SLAKE HUNT IS GIVEN AS CAUSE OF FLOYD KILLING

COUNTY OFFICER HELD AS SLAYER OF CASTLE

Four Shots Instantly Kill Hueysville Man and Wound Another

SELF-DEFENSE, CLAIM

What is said by one faction involved in the trouble to have been nothing more than a snake hunt Sunday afternoon led to the slaying of one man and the wounding of another at Hueysville, this county.

Green Castle was shot three times and instantly killed by a charge of buckshot fired from an automatic shotgun held by James Hughes, county patrolman. He was about 35 years old.

John M. Whittaker, a man of about 60 years, was shot in his left arm by Hughes, a moment after Castle fell.

Hughes was arrested by Ep Laferty, policeman at Garrett, a few minutes after the shooting took place, and was lodged in jail here as Castle's slayer. He had not executed bond when this was written Wednesday.

According to friends of the slain man, Castle and Whittaker, neighbors of Hughes, were hunting a snake at the roadside in the vicinity of their homes. Castle and Whittaker and Hughes came out to hunt a snake.

Castle, his wife, who didn't know it was a violation of the law to shoot on Sunday, this version of the shooting says. "It is not against the law to kill a snake," Castle is quoted as replying. Thereupon, it is claimed, Hughes fired three shots into Castle's body from an automatic shotgun and turned the weapon on Whittaker. This report claims that Castle was shot in the back.

Friends of Hughes are emphatic in their claim that he was compelled to fire in order to save his own life.

Castle and Hughes had a fist fight a few months ago and Whittaker and Hughes had opposed each other in a law suit, it is said.

Policeman Laferty said that when he reached Castle, the slain man's shotgun, a pump gun, lay beside him in the road, with one cartridge in the magazine. Whittaker was taken to the Essex Valley hospital, Martin, where his condition was serious for a time as the result of severe loss of blood, but he is now expected to recover. He filed suit this week against Hughes, seeking $5,000 damages.

Castle, a native of Middle Creek, is survived by his widow and one daughter. Burial was made Monday in the Martin cemetery at West Garrett.

HOMECOMING DAY FOR PRESBYTERIANS, SEPT. 2

A homecoming day for Presbyterians is to be held at the morning service, Sunday, Sept. 2, at the First Presbyterian Church of Prestonsburg. Return of members who have been away from the church to active work is hoped for.

There will be special music and other features, with a sermon, "The Old Paths," by the pastor, the Rev. Robert A. Potter, in preparation for the day are four committees representing various groups of the church: T. W. Smith, the officers; Mrs. E. H. Sowards, Sunday church school; Mrs. Edmund Burke, the Women's Auxiliary, and Miss Alice Marshall Howard, the Christian Endeavor.

FLOYD WOMAN'S BODY UNCLAIMED AT HOSPITAL

Information received here from the Western State Hospital, Hopkinsville, Ky., says that Sallie Burchett, who was admitted to the hospital from this county on July 25, 1934, died there. Hospital authorities have been unable to contact relatives of the deceased and have posted notice that unless the body was claimed within three days after posting of the notice, burial of the body would be made by the hospital.

Inquiry here failed to identify the victim, having been from this county.

HUNDREDS ATTEND COMPANY'S PICNIC

Kentucky West Virginia Gas Company Holds Annual Event at Maytown

Approximately 1,000 employees of the Kentucky West Virginia Gas Company and members of their families enjoyed a gala day recently when the company held its annual picnic at Maytown. The picnic was held on the grounds of the Maytown high school.

Following the picnic lunch, at which the company served ice cream and lemonade to the delight of the large group of youngsters, various contests were staged and prizes awarded by the company. A full list is not available.

Mrs. Wm. Stephens of Dock Springs, Ky., was the winning contestant, Palmer Salisbury came out with the prize in the fat men's race. Fay Carpenter, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Carpenter, won the dancing contest, with Peggy Horner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Horner, Langley, and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Humbert Hays of Langley, also winning prizes in this contest.

Baron Muncher, various playing with Leonard Parsons in the horseshoe pitching contest, won first prize. Dick Patton of Prestonsburg, did a feat in the tall story competition. A prize was awarded Mrs. John May as being the mother of the youngest child present.

In addition to those from this section attending the picnic, the following employees of the company were present from Ashland: S. M. George, B. Martin and Mr. St. Louis, legal counsel; Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Keenan, Mr. and Mrs. Peter C. Van Gilst, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Lay, C. D. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. John Strother, Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Ruemmler, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Duendach, Harry Byllesby, Miss Riggs, Miss Ruby Murphy, Miss Harris, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Rabold, Oscar Cornett, Ford Ogden, Congressman A. J. May, and Mrs. May, of Prestonsburg, were the company's guests during the day.

Lists Deputy Sheriffs For Public Information Sheriff M. T. Stumbo said this week that acts alleged to have been committed by county patrolmen, constables and deputy constables have drawn censure upon the sheriff's office. That the people of the county may know exactly who are deputy sheriffs, who are constables and who are deputy constables, he gave the following complete list of deputy sheriffs in the county:

O. H. Stumbo, Elson Kenrick, D. Fitzpatrick, Will Vernon, Castle, Rame Marcum, Frank Hatfield, Eli Stumbo, Abel Tackett, John Stumbo, McKinley Hopkins, Clyde Black, K. C. Barnett, Otto Fannin.

TEMPORARY NEED FOR COURTROOM

Seen As Result of Improvements Under Way; Gym Use Suggested

Renovation started this week on the circuit court room may make it necessary for circuit court, which convenes here on Monday, Sept. 3, to be held in some other building. Circuit Judge John W. Caudill indicated that the new gymnasium here will be used temporarily, if available.

A crew of FEPA workmen under the supervision of H. E. Stewart and Jim Meade, carpenter foreman, will re-plaster the walls of the courtroom, install a metal ceiling and probably lay a new floor. Materials and wages of the superintendent and foreman are paid by the fiscal court. Other labor is furnished by relief authorities.

Enlargement of the sheriff's office by extending it so as to include a part of the jury room at the rear of the building and construction of two jury rooms are planned. The fiscal court is expected to vote on an appropriation for further improvement of the courthouse at its meeting Friday.

$9,000 IS FLOYD TEXTBOOK QUOTA UNDER NEW LAW

Free Book Supply Adequate, Hunter Says; Distribution Begins Soon

Nine thousand dollars' worth of free textbooks for the first three grades have been allotted to Floyd county under the recent act of the State Legislature. County Superintendent Ballard Hunter said Tuesday the supply of books will be adequate, he said.

Only free textbooks received up till Tuesday were 1,200 Arithmetics, but additional books are expected to be available Monday. None of these can be distributed however, until arrangements are completed. The county superintendent is obliged to execute $1,000 bond before he can assume charge of textbook distribution.

Children of the first, second and third grades are to be given possession of these textbooks at the entire term, except for Spellers, which remain in the custody of the teacher. Upon conclusion of the school term, all free textbooks are to be returned to the county superintendent's office. (Continued on page 2)

APPALACHIAN COALS SUES PAYNE-BABER

Suit seeking to recover from the Payne-Baber Coal Company $2,888.26 was filed in the Floyd circuit court clerk's office this week by Appalachian Coals, Inc., through its attorney J. W. Howard.

Appalachian Coals, Inc., is the sales organization formed by the coal industry in this section and the plaintiff claims that the Payne-Baber Company is due the sum asked for in the suit for commissions on coal sales extending over the period between April, 1933 and May, 1934. Attachment on the property of the defendant was issued this week for the amount sought in the action.

Commissions alleged as due Appalachian Coals are on sales of coal the plaintiff states, from the Standard Ligon Mining Company and Block Mining Company mines in this county.

MURDER MYSTERY

SEEN IN DEATH OF WILSON KIDD

BODY OF MUD CREEK BOY FOUND IN RIVER

Two Arrested as Suspects in Case, Released Under $3,000 Bond Each

ALIBI CLAIMED

Another murder mystery floated its way into the annals of Floyd county criminology Sunday when the body of Wilson Kidd, 20 years old, was hauled from the Big Sandy river at Harold, his neck broken and his skull crushed.

After Mrs. Ben Norris, of Martin, county coroner, had conducted an inquest which revealed as cause of death, and also the fact that the youth was dead when thrown into the river, since neither the lungs nor stomach contained evidence, warrants were sworn out for the arrest of Leo Staten and Belmont Maynard, each about 20 years old. They were arrested and brought here Monday by Deputy Sheriff J. M. Sowards, and Constable Harold from the mud-creek, but promptly expelled from the sum of $3,000 bond.

To date, only circumstantial evidence is available. Young Kidd, Staten and Maynard were at Robinson's filling station, near Harold, late Friday night. All are said to have been drinking. A fight ensued in which Kidd is said to have had the better of the scrap, and he fled upon the approach of Constable Conn. He was later seen in Harold but disappeared during the night.

Not far from where the body was sighted on the surface of the water, footprints were found in the sand near the edge of the water. A tussle had evidently taken place there, and that is the spot fixed as the scene of the boy's death. Relatives of Kidd allege that Staten and Maynard followed him and committed the murder.

G. D. Ryan, undertaker who prepared the body for burial, is quoted as saying that the youth in all probability had been dead since Friday night, though the body was seen in the water only a few hours. The skull was crushed, but there were no abrasions. Bruises about the body were the only outward signs of injury to be found.

Staten and Maynard claim to have an ironclad alibi. They are quoted as saying that they can prove their whereabouts during Friday night, and thus show that they could not have committed the murder. New evidence is promised officials by the Kidd family, and new developments in the case are expected.

The victim was a son of Mrs. Rhoda Kidd, of Osborne, this county. He was employed in the mines at Harold. Besides his mother, he is survived by a number of relatives in this county. The body was returned to Osborne, where burial was made Monday.

Martin Man Is Official In Unique Business Firm

Haskell H. Vincent, principal of the Martin consolidated school, is an official in one of the county's most unusual business organizations.

The Ten Brothers' Corporation, home offices of which are located at Brownsville, Ky., held its annual stockholders' meeting Monday afternoon, August 13. R. L. Vincent, county attorney of Grant county, Williamstown, Ky., was elected president, succeeding Gillis Vincent in that capacity. Gillis Vincent will serve as vice-president, while H. H. Vincent of Martin, was elected secretary, replacing Roscoe Vincent of Oakland, Ky.

Stockholders of the organization also re-elected the 10 Vincent brothers in the directorship. Reports given of the progress of the business of the corporation were most encouraging and include the announcement of the quarterly dividend. The Ten Brothers, who are rapidly increasing their holdings along real estate lines, are planning on several new projects for the coming year, one of which being the development of two extensive stock farms, one in the vicinity of Brownsville, along Green River, and the other in the Blue Grass region.

The organization is unique in that it was organized last year by 10 brothers and their father, Gillis Vincent. All the directors have attended Western State College at Bowling Green, Ky., at one time or another. They are: Roscoe Vincent, former Leitchfield lawyer, now farming near Oak-

MCDOWELL GOES ON BATTING SLITZ IN 7TH TO WIN SUNDAY, 11-4

One wild inning dashed the hopes Sunday of the Sandy Valley Coal-Company team of the past week-end. McDowell captured possession of second place. In that inning, the seventh, McDowell unleashed a batting attack that ended the work on the hill of Patton, brought Lambert to the rescue and ended up with Wells, a lefthander, trying to subdue the attack. McDowell won, 11-4.

The six innings Patton, star lefthander for the local team, had not permitted an earned run. When he left in the seventh he had allowed only five hits, at that Lambert and Wells were helped freely, Kit Stumbo, McDowell ace, breezed to an easy win.

Wayland, meanwhile, was losing to a rejuvenated Dunleavy team, 8 to 6, so Wayland and Sandy Valley were tied for second place. They have to share that berth with another team now, however, Drift, 10 to 1 victory over Boldman bringing that team to the lead niche.

Vincent, principal of Martin consolidated school, and Howell W. Vincent, who graduates with an LL.B. degree at University of Kentucky, Lexington, August 18.

Business session of the Ten Brothers was preceded by the annual homecoming held Sunday at the picturesque old family homestead located along Green River in the vicinity of Brownsville. Wives and children of the directors, as well as the parents of the Ten Brothers participated in the festival. Dinner, cost $50, was served on a long table built under the shady beech and oak trees growing above the creek spring on the 500-acre farm. This is the fourth annual homecoming to be enjoyed at the boyhood home of the Ten Brothers. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Vincent were in charge of the dinner arrangements.

Late in the afternoon, a boat ride was taken down Green River and was much enjoyed by the family.

ATTENDANCE OFFICER ISSUES STATEMENT

As your county attendance officer, it my pleasure and duty to assist my colleagues in seeing that every child in Floyd county receives the bright gift of an education which is guaranteed him by the constitution of the United States and by the constitution of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

If you have children of school age six to 16—who have, unfortunately not received all that is due them from this state and county in which they live; if, owing to unhappy circumstances your children have not been able to attend the regular sessions of school as much as they deserve; then let me solicit your generous and whole-hearted cooperation with me in my attempt to enable every such child to reap the great benefits of education. It has been the mighty task of public-spirited, social-minded men of wide knowledge and long experience from the very beginning of our nation's and our state's political life to develop a democratic system of education in our nation and our state which will give to every child, however rich or poor, an education such as will help that child your child, to live its life more abundantly. It is your and my greater task to see that the efforts of those sincere, noble men shall not come to naught; that our children shall lead better lives because those men have lived and worked toward such unselfish goals.

The party played today in our nation and state by education cannot be exaggerated. On the universal education of all children depends the very life of the democratic form of government under which we live, that government in which only the people rule. Education of its citizens is the first thought of any democracy for in order to rule well and wisely, the rulers must be educated to a knowledge of the world they live in. So that it is now your duty and your privilege to see that your children lose no opportunity of fitting themselves adequately for the business of living, working thinking and voting in a democracy.

Especially in our country these words to be taken to heart, since for too long has it been the justified assumption of peoples outside the rim of our native hills that we have lagged behind the general development of the United States in culture, education and industrial achievement. In this section and in this county is an enormous amount of undeveloped intelligence and ability which needs only the brilliant light of education to bring it into its proper high place in the regard of the nation. This is a time when boasting and with proper pride, for great numbers of our sons have proved themselves worthy when once they took the bull by the horns and demanded an education.

Our county has more than 13,000 children of school age, and it is our great responsibility to uphold the right of each of those children to receive an education and to educate himself to a point second to none in our nation. In our state great battles have been waged during the last few months so that your children might not be found lacking an education when they must lead a man's life in our democracy. Our public school system must be maintained, must ever extend its influence for good, must always be prepared to train your children so that they can meet satisfactorily the changing demands and conditions of our national life. Let us address a personal appeal to you that it shall not be your child which in manhood will be weighed in the balance and found wanting. Yours for a richer life for our children.

JOHN WARICK
Attendance Officer.

FARM MORTGAGE LAW EXTENDS TIME FOR ADJUSTMENT OF DEBT

Farmers who are finding it difficult to meet the terms of mortgages may obtain a measure of relief by applying to the federal court, in accordance with provisions of the Frazier-Loomis bill enacted by the last Congress, according to C. J. Bradley, of the College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky.

Unless creditors object when a farmer makes such a request, the farmer's holdings are appraised and a plan is initiated whereby over a period of five years the farmer remains in possession of the farm by the payment of 15 per cent of the appraised value of the farm plus 1 per cent interest annually. The farmer also pays the taxes. At the end of the sixth year he may repurchase the farm by paying the remaining 85 per cent of the appraised value.

If a creditor objects to this procedure, then the court must stay proceedings for five years and the farmer, under the control of the court, retain possession of all or any part of the farm, for which he pays an annual rental. At the end of five years the farmer has the privilege of repurchasing the land.

In either procedure, Mr. Bradley points out that the rights of creditors are further protected by the fact that the court as trustee may order sale of the property at any time upon failure of the debtor to comply with the requirements of the law.

The major purpose of the new law is to give farmers further time to adjust their debts. Banks, insurance companies and other mortgage holders are relieved of the necessity of foreclosing in order to protect former is granted more time their rights, for, although the mortgage holder is assured that during this time his rights will be adequately looked after.

WE WHO ASSAIL YOUTH CONDEMN OURSELVES

If you read the magazines, go to the movies or listen to lectures you probably know all about modern youth.

Modern youth, as all these agencies have assured us over and over is irrelevant, flitty, disobedient and generally bound for perdition. Home is just a place to sleep and parents are just people who provide food and clothing and pocket money for restless youngsters.

That's the picture anyway. But some persons in the Research Bureau of the New York Welfare Council got to wondering about it recently, and set to work to find out if the picture is a true one.

So they sent questionnaires to some 1600 Brooklyn school girls. They asked them, among other things, of they always asked their parents' consent when they planned to go out anywhere in the evening and all but 29 of the 1600 replied, very emphatically, that they always did.

There were other questions, answers shows that the average Brooklyn girl goes to bed at 10, or earlier each night; puts in a good deal of her time studying her lessons at home; goes to church or Sunday school regularly, and prefers to spend her leisure time at home rather than out with friends.

It Always Happens

And all this sounds like a pretty good refutation of the common talk about "flaming youth." This cross-section of Brooklyn girlhood shows us a youth that is what we like to think of as normal—youth that behaves itself properly and stays at home, and works hard on the tasks given it, and lives very much as its parents lived when they were young.

It is very probable that a lot of our talk about the wildness of youth comes from a subconscious sense of guilt. During the last 15 years we have given youth a pretty cock-eyed world to look forward to, what with wars, depressions, and so on. We have expected youth to kick over the traces because deep in our hearts we know that the state state of the adult world has been an indictment of our own shortcomings, and our talk about youth's failings has reflected on us more than on our children.

It is interesting to see how this actual survey of modern youth fails to justify our calamity-howling—Ashland Daily Independent.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sore and sick and the world looks dark, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, laxatives, emetics or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and bright and full of sunshine.
For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a more movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.
If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas, bloating, flatulence, indigestion, constipation, headache, dizziness, nervousness, irritability, and all the other troubles that come from a clogged liver, are the result of this. You feel sore and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.
It takes these good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel like a new man.
CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS contain wonderful herbs, gentle vegetable extract, "LAXATIVE" when it comes to making the bile flow freely.
If you don't ask for liver pills, ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Beware of imitations. Sold at drug stores. ©1933 C. M. C.

LAFFOON PARDONS WILSON JENNINGS

Governor Ruby Laffoon granted a full and free pardon last week to Wilson R. Jennings, who was sentenced at the June, 1932 term of the Johnson circuit court to serve 20 years in prison on a charge of robbing the Paintsville National Bank.

The chief executive said he had a letter from Commonwealth's Attorney J. B. Clark, of Inez, who prosecuted the case, stating that the evidence against Jennings was all circumstantial and of a very doubtful nature, and that he now believes Jennings innocent.

Superintendent Elmer Deaderidge, of the state reformatory, the Governor said, informed him that Jennings was for a number of years a member of the same lodge at Richmond, of which he was a member. Deaderidge said that Jennings was well-known in Richmond and that citizens there did not believe Jennings could be guilty of the charge of bank robbery.

Governor Laffoon said he had an affidavit from Wm. M. Cassler, 200 Walnut street, Huntington, W. Va., stating that Jennings was in Huntington at the time of the robbery at Paintsville, 90 miles away. Twelve other Huntington citizens in affidavits the governor said stated that they saw Jennings in Huntington at the time the robbery was committed.

Chief of Police M. B. Robinson, of Huntington, the governor said, wrote that he examined the affidavits and believed they had been made in "good faith."

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Lesson for August 26 HOSEA PREACHES GOD'S LOVE GOLDEN TEXT—Hosea 11:1-4, 8, 9. LESSON TEXT—For God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. JOHN 3:16. PRIMARY TOPIC—God's Wonderful Love. JUNIOR TOPIC—Hosea Preaches God's Love. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—God Shows His Love. YOUTH TOPIC—GOD'S ABILITY TO DO ALL FOR CHRIST.

Hosea's message was primarily to Israel. The nation was outwardly prosperous for the height of temporal glory was reached in the time of Jeroboam II (814-786). With this prosperity came luxury, idleness, and apostasy. Calfr worship and Baal worship were substituted for worship of the true God. With the increase of wealth in our age has come luxury, corruption, and gross wickedness. Hosea's message is therefore a vital one for now.

1. The marriage (1:1-2). Hosea was commanded by God to take a faithless woman to be his wife. It was designed to show God's wonderful compassion and love in entering into covenant relationship with a nation of such immorality. The nation had no more to commend it at the time of God's choice than the faithless woman when Hosea contracted marriage with her.

2. The unfaithful wife (ch. 2). Notwithstanding the wonderful consolation on the part of the prophet in contracting marriage with this woman, God departs from him in punishment for her former base ingratitude. This shows Israel's base ingratitude in their departure from God and going after idols. Some translations call upon her for her unfaithfulness.

3. The command to love God, the unfaithful wife (ch. 3). This illustrates God's love for Israel. 11. God's Love for Israel (3:1-4, 8, 9).

1. Its beginning (v. 1). It began when Israel as a nation was in its childhood.

2. How it expressed itself (v. 1b): a. calling out of Egypt (v. 1). God called Israel out of the bondage of Egypt and brought them into Canaan, the land of freedom, flowing with milk and honey. Such love and favor placed Israel under peculiar obligation to God.

b. He taught Ephraim to walk (v. 3). In spite of Israel's backsliding (v. 2), God is represented as teaching Israel how to walk, even as a father takes his child by the hand to assist him while endeavoring to walk. God even watched over Israel as parents watch over their children by night.

c. "I drew them with cords of a man" (v. 4). Observe that his drawing was not with a stout rope as used with an unruly horse (v. 11), but a cord such as a man could bear.

d. He took off the yoke from the jaws and plowed (v. 6). This figure is of a husbandman lifting the yoke from the oxen so that they could rest.

e. His unmercifulness gave them up (v. 8, 9). In spite of all Israel's sins God was unwilling to destroy them.

11. God's Urgent Call for Repentance (ch. 14). Notwithstanding their awful sins, God urges Israel to turn back to him.

1. Appropriate words of confession were put into their mouth (v. 1, 3).

2. "Take away all iniquity" (v. 2). This is the nation's request to God.

3. "Receive us graciously" (v. 2). This request is accompanied by the promise to worship God on their return.

4. "Asshur shall not save us" (v. 3). They were made conscious that even the strong nation of Assyria could not save them.

5. They will not say any more that their idols can save them (v. 3).

6. God's promises given in response to their confession.

a. "I will heal their backsliding" (v. 4). This healing was on the condition of frank and full confession.

b. "I will love them freely" (v. 4, 6). "I will be as the dew unto Israel" (v. 5). This means that God would refresh them.

c. Growth promised (v. 5, 6).

d. Beauty assured (v. 6).

3. Idolatry to be abandoned (v. 8).

4. The Lord's ways are acknowledged as right ways (v. 9).

To Preserve the Church We are not the ones who can preserve the church; our ancestors were not the ones; our descendants will also not be able to do it, he it has been said, and will be who says: "I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."—M. Luther.

LOCAL FORD DEALERS POINT OUT ECONOMY IN AUTO OPERATION The upkeep on motor cars has come down. Operating costs also have been reduced. Both factors have been achieved through improved construction and the use of better materials in some instances materials developed especially for motor cars.

These facts were brought out recently by Howard Motor Company, of this place, local Ford dealers.

"When the cost of operating a motor car is considered, they said, 'one of the most important factors is weight. The use of steel bodies and the wide use of aluminum in engines have achieved a good deal in the way of weight reduction. Obviously, the less dead-weight there is to move, the less power required."

"The use of aluminum cylinder heads and pistons has become more prevalent with the development of high compression engines. Last year there were only four makes of cars with aluminum cylinder heads. This year there are 16, and on three others, they are optional at extra cost. Aluminum pistons are used on 22 makes of cars."

"The Ford V-8 has been heralded as the most economical

O. K. CONDUCTOR LET 'ER GO

Below is a Letter Received By H. H. Wheeler From Allan G. Hurst, Mgr. of Hotel Knickerbocker, Chicago

July 30, 1934.

Mr. H. H. Wheeler, President Sandy Valley Grocery Company, Paintsville, Ky.

My dear Mr. Wheeler:—

I am delighted more than words can express, to learn that your wonderful organization has arranged for another World's Fair Tour to Chicago and that you have again selected Hotel Knickerbocker as your headquarters for this party.

I can assure you that the 1004 Century of Progress is so far superior to last year's exhibition that there is really no comparison. It is the most thrilling, most superb, most magnificent spectacle in the history of the world. In fact, it is a brand new World's Fair. Never again during our lifetime will we be able to see such a marvelous, stupendous, breath-taking sight.

As I told you before your departure last year, in my many years of hotel management, I have received hundreds of groups from every part of the United States as well as from a score of foreign countries and never have I found a finer, better behaved and more likeable group than you brought last year.

For that reason I am so enthused about having your party with us again that nothing will be overlooked in making sure that everyone who comes has the finest time they have ever had in their lives. Luxurious accommodation, will be provided for everyone, and at the gala dinner dance which you are holding in our million dollar Oriental Ballroom, there will be a world-famous orchestra to play the kind of music that your party loves best.

You will remember that Lake Michigan and the largest bathing beach in the world, fifty miles long, is only one mile from Hotel Knickerbocker and those that wish to bring their bathing suits along, will have plenty of time for a little dip in the sparkling blue waters.

I hope everyone who came last year will come this year again and hundreds more.

I know of no other grocery company in the world that provides a more enjoyable and big enough to undertake a tremendous tour of this kind for the members of their organization and their chests. You certainly are to be congratulated. As far as we are concerned, please tell everybody that we are looking forward to their arrival at the Knickerbocker with great pleasure and that no one could be more welcome anywhere on earth than these folks will be here.

Many thanks, Mr. Wheeler, for again choosing the Knickerbocker and I consider it a privilege to cooperate with you in making this the greatest tour ever held anywhere by anyone. With cordial regards to you as well as to your associates and all my good friends in Sandy Valley, I am

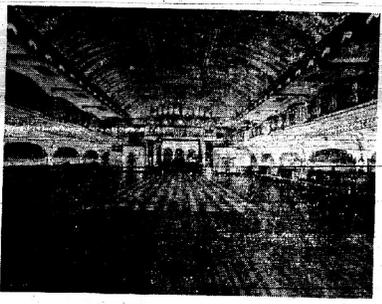

Most sincerely yours,
Allan G. Hurst, Manager

IN FAVOR OF ATHLETIC FIELD

The spending of public money in the construction of highways, streets, bridges, public buildings and the like is very wise and can hardly be commended too strongly. Our government, while assisting the unemployed, has greatly aided our various communities by a bestowal of funds for improvements.

While the aforesaid improvements are beneficial, yet far more so are those working for the physical, mental and moral development of the youth of our country. In the writer's opinion the construction of the new gymnasium by the relief administrators, and our two local boards of education will most likely have greater and farther reaching benefits than any of the other splendid improvements which our community has received at the hands of our wise officials.

Since a gymnasium can be used only for winter and in-door exercises, the victory for the youth of our community is only partially complete. Hence, we dare to suggest that our educational and relief authorities, both of whom have many accomplishments to their credit, take under consideration the proposition of the building of a football stadium and playground in Prestonsburg. While we do not assert that funds are easily available for such a project, yet it is more than worth striving toward. Many other communities are securing such improvements. Athletics in our schools not only stimulate physical development, but promote the moral welfare by directing youthful energy into proper channels. Games indirectly aid the mental side by making school life tolerable, pleasant and endurable to many.

SANDY VALLEY SPECIAL TO BE LARGEST RUN TO CENTURY OF PROGRESS

If a history of the Century of Progress Exposition is written there will be recorded for posterity the fact that the Sandy Valley Grocery Company ran the largest, special train to bear visitors to the world's greatest attraction.

This train will be run September 5 out of the Big Sandy valley, and will offer to residents of this section the finest and cheapest opportunity to see the World's Fair. Bands, orchestras and clowns will be on the train to keep the big crowd in gala mood en route. Not for 99 years will another Century of Progress Exposition be held; so it happens that the Sandy Valley's train will be a record-maker for more than a lifetime.

In addition to the thousand merchants who go to the Sandy Valley Grocery Company's guests, hundreds of persons from all parts of this section are expected to make the trip. Reservations are pouring in for the four-day trip, and by September 1 closing date for reservations, a capacity crowd is expected to be ready to pack the big special.

Running of the special is in keeping with the progressive ideals of the company which serves 8,000 merchants and which has grown to be one of the largest firms of its kind in the country.

Those planning to make the trip are referred to the company's page advertisement in this issue of The Times, and are directed to make reservations through the Sandy Valley Grocery Company, Paintsville, or one of the following branches: Union Grocery Company, Prestonsburg; Beaver Grocery Company, Martin; Merchants' Grocery Company, Pikeville; Louisa Grocery Company, Louisa; West Liberty Grocery Company, West Liberty; Salyersville and the Sandy Valley Grocery Company, Ashland.

CLARK WINS 2ND GOLF TOURNAMENT

Brilliant Short Game Copa Club Championship for Local Golfer

A red-hot putter and a night-blind short game won for E. E. Clark the championship of the Abbott Heights golf club in three 18-hole matches on three successive days, beginning with last Friday.

Aside from the title won in the low-score tournament Sunday, Mr. Clark already had copped the handicap tournament and had won, low medal honors with a 74. Now he is all set to compete for the Big Sandy title held by Dr. Paul E. Hall, of Paintsville.

First day of the low-score tournament found N. L. May defeating W. M. Hagens, 3 up and 2 to play. E. R. Burke defeated W. G. Stiles, 5 and 4, and A. B. Combs made a great comeback to down Adrian Collins, 1 up on the twentieth green after he had found himself three down with only five holes to play in the regulation distance.

Saturday, Clark and May staged a real golf match. Clark was three up at the end of the first round, but May came back to even up matters on the second, and the match was not ended until the last hole was played. Burke defeated Combs, 4 and 3, after they had gone around the first nine on even terms.

In the second round of the finals Burke's game went to pieces while Clark, a short driver, went methodically about the business of making fine recovery shots with his iron and downing putts with monotonous regularity. He won on the fifth green, five up.

MARTIN

Hatter Jones and Willie Ray, of Virgie, were here Sunday. They and Misses Mousie Osborne and Lucy Hatter motored to Virgie to witness the ball game, and also to the game at Drift.

Geddia Halbert and Delphia Robinson, Raymond, Sheriff Morton McGlothen motored to Prestonsburg Sunday evening. Annagene Summers, of this place, left for Columbus Ohio Monday.

Ever to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Salsbury of this place, a fine daughter. Mother and baby are doing fine.

Cliff, Jr., small son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Latta, underwent an operation at the Paintsville hospital Wednesday for removal of his tonsils. He is doing nicely.

Personals

Congressman A. J. May is spending a week or ten days in Washington, attending official duties. He is expected home within the next few days.

Misses Louise Goble and Gladys Phares returned last week following a visit of several days with friends in Kermit, W. Va.

Dr. M. V. Wicker, of Wayland, spent Wednesday in Prestonsburg on business.

Circuit Judge John W. Caudill and family have returned from Chicago, where they attended the World's Fair for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Watson, of Calhoun, arrived here this week. Mr. Watson is coach for Prestonsburg high school.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Combs and son Paul and Martin Lee, Jr., returned Wednesday after a three-weeks trip to Niagara Falls and Canada.

Mrs. S. B. Howard is in the Methodist hospital, Pikeville, where she went a few days ago for treatment. Her many friends will be glad to hear that she will be able to return home within a few days.

AUG. 12 NOTABLE DAY FOR CHURCH

Sunday, August 12, was a notable day in the history of the M. E. Church, South, here, the day being the sesquicentennial of the founding of Methodism in America and also the day marking the 89th anniversary of the Methodist church in Prestonsburg.

The program for the day began with the registration at Sunday School of members and guests present, continuing thru the morning and afternoon services, with approximately 265 present. Regular morning service was in charge of the pastor, Rev. J. M. Helm, who delivered a very interesting sermon.

Mrs. Ily B. Browning of Ashland, sang beautifully a solo, "The Voice in the Old Church Choir," which was very appropriate for the occasion. Immediately after the morning service, those present assembled in the dining room of the church where they were served a sumptuous buffet dinner which had been prepared by the ladies of the church. Following the dinner, a social hour was enjoyed, during which old friends mingled with each other, renewing old acquaintances and meeting friends and new members of the church.

At 2 o'clock they returned to the church auditorium where an especially interesting program was given. Music was furnished by Mrs. Ily B. Browning and Mrs. K. J. Whaley, who sang "Whispering Hope." A brief history of the church was given by Mrs. W. B. Burke, of Covington, Ky., who was for a number of years a member of the local church.

Speaker of the afternoon was Rev. W. I. Canter, pastor of Paintsville M. E. Church, who delivered a splendid address on "Methodism in America." Following this was a testimonial service, with the older members and guests participating.

Evolution of Race Horse
With reference to the origin of the Arab horse, there is an interesting Assyrian tablet in the British museum which shows that the horses of the period bore an astonishing resemblance to the present day Arab, says a letter in the London Times. One of the most famous breeders of Arab horses, one Tahl ben Tahl, had his stables at Mosul, and he contrived to keep it more or less secure from the depredations of the Turks during the war. His animals were well known on the Bombay and Poona race courses. It would seem that the breed has existed in and about Mosul since the days of Ninveh, very much in the same form.

Don't Find Fault
Never find fault with a sermon you may hear if you have not been praying earnestly for the week that your minister may be filled with the Holy Ghost.—R. W. Dale
