Guitar-Strumming Cards Practice Up on Victory Theme

MORNING among the Medcats: "I wonder," said the reporter, "If any of the Cards are up..."

The reporter glared at the horde of other similarly attired and irate gentlemen galloping through the lobby...

Impelled by a blind loyalty to his masters he stumbled in the swartzy gentlemen in cerise pajamas...

Would you mind playing something soothing," asked the reporter. "I—"

"Nice song," the reporter interrupted by craning his neck to see the floor after the forty-ninth repetition of the verse...

"Shucks," Pepper Martin, who had been trying to introduce a variation by playing his guitar from outside the window ledge with the other...

"Well," remarked the reporter after a while, "It looks like you've lost a good guitar."

"Tut, don't mention it," said Miss Bordagaray. "We can get plenty more of them. There's a music store that keeps a stock in this Bob Weiland he's up there now getting a left-handed guitar..."

NOT IN THE BOX SCORE: YOUNG Bob Weiland's hitting and fielding undoubtedly helped Pittsburgh's Pirates this season...

Just to prove that there is a common denominator for all of us, Glenn Cunningham, who holds the indoor and outdoor records for the mile, looks like a knock-kneed stenographer when running for a subway train in New York...

When Van Mungo staged his one-man two-day rebellion last summer a judge director explained to me why he was so angry...

Frank Keogh, international riding star, now has a swell and well-controlled career to fool you with. "I saw Milt right about that. I sure do. I spent a lot of time down there when the fighting was going on over in the Native City..."

Walter E. O'Hara, who frankly styles himself as a promoter and as a sportsman, pays all hospital bills for doctors injured at the Naragansett park. There's no insurance gag either, the money coming right out of his own pocket...

"Murder on Soochow Creek"

HERE'S a tale from China, where life is cheap. They'll kill you for your shoes in that desperate, over-crowded, half-starved country...

That was in February, 1932. Milt Weaver was in the United States Marine corps then, and the Marines were in Shanghai protecting our nationals and the International Settlement during the fighting that went on between the Chinese and the Japanese...

Along the Shores of Soochow Creek. Says Milt: "You probably remember the little dug-out we Marines built and all the warlike atmosphere that surrounded us along Soochow creek?"

It was about five in the morning when Milt saw a sampan, loaded with Chinese, making its way across the creek. Immediately Milt shouted to them to get back, but on their came until the nose of the boat touched the shore...

Desperate Fight on the Sampan. "They came at me with bamboo sticks," says Milt, "trying to push me overboard into the filthy waters of the creek. I knew I was doomed if I let them get me into the water..."

Indians Married on Trial. The tomb of Marshal Ferdinand Foch in the chapel of St. Ambrose in the Invalides is in the form of a memorial above a marble sarcophagus...

Confederacy Anxious to Supply Home for Davis. When President and Mrs. Davis reached Richmond, May 1861, arrangements were made for them to occupy as the White House the large residence built by Dr. Brotherton, then owned by A. Seddon...

Eliminating Food Odors - A small quantity of charcoal in a tin container on the top shelf will help eliminate food odors from the refrigerator.

Eggs in Potatoes - Bake potatoes. Cut off tops, scoop out centers and season with butter, salt and a little pepper, mashing thoroughly. Half fill shells with potato mixture and drop a raw egg, salt, pepper, a little grated cheese and one teaspoon butter in each.

Glazing Liquid for Cookies - A mixture of two tablespoons of sugar and one-fourth cup of milk makes a good glazing liquid for cookies. Apply on the surface of the dough with a pastry brush before baking the cookies.

Hole in Tablecloth - If a small hole is burnt or worn in an otherwise good white tablecloth, it can be "mended" most effectively by stitching a motif in fine crochet over it and cutting away the spoiled fabric underneath.

Bhubarb and Figs - To one pound bhubarb, after peeling and cutting, add half pound good figs, cut into small pieces. Place in a saucepan with a very little water.

Sunday School Lesson

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON
JOSEPH'S READINESS FOR SERVICE
International Sunday School Lesson for June 6, 1937

Golden Text: "Seest thou a man diligent in his business, he shall stand before kings."—Proverbs 22:29.

With this lesson we begin the story of Joseph, which comprises one fifth of Genesis. It is the ideal story of the old testament, as Joseph was its ideal character, of whom no evil was recorded, the various actors skillfully portrayed, and the underlying guiding hand of God well-established.

Joseph and Benjamin were the two sons of Jacob by Rachel, his early sweetheart and favorite wife. Joseph's boyhood was spent in various places, as Jacob migrated with his herds and tribe to Succoth, Shechem, Beohel and Hebron, the latter claiming the distinction as one of the blindest towns in the world. It was near Hebron where the early story of Joseph is unfolded.

Genesis 37 relates the details surrounding the family life of the patriarch Jacob and the bickerings and jealousies which existed between the 19 sons of three different mothers and his two sons, Joseph and Benjamin, sons of Rachel. Joseph suffered because he was his father's favorite just as Jacob had suffered because he was the favorite son of his mother. He behak. The gift of a special coat by his father, as a mark of his unusual affection, brought Joseph no benefit but rather increased his peril from the hatred of his brethren.

Another circumstance soon added to the hostility and envy of Joseph's brothers. The boy was a dreamer, apparently with a divine prophetic meaning and he was not old enough to keep his dreams to himself, but related them to his brothers. Each indicated that Joseph would be superior to his own family and that if they did not eventually bow themselves before him, Joseph's brothers intensely irritated with him, determined to put him out of the way and seized upon the first opportunity to do this. Sent by his father to visit his brothers, while they tended their flocks far from home, the brothers plotted to throw him there to die. Reuben, more humane, suggested rather that they sell him to some traders passing by and thus it happened that Joseph was taken to Egypt and sold as a slave to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh.

So faithful and diligent was Joseph as a slave that he was soon advanced by Potiphar to a position as overseer of his household. A false accusation brought by Potiphar's wife, caused him to be thrown into prison and while there he interpreted the dreams of Pharaoh's butler and chief baker. When Pharaoh had a dream which his wise men could not interpret, the butler remembered Joseph and Pharaoh had Joseph brought before him to explain the dream and so impressed was Pharaoh with Joseph's interpretation, that he selected him as the wisest man "one in whom the spirit of God was" and placed him as grand vizier, second in authority only to himself in Egypt. He was put into execution of a constructive plan of preparation against the approaching famine of which God had warned Pharaoh in his dream.

So for seven years the river Nile overflowed and the harvests were unusually good. Then a drought throughout the country seeing that the grain was properly harvested and stored against the time when famine should come, and the crops failed, and shortly after Egypt was in distress and need. From the royal granaries Joseph sold the life-preserving grain first taking gold, then livestock and, finally, the land itself, in payment. Pharaoh became the owner practically everywhere in Egypt.

Joseph's 13 years of trial and crown with sudden prosperity may give all of us a lesson of patience," says Alexander Maclaren. "Hindrances are help's. If one of Joseph's sorrows had been spared, his good fortune would never have come, if his brethren had not hated him, if he had not been imprisoned, he would never have ruled Egypt. Not one thread in the tapestry could have been withdrawn without spoiling the pattern. We cannot afford to lose one of our sorrows or trials. There would be no summer unless winter had gone before. There is a bud or fruit behind every snowflake."

Joseph was a real leader, but is there a "gift of leadership"? People who step forward in an emergency are said to have a "gift of leadership," but the gift of leadership is only a willingness to do the things that must be done. Each one who says to another, in a hearty and honest way, "Lend me a hand and we will get the thing done, trusting to me," and the suggestion to carry it out may be a leader, and his success when the thing is done argues no special gift above the others who have silently helped him. It is in the thought that leadership lies, and it is by doing things ourselves and not in waiting for others to do the perfectly obvious thing to be done, that we may become leaders of men. Youthful Companion.

Sarah Ann's Cooking Class

To some housekeepers the baking of rolls is beyond their kitchen program, yet rolls are one of the most popular breads. They are acceptable at breakfast, dinner or supper. Make up a batch of dough, cover it tightly and store it in the refrigerator—sometimes for as long as a week. Then it is only a matter of minutes before it is shaped and set to rise.

Cheese Rolls
1 cup hot water
1-4 cup granulated sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 yeast cake
2 tablespoons lukewarm water
1 teaspoon sugar
1 egg, well beaten
2 1-2 cups grated cheese
3 1-2 to 4 cups flour
Combine the hot water with 1-4 cup of sugar and the salt. Cool until lukewarm. Meanwhile soften the yeast cake in the lukewarm water and add 1 teaspoon of sugar. Then stir into the first mixture. Next add the well-beaten egg and grated cheese and as much flour as can be stirred into the dough without kneading—about 2 1-2 to 4 cups. Toss dough on a lightly floured board, knead until easily handled. Then form pieces of dough into balls 3-4 inch in diameter by rolling the edges of each ball until the top is smooth. Place 3 balls in each section of a greased muffin tin; cover, let rise in a warm place until double its bulk. Bake in an oven 425 degrees from 12 to 15 minutes. Remove from oven and brush with melted fat. This makes two dozen cloverleaf rolls or one large loaf of bread. If preferred, this dough may be brushed with melted fat and stored in the refrigerator.

Cornbread Rolls
1 1-2 cups flour
2 heaping tablespoons of shortening
1-4-teaspoon soda
1 tablespoon sugar
3-4 cup cornmeal
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 egg
1-2 cup buttermilk
Sift together all dry ingredients and then cut in the shortening. Beat egg, add milk, then combine with other mixture. Scatter meal on the rolling board, roll dough 1 2 inch thick, cut as for biscuits, brush top or rolls with melted butter and fold over as for Parkerhouse rolls. Put in greased pan and bake in oven 425 degrees until done.

Wedding Rolls
Scald 1 1-2 cups milk with 2 tablespoons of butter, 2 tablespoons sugar, and 1 1-2 teaspoons salt. Cool to lukewarm, then add 1 yeast cake dissolved in 1 4 cup of lukewarm water. Whip in 2 1-2 cups of sifted flour, beat well and set aside until very light. Then fold in 2 well-beaten eggs and 2 tablespoons of melted butter, beat gradually, adding flour until stiff enough to knead—about 2 1-2 cups. Knead thoroughly, make into a loaf, brush with melted butter and set in a sheltered place. When ready to mold, knead lightly, roll out in a sheet 14 inch thick. Cut in small rounds, brush with melted butter and fold in pocketbook style. Place on a buttered tin and bake in an oven 425 degrees for 25 minutes. Brush with egg and milk, slightly sweetened, and return to oven to dry. These rolls require no butter when served.

Fruit Buns
Scrape two good sized potatoes and let boil in 1 pint of water until soft. Drain, squeezing the water out, add two ounces of butter and 1-2 lb. of sugar, mashing and mixing the whole thoroughly to prevent so that the hot potatoes may melt the butter and sugar. In 1 cup of potato water, add 1 yeast cake, add 2 cups of flour, sifted, with 1 teaspoon of salt, and enough milk to make a rather thick warm batter until double in bulk. When risen, add 1 cup each of floured raisins and currants, with addition of enough flour to make a very thick batter. Drop into greased muffin pans, let rise until again light, and bake in hot oven. These buns may be eaten either hot or cold with butter.

FORMER CITIZEN OF ALLEN SLAIN

Oke Smith, Well Known In This Section, Is Accidentally Slain

Oke Smith, 42, former resident of Allen, died at the Methodist hospital, Pikeville, May 28, of a bullet wound inflicted by his wife, with a pistol she thought to be unloaded.

Reports here state that in order to brighten her husband, Mrs. Smith removed the magazine containing five shells from the stock of an automatic pistol. Not knowing that the barrel of the weapon still contained a cartridge, she pulled the trigger.

According to Pike County Judge A. O. Stump, Smith was shot after ordering his wife's sister out of the house and starting into his wife's room to thrash her. His wife then attempted to scare him.

Mrs. Smith was placed under guard at her own home Saturday night. It is reported that her examining trial will be held June 4. Burial of Mr. Smith was made in Kettle, W. Va.

News For Floyd County Farmers

Blucher Allen Has a Good Vetch Crop, Says County Agent

Hairy vetch, a winter cover crop, sowed on the farm of Blucher Allen, Salt Lick Creek, this county, has reached a height of four feet and is now ready for mowing for hay or to be plowed under.

At repeated trials at the Jersey experiment station a corn crop following vetch gave a 25 per cent increase in yield.

Its main points of superiority over oats or rye as a cover crop are (1) vetch is a legume and therefore stores nitrogen in the soil for succeeding crops; (2) it makes a hay of first class quality; (3) vetch increases crop yield 25 per cent or more.

M. E. CHURCH WILL HAVE ANNIVERSARY

Local Church Plans For Program To Be Held June 27

The Methodist Church of Prestonsburg will observe the twentieth anniversary of the laying of the corner stone of the present church building, on June 27. The program will center around the history of the local church and particularly emphasize those things pertaining to the erection of the present edifice.

Mr. H. D. Fitzpatrick has contributed a page from a ledger giving the record of plans for a Sunday School picnic on the Fourth of July, 1874 just a few years after the close of the war between the states. On this occasion members of the bar and ministers were invited to make "spread eagle speeches" while a committee of the women were appointed "to arrange the grub and tables in style." Many people will want to see this record and attempt to identify the members of the committee.

Book of Golden Memories (One feature of the anniversary will be the dedication of a beautiful memorial book known as "Our Book of Golden Memories." This will contain a memorial record to the deceased persons giving the date of birth and a witty word epitaph. Those who enter the record will also be recorded and will be asked to make a contribution to a memorial fund to be used as the needed state-wide directory.

To Publish Church's History

A small Magazine is to be published giving the history of the church as nearly correct as can be secured. Accounts, records and verbal accounts, and pictures of this must be gathered by June 10. Those having records or information to contribute will please call the pastor.

Sunday, June 27 is to be made a home-coming day and people are urged to write their friends to visit them for this occasion. Plans will be made for an "all-day dinner" to be served at the church.

LOCAL KIWANIANS WILL ATTEND THE NAT'L CONVENTION

The Prestonsburg Kiwanis Club will join with 1,912 other clubs in the United States and Canada to observe "All Kiwanis Night" June 21 at the annual convention of Kiwanis International at Indianapolis, John W. Caudill, president of the local club, announced Wednesday.

COAL OPERATORS ELECT DIRECTORS

Following the meeting, J. D. Battle, a guest of the association, and executive secretary of the National Coal Association, Washington, D. C., gave an address in which he discussed all matters pertaining to the coal industry in the Big Sandy district.

Mr. Battle said that indications were strong that a divisional office of the National Coal Commission would be established in Ashland, which would be of great importance to the Big Sandy valley. This office would serve the high and low volatile fields of the south. A social gathering of the officials and their guests was held at an informal dinner at the Henry Clay hotel after the association had adjourned.

QUESTION: What makes muffins stick to the pan?

ANSWER: There are several causes for muffins sticking to the pan. It may be that the pans are not well greased. Or, there may be too much sugar in the recipe. Always use a tested recipe and measure accurately.

QUESTION: What makes a butter cake dry?

ANSWER: Too much flour or too much sugar may cause a butter cake to be dry. Always use a tested recipe and measure accurately. Beating the egg whites until they are too dry or baking the cake at too low an oven temperature for too long a baking period may also cause dry cakes. The Hotpoint heat and moisture-controlled electric oven accurately maintains the desired temperature and humidity.

QUESTION: How much grease should one put on the griddle when making griddle cakes?

ANSWER: Ordinary griddles should be greased lightly each time the batter is added. However, with the new griddle pan of the Hotpoint range (which also serves as a drip pan in the broiler) one needs only to grease it lightly at first. It is not necessary to grease it between "tryings."

QUESTION: What is the best way to remove an angel food cake from the pan?

ANSWER: Allow the cake to cool (inverted) until lukewarm—about 1 hour. Then cut around the edge and tube, invert, and tap on the bottom of the pan briskly, or if necessary, slip the hand between the cake and the edge of the pan and loosen it gently with the finger.

SHAWLS
Several years ago I heard a good actor give several readings from Abraham Lincoln's writings in order to make the readings more effective he dressed in clothing that was stylish at the time of the Civil War. The long shawl that he wore in lieu of an overcoat attracted more attention than any other feature of the performance. Feels of us had seen a man dressed in a shawl or go that had been worn by earlier men, if a man were to appear on our streets today with a huge shawl around his shoulders we would call the health physician and see what new medical aberration had developed in our town. But there was a time when such a wrap was quite as stylish as the traditional raccoon coat of the Eastern College still is.

And there were shawls for ladies, too. Every old lady of my earliest memories wore a shawl draped over her shoulders in the cold weather. I have known some old ladies who had no other winter wear. These shawls varied greatly in size, but most that I saw were black or dark in color.

The shawl that I recall with most pleasure was the one that had wrapped the babe in her big family. It was white with occasional black threads and could be added until it would fit the snug little bundle popularly known as the young hopey. Since it had kept 10 children warm, it must have been made of good material. Long after the youngest was grown, the old shawl was still good, and when I last saw it, it was serving in the place of a blanket for the eighth or tenth branch.

Isn't it strange that about a generation ago we suddenly decided that what was done was all wrong? We painted over the wood carvings, utterly ruined the old Seth Thomas clock with varnish of paint, and the beds we had inherited and allowed to disappear without leaving a trace just about every distinctive thing that our ancestors had prized and had slaved to acquire. Then we gradually learned how foolish we had been. Now we run to sales and gather spider webs in attempts to see old things that only the moneyed can afford.

One of these days, though some of our descendants will start rummaging for the great possibilities we need to make of the headboard and foot-board of a discarded bed.

Who knows but that a reconditioned T-model Ford may come to have the same kind of value as that we now associate with walnut and cherry furniture and old-fashioned mirrors?

FIRST BIG SANDY
STEAMER ARRIVED
HERE 100 YEARS AGO

One hundred years ago last week the first steamboat ever to enter the Big Sandy river arrived at Prestonsburg with a load of spring merchandise, a letter written at that time by a citizen of Prestonsburg states:
"The century-old river continues. The doubt that has heretofore existed, that the Big Sandy river could be navigated by steamboats was put to the test when the first steamboat ever to enter the river arrived at this place.
The captain said he found no obstacles in the river and his trip was a safe and pleasant one. At the completion of the voyage the citizens of this place engaged the boat for a trip up the river."

Health News
By Dr. Marvin Ransdell

Conquest of Typhoid Typhoid fever is a preventable disease that can and should be stamped out. Each year about 44,000 persons in the United States and Canada have the disease and about 4,400 die of it. The average duration of sickness is eight weeks.

To Prevent Typhoid
Be sure that you use pure pasteurized milk, or milk from hygienic dairies, and clean food that is protected from flies. If you are living in or expecting to visit a school where the disease still exists, be vaccinated and have all members of your family vaccinated.

Typhoid vaccine is made from dead typhoid germs.
The vaccine is injected under the skin in the upper part of the arm, in three doses, usually at weekly intervals. A slight redness soon appears at the point of injection, but disappears in a few days, and in severe cases a slight headache and tired feeling follows, lasting about a day. In very rare cases these signs may extend over several days, but the vaccination has been proven to be harmless.

Typhoid Germs in Water
If the contents of poorly constructed privy vaults and sewers and human discharges left on the ground drain into water systems, they may infect the water with typhoid germs. These germs may be taken into the body with drinking water or with water used in preparing uncooked foods. Many typhoid epidemics are caused in this way. Where there is an efficient system of water purification, typhoid fever has greatly decreased.

A sanitary toilet, for the safe disposal of human waste matter, should be provided for every unsewered rural or urban house. It should be constructed according to the specifications of the board of health.

Typhoid fever germs often get into milk through carelessness or lack of cleanliness upon the part of those who handle it. Flies sometimes infect it when it is left uncovered. When milk is pasteurized-heated to 145 degrees for 30 minutes-typhoid fever germs are killed. Use pasteurized milk and keep it covered in a cool place.

Many a vacation will be come lost between the planning and the scheduled time of departure.

The article appears in The Times recently concerning Tommie Scalf, an invalid for many years, was appreciated by persons of this community. Seemingly full of self pity, but full of desire to cheer others, we feel that "Tommie" has scattered enough happiness over these 11,000 miles over which he estimates he has traveled to deserve a new wheel chair, to say the least.

LOWER POWER RATE SEEN FOR RURAL KY.

State's Largest Utility Company Files New Rate At Frankfort

Cheaper rates for electricity throughout Kentucky, rural areas may result from the schedule filed by the Kentucky Utilities Company in Frankfort. In view of the fact that the company operates in two-thirds of the state, the Public Service Commission expects smaller companies will follow the lead of the state's largest by agreeing to new rates.

The new schedule will provide electric power to cooperatives at 1.2 cents per kilowatt hour. Gov. A. B. Chandler said that this action meant success to the entire electrification program throughout the state as the decision by this company removed the excessive cost of electric power. Members of the Kentucky Public Service Commission were elated over the new schedule. Surveys in approximately 50 counties are now under way for rural electrification with adequate power.

at reasonable prices. The cooperatives will receive power from the state's largest utility company for 1.2 cents per kilowatt hour. This, however, is the wholesale rate. To this that will cover its own expenditures of distribution and operation.

Other companies ordered by the Kentucky Public Service Commission to put the new classification into effect are the Ky-Tenn, Light and Power Co.; the Lexington Utilities, the Louisville Gas and Electric, and the Union Light, Heat and Power Co.

ASHLAND MINISTER TO PREACH AT LOCAL M. E. CHURCH, SOUTH

Rev. I. S. Tyler, presiding elder of the M. E. Church South, who has been in the city since Wednesday, will deliver the sermon at the Methodist church Sunday. Rev. Tyler is finishing his fourth year in this district and according to the law of Cole stated that he fired on Johnson with the shotgun he was carrying after Johnson fired one bullet from a .38 special revolver within an inch or two of his head.

The fourth and last quarterly meeting for the year will be held some time in August. At that time Rev. Tyler will complete his work for this church, but he will also officiate in the cabinet at the annual conference in September.

HANNA'S SATINOID Wall Finish

Once you have your walls painted with Hanna's Satinoid or Satin Sheen you will be glad you made your choice of these finishes. Satinoid and Satin Sheen walls are so much easier to keep clean... a damp cloth removes all dirt and the walls will be just as beautiful and fresh looking as the day they were painted.

Hanna's Satinoid is a soft, mellow flat wall finish. Hanna's Satin Sheen has a semi gloss and is especially desirable for kitchens and bathrooms.
