THURSDAY

PRESTONSBURG, KENTUCKY

JANUARY 3, 1963

This Town... That World

Imagine a guy sitting up till all hours to see 1963 arrive, then next morning writing it 1962!

JANUS AND OTHERS

January, they tell us, was named for the Roman goddess, Janus, represented as looking in two ways—back to the old year, forward to the new. Friend of mine says he got that way looking back on what he'd thought and then pivoting to look quickly in the other direction to help.

TIMES DO CHANGE

Take my case (if you'll have it). At Christmas folks were wishing me all kinds of happiness. Now, with the beginning of the new year, they're sending me messages which are conducive to either my happiness or my prosperity.

COME SLEET OR HAIL...

The mail must go through—if it takes half a century for it to get there. On December 20 a postal card, postmarked 1911, was delivered to The Bank Josephine here. Addressed to W. S. Harkins, founder of the bank, it was signed by one John Cronwell, and it is presumed that Mr. Cronwell also was in the banking business, since the front of the card bore the picture of a bank building.

Inasmuch as you will have to pay four cents for a stamp to mail a postal card, beginning next Monday, it might interest you to know that this one was faked around 51 years for only a penny. Where it had roamed or lain, all these years, nobody knows. What complications (See Story No. 2, Page 4)

AID GROUP CONSIDERS RELIEF DISTRIBUTION

FLOYD SHARE OF TV FUNDS TO BE ISSUED

Recipients To Be Picked On Basis of Need, Said; Committee Meets Here

The committee formed to administer relief funds and clothing apportioned to Floyd county by the Hazard committee handling contributions resulting from a recent television program was scheduled to meet here Wednesday afternoon.

Floyd county's share of money received by the Hazard group is $2,400. Little clothing was apportioned to the county and most of this has already been distributed. Vouchers for clothing and food will be issued to needy families against the $2,400 cash fund on hand, it was said. Recipients will be selected on the basis of need.

This designation of recipients is the big task of the county committee. The committee is composed of the Rev. Bob Martin, of Martin, chairman; Richmond Slone and Herbert Prater, county attendance officers; Mrs. Betty Stephens, Prestonsburg, who has been handling distribution of clothing to needy pupils for the school system; Eva Horn and Dorothy Burke, of the State Welfare Department here; Mrs. Irene Campbell, of the Child Welfare Department, and the Rev. Mack McCloud, of McDowell, representing unemployed miners.

Aid for unemployed miners and their families became a matter of national concern after the televising of the Perry county mine troubles and the plight of miners' families.

COURT WRIT FREES MAY

Man Accused In Alleged Kidnap, Robbery Attempt Wins Temporary Liberty

James Gordon May, Megoffin county held on charges of armed robbery and kidnapping, won his release from the Floyd county jail last Saturday on a habeas corpus proceeding filed by Atty. Burnis Martin.

May and Jack Salyers, also of Megoffin county, are accused of robbing and attempting to kidnap A. B. Meade, of Prestonsburg, former Floyd county clerk and at present a member of the Alcoholics Board of Control, Frankfort, as Mr. Meade was returning to Prestonsburg from Frankfort last September.

Appearance bonds of each of the two men were set at $10,000 on each of the two counts, and each was held under $5,000 peace bond at the conclusion of an examining trial before County Judge Henry Stumbo. The habeas petition claimed that Ralph May and others "well worth the sum of the bonds and legally qualified as bondsmen" were turned down and held unacceptable as bondsmen on the ground that they were not residents of Floyd county.

On December 24, the petition continued, May had served 90 days in the county jail and was legally due to be released from the original peace bond, but a new peace warrant was issued, a hearing was held on December 26 and a new bond was asked. With the court's order was a provision that only a resident of Floyd county would be legally acceptable as a bondsman. This provision was under attack in the habeas corpus action, and it also was claimed that further confinement on the peace warrant is illegal.

Circuit Judge Edward P. Hill held, at the conclusion of a hearing December 29 on the habeas corpus action, that residence of the bondsmen does not affect their qualification. Result was that Ralph May and others qualified as bondsmen and the prisoner was released.

May is to answer to action of the grand jury which will convene Monday. Salyers remains in jail. The two men, Meade said, "thumbed" a ride with him at Salyersville; and on Middle Creek robbed him at the point of a knife and threatened his life. At the Prestonsburg end of the bridge spanning the Big Sandy River Meade suddenly cut the wheels of his car into the curb and stopped it, preferring, he said, to take a chance here in the town where he lives to driving further under threat of his life.

GRANT DENIED PAINTSVILLE

A.R.A. Officials Note High Degree of Solvency At Application Hearing

The city of Paintsville is too solvent for aid under the Area Redevelopment Program it was determined at Washington recently when municipal leaders sought a grant to apply on a projected $1,200,000 sewer job.

The A.R.A. officials not only denied Paintsville the aid application but pointed out that only one other Kentucky town, Harlan, was in such a high degree of solvency. Harlan, like Paintsville, is in the center of what is one of the nation's worst depressed areas.

Appearing before the Washington group, representing the city were Mayor Ralph Preston, Councilman William Martin and a representative of the Howard K. Bell Engineers, of Lexington.

Also present were Rep. Carl D. Perkins, Mr. Brooks and Mr. Bonell, of the Community Facilities Administration of A.R.A., and Mr. DeWeese, administration assistant of Senator John Sherman Cooper. It was reported that the rejection of the application for aid on the sewage plant, estimated to cost approximately $1,200,000, was based on figures in the hands of the A. R. A. officials. These figures show that the Paintsville water system is operated efficiently and that the city has no bonded indebtedness, and that the water rates are exceedingly low. For these reasons it was determined that the people of the city of Paintsville could well afford to pay for their own improvements relative to sewage disposal.

The A.R.A. will make a grant of 66 per cent of the cost of the sewage plant to the city of Prestonsburg. The city of Pikeville is also expected to receive from the federal government funds representing a high per cent of the cost of a plant for that city.

The Paintsville officials said the estimate of $1,200,000 for the cost of the Paintsville plant may be exceeded by a large amount. Prestonsburg's bids were 50 per cent higher than the engineers' estimate.

ATTORNEY ENVISIONS TRUCK MINE CONTRACT

Dan Jack Combs, of Pikeville, one of two attorneys representing mine pickets in this section, said Saturday in a seven-county rally at McDowell that he believes the United Mine Workers of America can negotiate a contract between the pickets and coal operators.

He told the gathering that the pickets have everything to gain and nothing to lose from negotiations being held in Frankfort. "If a contract comes out," he said, "it will be a contract with dignity... one that we can live with and abide by."

The rally followed by a few hours the daylight explosion at David Cavins, one of the miners named recently in a federal court injunction action. The blast also did damage to the Odell home, which is the last at the foot of the mountain separating the mining town and Middle Creek from Howard Fork of Licking River.

In his speech, Combs warned the pickets against breaking the truce or resorting to violence. "If this truce is broken, let it be on their account, not ours," he said. He added, however, that if negotiations fail the miners should then

C. & O. Replaces Cliff Boy's Puppy

Last August tragedy came into the life of a small boy at Mile Post 72, near Cliff.

The boy and his puppy were on opposite sides of the railroad track when manifest train No. 97 went roaring by, and the puppy didn't quite make it to the safety of his master on the other side.

A few days later, Superintendent O. W. (Red) Draper was going through the morning mail at Ashland and gave a second look at a letter written in a school-boyish hand that evidently didn't pertain to the safe, economical and efficient operations of the railroad. The letter was addressed to: "The C. & O. Railroad, Ashland, Kentucky, OR Anywhere." It read: "One of your trains killed my puppy and I liked him very much. Could you please help me get another." Signed, "Tommy Stephens, Age 8, Cliff, Kentucky."

Red, a sucker for both dogs and children, immediately buzzed his secretary and, putting the less important mail aside, dictated a letter to Tommy, expressing genuine sympathy and offering to furnish a replacement. He inquired as to the kind of puppy Tommy wanted. A prompt reply stated that a Rat Terrier was desired and Tommy made a slight correction to his first letter. He advised he was now eight and a half years old and was looking forward to receiving the new pup.

Casual research around Ashland and Russell developed a scarcity of Rat Terrier puppies, or even Rat Terrier grown-ups. Red remembered that Doty Artist, first trick P.B.X. operator at Russell, had a Rat Terrier which hung out in the telephone office and was suspected of filling in on the switchboard during busy periods. Further investigation developed that this dog had some Rat Terrier friends, one of whom was expecting. Negotiations then began with Joe Evans, also of the C. & O. family and owner of the mother-to-be. Arrangements were made to present Tommy with his new puppy on December 15. He had already pre-christened it "Chessie" after the C. & O.'s famous member of the cat family. Tommy's father, Woodrow Stephens, is a former C. & O. painter and recently was discharged from a hospital after a long illness. In expressing his appreciation, he mentioned that Christmas might be a little scarce this year but Tommy and Chessie wouldn't notice. Their happy holiday season was assured together.

The looting of Oscar Richardson's store on the Middle Creek road Monday night of cash and cigarettes was being investigated Wednesday by State Detective Chester D. Potter.

A hearing was under way in quarterly court Wednesday morning for 11 persons, most of whom are juveniles, charged with breaking and entering the home of the Rev. E. V. Hamilton on Mud Creek, a few hours before Mr. Hamilton's death at a Martin hospital.

COURT TERM START SET

Grand Jury To Probe Violence In Coal Area; Slaying Case Set Jan. 17

The Floyd circuit court will convene for its January criminal session next Monday, and the work of the grand jury for the term is expected to be of unusual interest.

The grand jury investigations will include a probe into numerous cases of violence which have occurred during the mine strife in the closing months of the year. Several men accused of damaging property and threatening the safety or lives of others have been placed under bond by quarterly court to answer to the grand jury's action.

Interest in the court term will reach its peak, as at the recent criminal session, in the trial of Marion Martin and Troy Mullins in the slaying of En-Magistrate John May. The trial has been set for January 17, with a Lawrence county jury to be empaneled. The first trial ended in a "hung" jury. (See Story No. 1, Page 6)

RAIDS NET TEN STILLS

Copper Outfit Seized From Akers Truck; Beer Taken from Amvets Club

The capture of a moonshine still on the Cool Water Fork of Salt Lick Creek last Sunday brought to 10 the number of stills destroyed or confiscated during December by the Sheriff's office, it was said here Monday.

Sunday's raid, made by Deputy Sheriffs Marion Martin and Troy Mullins, located the still a few hundred yards from the home of Chester Neeley. Deputy Sheriff Martin said Neeley's 13-year-old son told him that his father had required him to carry middlings and sugar to the still site. Neeley was not found.

The only piece of equipment missing from an outfit confiscated on Toler Creek, December 20, by Deputy Sheriffs Sam Hale, Marion Martin, Lonnie Herald and Estill Meeks was the worm, and the still operator fled with that item. Four gallons of moonshine and three barrels of mash were taken with the still.

Next evening, a completely copper outfit, which is now on display at the Sheriff's office, was taken from the truck of Charles Akers, also of Toler Creek. He was taken before the U. S. Commissioner at Pikeville.

FLOYD GETS SURPLUS FUND

Administrative Costs Of S.S. Program Waived; County Receives $889.24

Gov. Bert Combs has announced that more than $200,000 in surplus funds will be returned to Kentucky local government units in 1963.

The money consists of advance contributions made by the units to the Personnel Security Division of the Kentucky Department of Economic Security, to pay for Social Security taxes of local government employees.

Floyd governmental units will receive the following sums: County of Floyd, $889.24; Floyd County Board of Education, $796.37; City of Prestonsburg, $614.11; City of Weeksburg, $29.29; Prestonsburg Municipal Housing Commission, $74.25.

In addition, Combs said, the 1963-'64 fiscal year will mark the second year in a row that administrative costs of the Social Security program, to which the local units (See Story No. 4, Page 4)

BANK HEAD OBSERVES 50 YEARS OF SERVICE

W. J. May, Sr., president of The Bank Josephine, concluded on Dec. 7 the 50th year of his service at Floyd county's oldest banking institution and at that time was honored with a party given by his co-workers, who presented him a gold watch.

Starting with the bank Nov. 10, 1912 as a bookkeeper and teller at $40 a month and offering dedicated service as he rose in position and responsibility from the first job to the office of president, his career has been coincidental with the expansion of his bank's service and the increase in its resources. When he took the job as bookkeeper the bank had resources of approximately $300,000. Today the total resources are $7,250,000.

The bank, chartered by the state in 1897 over the governor of Kentucky's veto because he thought the area could not support the institution, soon became an integral part of the valley's financial structure for the railroad was completed through Prestonsburg five years later. The county, flushed with the coming of industry, prospered. "Bill" May was advanced to the position of assistant cashier in 1936, upped to cashier in 1947 and promoted to vice-president in 1954. A year later he was named president by the board of directors.

May's career was founded in a sound educational preparation. Receiving his common school education in Prestonsburg, he attended the Kentucky Normal College here under the tutelage of Prof. W. M. Byington. Following that, he studied at the Prestonsburg Baptist Institute. Teach-

FOOD STAMP TOTAL NOTED

Alabama Officials Study Program Operation Here; Knott Figures Released

The Floyd county food stamp office issued $109,674 worth of coupons in December, it was announced this week by Carl Horn, supervisor of the program.

A total of 1,935 families or 10,366 persons are participating in the program in Floyd county, he added. Of these 201 families or 953 persons are aided by public assistance. Knott county was recently added to the Eastern Kentucky counties as participants in the food stamp program addition here.

In December, the office at Hindman issued $50,756 in coupons to 887 needy families of 4,575 persons. Of this group 224 families or 1,204 persons were from the public assistance rolls.

Four political and civic leaders of Walker county, Alabama were here recently, making a study of the food stamp program with a view to possible adoption of the relief plan for their county.

Studying the Floyd and Knott county food stamp projects were: State Representative Tom Beville, of Walker county; F. H. Dason, of the Walker County Board of Finance and Control; Mayor Roland Richardson, of Cordova, Alabama, and Larry Corcoran, managing editor of the Daily Mountain Eagle, Jasper, Alabama.

During their tour of the section they were accompanied by Arvid Dopsos and James Foster, of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Atlanta; Carl R. Horn, food stamp project supervisor for Floyd and Knott counties, and Leon Sanders, project supervisor of the food stamp program being initiated in three Virginia counties.

The remainder of the toll schedule is based on a rate of 20 cents per axle at Waltersville and 15 cents per axle for ramp traffic at Slade or 30 cents per axle at Slade if through traffic.

Automatic toll collection equipment, designed to speed passage of traffic, is a feature of the new route. Passenger cars with correct change will pass through unmanned lanes and the driver will toss the money into automatic counting devices. A green traffic light will signal the vehicle to proceed.

Drivers needing change and booths. Toll information is posted on large signs a mile from each plaza.

Opening of the Mountain Parkway more than doubles Kentucky turnpike mileage — from 38 to 81 miles. By this time next year, the 81 miles will be tripled. The 33 additional miles of the Mountain Parkway will be completed as will 127 miles of the Western Kentucky Turnpike, giving the state 241 miles of turnpike.

The Mountain Parkway was completed in two years at a cost of $39 million.

New Subscription Rates Necessary

Effective Jan. 15, 1963 subscription rates for The Floyd County Times will be increased. The Times has absorbed, to the limit of its ability, rising costs of production, and now an increase in postage rates makes it necessary for us to raise the subscription price.

This situation has been created by the Post Office Department and the action of Congress through a series of postage raises. We would have much preferred to let the old rates stand. One Post Office Department regulation, now in effect, obliges this and other newspapers to pay 10 cents for each notice of a subscriber's change of address to the newspaper by the receiving postoffice.

The new rates will not go into effect until January 15, thus giving subscribers time to re-evaluate the old subscription price. New rates per year, as of date, will be: In Floyd county, $3.50; outside Floyd county, $5.00.

ROAD IS FIRST 4-LANE ROUTE FOR THIS AREA

Formal Road Dedication To Be Held Later; Ward Notes Highway Use Cost

Special to The Times

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 29 — The Mountain Parkway, first four-lane divided highway to penetrate the Eastern Kentucky mountains, will be opened to traffic January 14.

Highway Commissioner Henry Ward and the Kentucky Turnpike Authority announced the opening and said a formal dedication will be held later when the weather more suitable.

The toll for passenger cars from Winchester to Campton will be 80 cents, or about 1.8 cents per mile. This is the same per mile cost charged on the Kentucky Turnpike between Louisville and Elizabethtown. That toll is 70 cents for 38 miles.

The section of Mountain Parkway being opened is 43 miles long. Another 3 miles from Campton to Salyersville is scheduled to be opened late in 1963.

Actual cost of driving the turnpike will be only about three-tenths cent per mile when the savings are considered, Ward said.

This is based, he explained, on a formula developed by the American Association of State Highway Officials. The formula uses standard costs of gasoline, oil and tires and allows for depreciation of a vehicle in comparing new routes with old, existing roads.

The stop-and-go costs on the old route, and the lessened driving time and increased safety of the new road were not considered in the formula.

There are two toll plazas — one at Winchester and Campton — one at Waltersville and the other at Slade. Passenger cars will pay 30 cents at Waltersville and 50 cents at Slade. Those entering or leaving the highway at Slade will pay only 25 cents there, or a total of 55 cents from Winchester to Slade.

The remainder of the toll schedule is based on a rate of 20 cents per axle at Waltersville and 15 cents per axle for ramp traffic at Slade or 30 cents per axle at Slade if through traffic.

Ordinance of the City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, Taking Notice of Concurrent Proceedings of the City Council, To Construct and Install Extensions and Improvements to the Municipal Sanitary Sewer System in and for Said City, Including A Sewage Treatment Plant, Lift Stations, Outfall Lines, and Gathering Lines, With Appurtenant Facilities; Requiring All Sources of Flowable Sewage to Be Connected Therewith As Presently Available and As Soon As the Same May Be Made Available, As Herein Defined; Declaring All Unconnected Sources of Flowable Sewage, Where Sewers Are Made Available, To Constitute A Public Nuisance Which Shall Be Abated; and Establishing Penalties.

WHEREAS, the City of Prestonsburg, Floyd County, Kentucky, has been owned and operated a municipal system of sanitary sewers, but the same is presently inadequate and includes no means of sewage disposal; and it is the opinion and judgment of the Mayor and Members of the City Council that continuance of the maintenance of streets, vaults, cesspools, septic tanks or similar contrivances for the reception of flowable sewage, constitutes a threat to the public health, safety and general welfare of all the citizens and inhabitants of said City and its environs; and it is necessary in the public interests that steps be taken immediately to alleviate such threat; and

WHEREAS, the City has heretofore employed Consulting Engineers, and has caused plans and specifications to be prepared for improvements and extensions to said system of sanitary sewers consisting of a new sewage treatment plant, lift stations, outfall lines and gathering lines, and appurtenant facilities, has advertised for and is about to receive contractors' bids for the construction thereof; and has entered into a certain Loan Agreement with the Housing and Home Finance Agency of the United States (HHFA), wherein and whereby HHFA has agreed that upon the City's combining and consolidating its municipally-owned water, sewer and natural gas systems, and authorization of the City's "Water, Sewer and Natural Gas Revenue Bonds," and the offering thereof at public sale, HHFA will submit a bid for the purchase thereof upon specified terms and conditions; and by concurrent proceedings the City is preparing to combine and consolidate said systems and authorize such Bonds; and

WHEREAS, the construction and installation of said sewer system improvements, extensions and installations is about to be commenced, and it is in order for the City, acting within its lawful power, to make provision for mandating a connection to said sewer system for all premises where people live or congregate, or where flowable sewage wastes are otherwise generated, providing a sewer connection is available thereto or is made available thereto, as herein defined, in order that said sewer system may properly serve the interests of the public health, safety and general welfare;

NOW, THEREFORE, THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PRESTONSBURG, KENTUCKY DOES ORDAIN, AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. Definitions. As used in this Ordinance, the following terms have the following respective meanings unless the context clearly indicates or requires otherwise: "City" means the City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky;

"Sanitary Sewer System," or "Sewer System," or "Sanitary Sewers," or "Sewers" mean the existing Sewer System which the City owns and is currently operating, together with all future extensions, additions, enlargements, and improvements thereto;

"Premises" means and includes all places and properties where people live or congregate, or where flowable sewage wastes are otherwise generated, which should be drained and disposed of in the interests of the public health, safety and general welfare, and specifically includes but not by way of limiting the generality of the foregoing, all homes, houses, apartments, hotels, motels, trailer camps, manufacturing, business, commercial, or industrial establishments, and other structures of any and every nature whatsoever.

The sewer system or sewers are available," as that term is used in this Ordinance, if any such premises about upon any street, road, alley, public way or easement in which there is installed a sewer pipe, a main, lateral, or other structure or installation of the Sanitary Sewer System capable of receiving flowable wastes, or if such premises shall be situated within 200 feet of such sanitary sewer installation provided the City is prepared to make the necessary connection and afford sewer service at the property line.

SECTION 2. The appropriate City officers shall confer with the Consulting Engineers, and upon recommendation of said Consulting Engineers shall ascertain and determine: (a) what presently existing sanitary sewer installations and facilities are capable of receiving flowable sewage at this time, in accordance with proper public health standards, and (b) whether there are any premises (as defined in this Ordinance) where such facilities are available but not connected thereto. If it is determined that the existing sanitary sewer installations and facilities are available to any premises, such premises are not connected thereto, the City shall give written notice to the owner or occupant of such unconnected premises that the same shall be connected to the sanitary sewer installations and facilities within ninety (90) days after such notice is given. All owners and occupants of premises where sewer service is presently available, as that term is herein defined, shall, within ninety (90) days from the date of such notice connect therewith all sanitary sewage drain pipes and sanitary sewage outlets of such premises, unless satisfactory reason for delay is shown in a writing delivered to the Mayor or to the City Clerk.

SECTION 3. When the construction and installation of the improvements and extensions to the Sanitary Sewer System progresses to such a point as to be capable of receiving and disposing of the flowable sanitary sewage of any premises, the City shall give written notice to the owner or occupant of such premises that a sanitary sewer connection is available, and that such premises shall be connected thereto within ninety (90) days after such notice is given. All owners and occupants of premises where sewer service is hereafter made available, as herein defined, shall, within ninety (90) days from the date of such notice, connect therewith all sanitary sewage drain pipes and sanitary sewage outlets of such premises, unless satisfactory reason for delay is shown in a writing delivered to the Mayor or to the City Clerk.

SECTION 4. All connections to the Sanitary Sewer System, as the same exists and as the same is hereafter extended and improved, shall be made under and in conformity with such regulations as the City may from time to time establish by Ordinance. Failure to effect such connection within the prescribed time is declared to be unlawful and to constitute a public nuisance; and the same shall be abated, subject to the penalties hereinafter prescribed.

SECTION 5. No sewer tap or connection shall be made by any person, firm or corporation, except the City. The City will, upon application and upon payment of the prescribed tapping or connection fee, tap the appropriate sewer facility and extend a lateral line to the property line of any applicant where sewers are available, and any and all installations or connections shall be made thereto by the applicant under the directions and supervision of the City and in conformity with proper health standards. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as requiring the City to furnish a sewer connection or sewer service to any premises where a City sewer facility is not available at the time the application is made.

SECTION 6. From and after ninety (90) days from issuance of notice by the City that a sewer connection is made available to any premises, it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to construct or maintain a privy, vault, cesspool, septic tank, or other similar contrivance for the reception of flowable sewage wastes, and all such privies, vaults, cesspools, septic tanks, and similar contrivances whereby flowable sewage wastes are cast, drained or deposited into a container above or below the surface of the ground, or upon or into the soil, or into any running or percolating stream of water, or into any cistern or well, are hereby declared to be unlawful and to constitute a public nuisance; and the same shall be removed by the owners or the occupants of all premises where the sewer connection is available, or is hereafter made available.

SECTION 7. All architects, engineers, contractors, builders, or other persons who shall hereafter erect new premises where sewers are available shall, before erecting the same, exhibit to the City, through such officer or employee as may be designated from time to time for such purpose, satisfactory evidence that a means has been or will be provided for connecting all sanitary sewage drains and outlets from such building or structure with the municipal Sanitary Sewer System.

SECTION 8. No substances shall be placed or discharged into the Sanitary Sewer System which will create a combustible, gaseous, explosive, or inflammable condition in such System, nor shall any substances or objects be placed or discharged into the Sanitary Sewer System which will not dissolve and which will thus cause an obstruction and clogging within said System. No petroleum products shall be placed or discharged into the municipal Sanitary Sewer System.

No storm water or surface water drain shall be connected with the Sanitary Sewer System, nor shall any storm or surface water be otherwise introduced into the Sanitary Sewer System; but it is acknowledged that certain portions of the existing sewers were designed to provide both sanitary and storm water drainage, and as to those present portions storm water may continue to be discharged into the sewers.

SECTION 9. Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this Ordinance, or failing or refusing to comply with the same, whether or not such person, firm or corporation shall be the owner or occupant of the premises involved, shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than Fifty Dollars ($50.00) nor more than Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) for each offense. Each day that person, firm or corporation violates any of the provisions of this Ordinance, or fails or refuses to comply with the same, or fails or refuses to connect the sanitary sewer drain and outlets from any property, building or structure owned or occupied by such person, firm or corporation with the Sanitary Sewer System, and each day any such privy, vault, cesspool, septic tank or other contrivance for the reception of flowable sewage into which such sewage is cast or permitted to be drained or disposed of, or is kept or maintained in violation of this Ordinance, and each day any storm water drain remains connected to any portion of the Sanitary Sewer System, except those portions of the existing sewers designed therefor, shall constitute a separate offense.

SECTION 10. If any clause, provision, or section of this Ordinance be ruled void or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity or unenforceability thereof shall not affect any other clause, provision or section of this Ordinance; and it is hereby declared that the remaining clauses, provisions, and sections hereof are intended to be enacted, and shall be in full force and effect notwithstanding.

SECTION 11. All ordinances, resolutions, or orders which may be in conflict herewith are hereby repealed and rescinded to the extent of such conflict; and this Ordinance shall take effect from and after its adoption, approval and publication as provided by law.

ADOPTED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PRESTONSBURG, KENTUCKY, at a meeting held on the 20th day of December, 1962.

APPROVED: GEORGE P. ARCHER (SEAL) Mayor City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky

ATTEST: JUDITH D. ARCHER City Clerk

An Ordinance of The City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, Taking Notice of Concurrent Proceedings of the City Council To Provide for the Construction and Installation of Extensions and Improvements of the Municipal Sanitary Sewer System in and for Said City, Including A Sewage Treatment Plant, Lift Stations, Outfall Lines, Gathering Lines and Appurtenant Facilities, and to Provide for the Financing Thereof Through Combining and Consolidating the Municipal Water, Sewer, and Natural Gas Systems, and the Issuance and Sale of Revenue Bonds; Establishing Rates and Charges for Use of the Services and Facilities of Said Systems, Which Are So To Be Combined and Consolidated, and Establishing Charges for Sewer Connections; and Providing That Water Service Shall Be Discontinued To Any Premises With Respect To Which Any Bills for Sewer Service Shall Become Delinquent.

WHEREAS, at this time the sanitary sewer system of the City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, is inadequate and is without provision for the treatment of sewage, and it is the opinion and judgment of the Mayor and Members of the City Council that, in the interests of the public health, safety and general welfare, the construction and installation of improvements and extensions to the sanitary sewer system is imperative, including a sewage treatment plant, lift stations, outfall lines, gathering lines and appurtenant facilities; and

WHEREAS, said City is authorized by Chapter 58 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes, as amended, to establish, erect, maintain and operate "public projects," with necessary appurtenances, within or without the corporate limits of the City, and to combine and consolidate the same for the purpose of supplying the City and its inhabitants with municipal services; and it further authorized to finance the same through the issuance of the City's "Water, Sewer and Natural Gas System Revenue Bonds," payable as to both principal and interest solely from fees and charges imposed and exacted for use of the services and facilities of the municipal water, sewer and natural gas systems as the same are by concurrent proceedings about to be so combined and consolidated; and it is necessary to establish and promulgate such fees and charges at rates which are deemed to be sufficient to provide to the City revenues for the payment of the principal of and interest on such Revenue Bonds, as the Bonds and interest coupons mature from time to time, and also to defray the costs of operating and maintaining such combined and consolidated system and to provide conservative reserves in connection therewith;

NOW, THEREFORE, THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PRESTONSBURG, KENTUCKY, DOES ORDAIN, AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. Notice is hereby taken of the fact that by concurrent proceedings the City has accepted a certain "Offer" tendered under date of November 19, 1962, by Housing and Home Finance Agency of the United States (HHFA), identified as Project No. PFL-Ky-432, Contract No. H-302-1017, and has thereby created a "Loan Agreement" with HHFA, wherein and whereby it is contemplated and agreed that the City will take proper action to combine its municipally owned natural gas system with the municipally owned installations and facilities which provide water service and sewer service in said City and its environs (previously combined and consolidated by Ordinance adopted and approved October 24, 1956, so as to constitute the municipally owned, combined and consolidated water-works and sewer system), and thereby establish for said City a combined and consolidated Water, Sewer and Natural Gas System; and that thereupon the City will take action to authorize and offer at public sale its "Water, Sewer, and Natural Gas System Revenue Bonds," to defray the cost (to the extent not otherwise provided) of improvements to said combined and consolidated Water, Sewer, and Natural Gas System, payable as to principal and interest solely from the revenues thereof, and acknowledged to be subject, subordinate, and inferior in all respects relating to the installations and facilities providing water service and sewer service to the liens, pledges, covenants and other security rights previously created and existing for the security and source of payment of the City's "Water and Sewer Revenue Bonds," dated November 1, 1956, originally issued in the amount of $560,000.00, until such time as the same shall have been fully paid and retired; and further acknowledged to be subject, subordinate, and inferior in all respects relating to the installations and facilities providing water service in said City and its environs to the City's previously issued "Waterworks Revenue Refunding Bonds," dated August 1, 1944.

In anticipation of official action establishing such combined and consolidated Water, Sewer and Natural Gas System, it is deemed desirable at this time to provide by this Ordinance for continuance, for the time being, of the City's currently effective rates and charges for natural gas service both inside and outside the corporate limits of said City and of the currently effective rates and charges for water service both inside and outside the corporate limits of said City; and to promulgate new rates and charges for the use of the services and facilities of those portions of such combined and consolidated system as afford and will hereafter afford sanitary sewer service.

SECTION 4. There is hereby established to become effective when the sewer improvement project is estimated to be fifty per cent (50%) complete, as determined and announced by the City Council, an initial schedule of rates and charges for use of the services and facilities of those portions of the combined and consolidated system which now or hereafter provide sanitary sewer service, which shall be paid by the owner or occupant of all premises where a sanitary sewer connection is made available by the City; and where a connection with such Sanitary Sewer System is made, or is required by Ordinance to be made in the interests of the public health, safety and general welfare, whether actually connected or not. Such rates and charges shall be billed at the same time when bills are rendered for water service to such premises, and shall be a sum equal to seventy per cent (70%) of the face amount of the water service bill rendered to the same premises.

SECTION 5. Pursuant to authority of Section 98.530, and following Sections of the Kentucky Revised Statutes, bills for water service and sanitary sewer service shall be rendered, collected and enforced together; and when any bill for sewer service remains unpaid for a period of ten (10) days after the bill is issued, the same shall become delinquent, and the City shall discontinue water service to the delinquent premises and shall not re-instate water service thereto until the bill for sewer service, together with penalties, interest and the prescribed water reconnection charge shall be paid in full, whether or not the bill for water service to the same premises shall have been paid or tendered.

Bills for water service and sewer service shall be due and payable when rendered, and if not paid within ten (10) days a penalty in the amount of ten per cent (10%) of the face of the bill shall accrue. Such penalty shall accrue whether or not water service is discontinued for delinquency in the payment of either the water service bill or the sewer service bill.

In the event water service is discontinued by reason of delinquency of the bill for sewer service, the reconnection of water service shall not be made until the delinquent party has paid to the City the sum of $3.00 to cover the City's estimated reasonable expense in sending someone to restore the water service connection.

Bills for natural gas service may be rendered monthly on the same bill forms with the bills for water service and sewer service; but, nevertheless, bills for natural gas service may be paid independently, and natural gas service shall not be terminated except for failure of payment, and otherwise in accordance with the City's rules and regulations from time to time applicable thereto.

SECTION 6. There is further established a fee or charge for each connection to those facilities of said System which now or hereafter provide sanitary sewer service, which shall be paid within ninety (90) days after notice is given by the City to the owner or occupant of any premises where sewer service is now available or is hereafter made available, that the adjacent sewer facility is capable of receiving sewage.

In all cases where application for a connection to the sanitary sewer facilities of said System is made and payment of the connection charge is tendered to the City within ninety (90) days after notice to connect has been given by the City, the tap-in or connection charge shall be the sum of $75.00

In all cases where application is made or payment of the connection charge is tendered more than ninety (90) days after notice to connect has been given by the City, the tap-in or connection charge shall be the sum of $100.00.

SECTION 7. The facilities of the combined and consolidated Water, Sewer and Natural Gas System which afford or will hereafter afford sanitary sewer service, are "available" as that term is used in this Ordinance, if any such premises about upon any street, road, alley, public way or easement in which there is installed a sewer pipe, a main, lateral, or other structure or installation of the Sanitary Sewer System capable of receiving flowable wastes, or if such premises shall be situated within 200 feet of such a sanitary sewer installation, providing the City is prepared to make the necessary connection and afford sewer service at the property line.

Each owner or occupant of any premises where a connection to the sanitary sewers is available, or shall hereafter be made available by the City, is otherwise required by concurrent proceedings to connect to the Sanitary Sewer System within ninety (90) days after notification by the City that such connection shall be made. From and after ninety (90) days after such notification, the owner or occupant of premises where such notice is given shall become liable to the City for the monthly sewer service charge, whether or not the connection is actually made, and this shall be in addition to any and all other penalties provided by this and any other Ordinance of the City; but this shall not apply if and so long as a satisfactory reason for delay is shown by the owner or occupant in a writing delivered to the Mayor or to the City Clerk.

SECTION 8. In the event that from time to time any owner or occupant of premises connected to the sanitary sewers, or where the sanitary sewers are available, as that term is defined in SECTION 7 hereof, shall desire to assert that by reason of unusual or peculiar circumstances a substantial portion of the water purchased for such premises, whether by consumption in a process of manufacture, or by proper drainage otherwise than through the sanitary sewers, should be excluded from the water bill in computing the charge for sewer service—such party may submit to the Mayor and City Council a written statement and description of the situation giving rise to such claim or assertion, and if the same be deemed meritorious, the City may publish, as provided in KRS Chapter 424, an appropriate notice of the substance thereof and of the fact that the same will be publicly considered at the next ensuing regular meeting of the City Council which is scheduled to be held not less than seven (7) days after the date of such publication; and upon the occasion specified in said published notice, the City Council may, by Resolution or Ordinance, grant such special relief as it may deem to be fair and equitable under the circumstances shown; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that no such special application or complaint shall be entertained unless it be shown to the satisfaction of the City Council that at least twenty-five per cent (25%) of the water purchased for such premises is deserving of special drainage treatment; and PROVIDED FURTHER, that in all such instances where it is practicable and feasible to do so, the City Council shall require that the applicant install at his or its own expense a separate meter, so that the quantity of water which is consumed or is disposed of properly by other means, may be measured accurately, and so that the prescribed charge for sanitary sewer service may be exacted where applicable, as in the cases of all other customers.

SECTION 9. No free use of the services and facilities of the sanitary sewers shall be granted or permitted to any person, firm or corporation, including the City itself.

SECTION 10. If any clause, provision, or section of this Ordinance be ruled void or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity or unenforceability thereof shall not affect any other clause, provision or section of this Ordinance; and it is hereby declared that the remaining clauses, provisions, and sections hereof are intended to be enacted, and shall be in full force and effect notwithstanding.

SECTION 11. All ordinances, resolutions, or orders which may be in conflict herewith are hereby repealed and rescinded to the extent of such conflict; and this Ordinance shall take effect from and after its adoption, approval and publication as provided by law.

Relocation Assistance Is Offered To Families Displaced by Road Jobs

In compliance with the Federal-Aid Highway Act of 1962 concerning relocation assistance to families displaced by acquisition or clearance of right-of-way for federal-aid highways, Clyde B. Allen, of the Right of Way Division, District 12, Pikeville, has been designated local assistance man by Lawrence W. Johnson, chief right-of-way agent.

Mr. Allen has already assumed full responsibility for all matters pertaining to such work in Highway District 12, which is composed of Knott, Lawrence, Johnson, Martin, Letcher, Floyd, and Pike counties.

He will maintain in his office a supply of information packets that will be distributed to all property owners, where applicable, at the earliest possible stage of the project. Mr. Allen will be available in the district office to offer assistance, advice and information to all affected property owners.

its failure to arrive on time caused one can only imagine.

Where was the card mailed—in Los Angeles or Boston? Neither. It was from Cynthiana, Kentucky.

One resident explained the long-past-due delivery by guessing some trucking company figured in the deal somewhere.

CAT CALLING
News has been on the dull side, these two weeks since we last published. Down on the Auxler Road, the other morning, though, things were jumpin'. As Jimmy Lafferty, delivery-man for Curtis May, drove toward town to work he heard a cat giving with an assortment of yowls which caused him to stop and investigate. And he found that the mouser was unhappy because all four feet and its tail had frozen to a gas pipe line which it had chosen to stroll along.

Liberated, the cat will likely stick to patrolling backyard fences hereafter.

DRAG STRIP
Then there is this one about the fellow, out in Oakland, California, name of Click, who was burned up when he decided the car behind was trying to crowd into his parking space. Click crawled out of his car and walked back to give the other fellow a piece of his mind—but there wasn't anybody there. And there hadn't been for two miles. Click had hooked the bumper of the other car with his trailer-hitch and had towed it all the way from Alameda.

"My car did seem to drag a little," he recalled.

THE MYSTERY SOLVED
Which brings up the story told of the rather elderly citizen who was found unconscious, on a cold, winter's day, beside a mountain trail, with a large bump on his forehead.

The Sheriff had two suspects under arrest and was ready to call out the hounds when the injured one finally wandered back to reality through a swirling maze of foggy brain waves. Then he made things a little clearer.

"As near as I can figger it out," he moaned, "it musta been like this. You see, I wear garters. This one on my right leg musta come loose at one end. Anyway, I thought my right leg was pullin' kinda heavy, and I was thinkin' maybe I oughta git me some liniment, soon as I got home.

"I remember now, I'm draggin' along, and all of a sudden whatever it is yanks me almost off my feet. I turned around to look, and wish I may die if the end of my garter ain't hung up in the forks of a saplin', and stretched ten feet, with a ball of mud and ice froze on it as big as a goose egg. And jest as I moved again—spain! she lets fly—right between the eyes! Sheriff, I'm just about convinced I've been shot with my own slingshot."

are required to contribute, will again be waived.

These costs, amounting to about $40,000 for the local units, were not charged for the first time in the 1962-'63 year because of a built-up surplus in the fund, also administered by the Personnel Security Division.

Combs said these costs will continue to be waived on a year-to-year basis until the surplus is no longer sufficient to administer the program.

The $290,000 which will be refunded was collected over the past 12 years in accordance with a provision of the Kentucky statutes, Combs said.

The money was placed in a fund from which the state could draw, should any unit fail to pay its taxes when due.

"Experience proved, however, that not once during that 12 years, was the state called on to use the fund to assure payment of the Social Security taxes," the Governor said. "Meanwhile, the money was permitted to rest with the state treasurer without use except for one short period when some of the funds were invested," he said.

The interest earned on that investment totaled $10,228.11. This will be transferred to a contribution account and used as a type of revolving fund.

"I am very happy to be able to authorize the return of these funds to the local units," Combs said. "I see no reason why the money should be allowed to remain in Frankfort any longer when it can be put to good use by these city and county governments, boards of education, libraries, soil conservation districts and others who must contribute."

BABE DIES
Sally Jo Martin, 18-month-old daughter of Junior and Mildred Dixon Martin, was dead on arrival Monday at the McDowell Memorial hospital. Death was attributed to pneumonia. Besides the parents, she is survived by four brothers and five sisters. Funeral rites were conducted Tuesday at the home of the paternal grandfather, Watt Martin, at Estill, and burial was made in the family cemetery at Estill under the direction of Hall Brothers Funeral Home.

Stepped-up Civil Defense programs are being adopted by more and more Kentucky communities.

Floyd County Stands To Lose—And It Can't Afford It

THE TIMES has maintained a silence about the proposed closing of the McDowell Memorial hospital that could easily be construed as a lack of interest on our part. But such is not the case; our silence has simply expressed our barrenness of constructive ideas relative to the situation.

It is obvious that Floyd county cannot operate the hospital. Its very size and elegance are forbidding. Its location, the expense of maintenance and staffing for full operation—all these virtually close its doors to all except the United Mine Workers themselves or to the state of Kentucky or some agency of federal government.

Shall this splendid facility, then, be closed, to stand, until it falls, as a reminder of what might have been and as a symbol of failure? Must this county, which needs more doctors and all the services only they can perform, have fewer doctors? Must Floyd county, already beset by economic difficulties and rightly marked as a chronically distressed area, be further plagued by the loss to its economy of the huge payroll now being paid staff members and other employees at the hospital, as well as by the loss of the business it has afforded suppliers?

These and other questions arise. Is the answer to each, inevitably, "Yes"?

Here stands a facility which the state might use. Kentucky's program for the rehabilitation of alcoholics is being expanded. Could not this hospital be used for that purpose? Or, as other existing state services require more space and added facilities, would not the hospital serve the state's purpose well without incurring the great cost of constructing new buildings or additions?

If there are those whose dislike of state or federal help in whatever situation is so sharp that they would oppose any such solution to this problem, we invite them to have a try at yanking themselves and the rest of us upward by the well-known bootstraps.

Prestonsburg - 1963

(A contributed editorial)

The New Year is here, and we wonder what is ahead. We see our city now, showing progress and gains after a long period of sleep. We wonder what is before us.

Will the road through town be built? Will the new college be on its way towards completion? Will the city have parking space so that we can use our streets for traffic? Will we have a sewer system so that our city will be safe from health hazards?

These questions are in our minds, along with many more, but there are many that are far more important. Are we satisfied to be merely "the county seat of Floyd county" and a shopping and banking center for a small area around our city?

Take a look at a road map of our section of the state. Where else in Eastern Kentucky can we find a community that will be as well blessed by good roads as ours will be by the end of 1963? (There will be need for improvement of roads, but the roads will be there.) But will we be ready to make use of those roads?

Every business man, every professional man, every teacher, every landowner, and every every housewife should have been "on the ball" for the last year or two, planning for the future.

We have one organization dedicated to this, but of what is it composed? Look at its regular Wednesday noon meetings and whom do we see?—three or four business men (but seldom is even one of these a merchant), the same number of housewives, a lawyer and a doctor or two, two or three from our banks, a representative or two of the city council, a couple of preachers and a representative of one of our radio stations.

It is true that these are among the leaders of our community, but where are the rest?

Why should our people find it necessary to go to Huntington, Lexington or Ashland to trade? We have, or will have shortly, better connections than any other place in Eastern Kentucky for a big trade center. Buyers from the east must pass through or near our city, to reach other cities. The same is true of those travelling to the north and south.

Let's wake up in 1963, before we are passed by. Let's wake up or invite "furriners" in to do the job for us. Frankly, it is too late for 1963, but 1964 and '65 are just around the corner, and so far none of the other communities has shown any more activity than we have.

Heiner's

Enriched Bread is baked with PG-7n*, a specially developed new shortening high in poly-unsaturates

Lately, we have been concerned about the kind of fats we all eat. So we looked into this matter thoroughly and learned that many scientists feel that a diet with increased percentages of the "poly-unsaturated" fats, and reduced percentages of the "saturated" ones is advisable. This is considered generally good advice for everybody.

We worked together with Procter & Gamble whose laboratories developed a special shortening ideally suited to the baking of bread yet high in "poly-unsaturates." Today, every loaf of Heiner's enriched bread is made with this special new liquid vegetable shortening, which Procter & Gamble calls PG-7n*. Today, the shortening used in Heiner's bread contains about three times as much of the preferred "un-saturates" as in most breads.

We are proud of this new bread and of taking this further step in carrying out our responsibility toward your family—a Heiner tradition for more than 57 years. We believe you will be pleased that with this new Heiner's, your bread—such a basic ingredient in the family diet—is in step with the latest scientific thinking.

This is all the information we needed!

A probe was being made into the death of Arthur Thomas "Red" Craft, 21, whose body was found Tuesday morning at The Tavern, a roadhouse at which he was employed. If you haven't registered for Ration Book No. 1 (your sugar-and-coffee book), you have only until January 15 to do so, the Floyd County War Price and Rationing Board announced this week. Last rites were conducted December 27 for Mrs. Julia Mayo May, wife of Congressman A. J. May, who died the preceding Sunday. Esther Baines, 28, was killed by electrocution December 30 at Weeksburg. Samuel, one of the five Hicks brothers in the armed forces, is reported wounded in sea action. He is a boatswain's mate, second class. A letter from Capt. John Calvin Hopkins, who was wounded in the New Guinea fighting, indicates that he is recovering. Eighty-one Floyd county selectees will leave for possible Army induction next Wednesday. Married: Miss Virginia Burchett, of Suffolk, Virginia, and Mr. Edmund Herschell Treckett, of Prestonsburg, here on Christmas eve; Miss Mildred Huff, of West Prestonsburg, and Mr. Wilburn May, of Prestonsburg, at Lexington, Kentucky, on December 7; Miss Ethel Gibson, of Wayland, and Radioman 1 C Archie Akers, of Dwaile, at Paintsville on Christmas eve; Mrs. Dorothy Elliott Osborne, of Betsy Layne, and Dr. Francis M. Coy, of Anderson, Indiana, on December 20 at Betsy Layne. There died: Mrs. Mary Callahan Rose, 32, at her home here, December 23; "Uncle" Jim Salyers, at his home near Glo, Saturday, at the age of 78; Mrs. Green M. Ten Years Ago

(January 1, 1953)

The Floyd County Times this week launched a drive for deepening of Dewey Lake. The Lakeview Restaurant at Brandy Knoc dock on Dewey Lake was destroyed by fire New Year's morning at an estimated loss of $15,000. Five were arrested in the Tuesday night dynamiting of the home of Dav Hall on Jack's Creek. Ed Saltsburg, 39, formerly of Hunter, was burned to death in the wreckage of his car near Madras, Ohio, December 20. A near-miracle is ascribed to the operation which, shortly before Christmas, restored sight to the cataract-blinded eyes of 82-year-old Melvin Harris, of Prestonsburg. Married: Miss Anna Marie Day of London and Mr. Kenneth Van Lear Miller, of Opana, West Liberty November 22 at Lexington, Kentucky; Miss Patsy Jean Madison of Prestonsburg and Sgt.
