budget. Understand the regulation and what it means to you. Then, work with—not against—your merchant.

PLAN SHOPPING TRIPS:
Make one well-planned shopping trip do the work of several. That's one way to prevent needless purchases and unnecessary returns.

SHARE YOUR CAR:
Car sharing saves gas, rubber and machines. If you MUST use a car for shopping, team up with your friends. Make one car do the work of four.

DON'T ASK FOR UNNECESSARY DELIVERIES:
Unnecessary deliveries waste gas, rubber and trucks. Carry home small bundles yourself. That's one way to make our tires outlast the Axis.

TAKE CARE OF WHAT YOU HAVE:
Making things last longer is a patriotic duty of every American in wartime. Have your household appliances repaired whenever possible. Don't throw them away. When in doubt call a repair man.
