This Town That World

A CHALLENGE
The United Mine Workers have put it up to the rest of us. They're giving $1 each to the fund which maintains morale among the soldiers in camp and on the fighting fronts and which gets through to the boys in enemy prison camps the few comforts they can expect while in the hands of the barbarian enemy.

There is a Biblical passage which describes too many of us: "For I was an hungered, and ye gave me no meat; I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink; I was a stranger, and ye took me not in; naked, and ye clothed me not; sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not."

Contributions may be sent here to W. J. May, treasurer.

A LITTLE TOO BULKY
Hansford May, with the army in Iceland, recently wrote his mother, Mrs. W. M. May, here: "You asked me in your letter if I wanted anything. I don't need anything and what I want you couldn't send. I don't think you could get the United States in a package."

THE ARMY SPEAKS
And Ray Allen from California asks me to put an ad in THE TIMES, offering the blinky-blinky state back to the Spaniards. Dave Leslie, at Camp Berkeley, Texas, opines that he'd like to know what the "Indians were fighting over territory like that for."

"HIKE, JULE"
Years after writing "The Dark and Bloody Ground," S. D. (Dick) Osborne, of Martin County, published another book "Hike Julie" which I have just finished reading and enjoying. Though of a more serious nature than his first Hike volume, giants of the irrepressible humor of the author appear, every now and then. These few paragraphs, for instance:

"I remember when I was a boy that my parents would encourage me to study hard at school by telling me that some day I could rise to be a clerk in a store. Well, I almost graduated in Webster's blue book speller."

"Two men were arguing about a pair of shoes and one of them said, 'This pair of shoes I am wearing has lasted me twelve months.' The other looked down at them for a moment and said, 'How long have they been worn out?'"

"When a fellow says, 'You can't be a man by arguing with me,' him, my tobacco-chewing friend stepped up and said, 'Yes, you can. One time a Russellie argued with me for thirty minutes and when I suppose I was first to give up, he said, 'No body could guess. So he said, 'When he got through I was a Christian Scientist.'"

"Brother Hopkins, explaining how he could afford to give his time preaching without pay, said, 'The congregation don't get anything, and it takes as long to listen as it does me to preach.'"

Mentioned in the story are familiar places in this county and a few well remembered names. These Bube Clark, old-time ferryman here, and Morg Oldie, yet living on Salt Lick Creek, are two of the persons mentioned.

SCHOOLS PASS BOND QUOTA OF $300,000

But County Believed Short of $893,100 Goal Assigned It

Although several days must elapse before exact results of the Third War Loan drive in this county are known, sales of bonds during October were variously estimated from $700,000 to $800,000.

Overlapping activities of school and other groups made it impossible to exclude from making Bond purchases during this particular drive. It was feared that the county had failed for the first time to meet a War Loan quota.

The county's quota was set at $893,100 and, as elsewhere over the country, banking and insurance firms were excluded from making Bond purchases during this particular drive. The national goal of $15,000,000,000 was exceeded. Floyd county's quota of $893,100, County Superintendent Town Hall said after tabulating incomplete reports, totaled rural schools yet to be bonded. The quota exceeded their $500,000 quota by $393,100.

A feature of the drive in this county was the work in the schools. Floyd county's schools and students Superintendent Hall said:

"Certainly I wish to commend the principals and teachers for the ferocious and intense work in the Bond drive just closed. The children, their parents and other Floyd county workers equaled as hard in this patriotic campaign. Doubtless we would have failed in our undertaking without the aid of the children and their parents. It was a duty and a privilege for the schools to participate. A great lesson in democracy has been learned by all of us. The children are back in the classrooms of the county into closer communion with our schools, and both the schools and the homes have benefited. We are better Americans because of our part in this Bond drive. Somehow we all knew that we were helping our boys at the front. This was the 'G.I. Bill' that made our job easy."

(Individual school bond sales figures will be published next week.)

UMW ISSUES CHALLENGE

To Public To Match Their Contribution To State War Fund

United Mine Workers of Floyd and Johnson counties, meeting here Sunday to organize committees to fund the Kentucky War Fund drive and other similar funds, hurled a challenge to business men and the public to match their contributions to this cause.

The miners voted to assess themselves $1 each for the Kentucky War Fund drive which is seeking money with which to carry on the work of the USO and other agencies working to build and maintain morale of the armed forces and to get supplies to American prisoners of war.

Floyd county's quota is $12,800. United Mine Workers headquarters in Pikeville said there are approximately 6,500 miners in Floyd and Johnson counties. The book will be counted upon for the full contribution promised at the meeting here.

The miners have supported every such drive. "A UMWA spokesman said: 'We have no record which others are doing for this important work of the people back home for the boys in camp, at the front or in prison camps. Now, we want to see if they will meet our contribution.'"

Addresses were made by Edgar Reynolds, USO chairman; and Mr. Smith, state worker of Lexington.

LE. FITZPATRICK TRANSFERRED
Lt. Henry D. Fitzpatrick, of Middlesboro, who has been an army camp in North Carolina, has been transferred to Camp Campbell, Ky. They will reside in Pikeville.

MONTH'S END TO SEE NEW RATION BOOKS DISTRIBUTED TO 120,000,000 THRU SCHOOLS

WAR RATION BOOK 4 TO LAST TWO YEARS, OPA OFFICIALS SAY

War Ration Book Four, which will last approximately two years, will be issued to more than 120,000,000 persons through schoolhouse distributions during the last 10 days of this month, the Office of Price Administration announced last week.

Time and places where the public may obtain the new ration book will be announced locally as Regional Offices complete arrangements for distribution. The book will be used early in November.

"We have called on the schools again to distribute this ration book," OPA officials said, "because there was not enough time between completion of making Book Three and the date when Book Four will be used to organize the necessary facilities to handle applications by mail. Their ability to do the job quickly and efficiently, and their willingness to undertake the tremendous responsibility involved in distribution of ration books, has been proved in the past."

"In order to accomplish this carrying some adjustments will be made in the use of ration currency in the food program."

"The one adjustment which there is the most talk is the use of red and blue tokens as change for red and blue stamps in buying meats, fats and rationed dairy products, and processed foods. This plan will go into operation early in 1944."

"Another method of extending the life of the new ration book was to print in larger number of stamps. As any increase in the number of pages would have doubled the cost in money, time and labor, this could be done only by reducing the size of the stamps. For that reason, all of the stamps in War Ration Book Four are the same small size which was used for the first time in Ration Book Three."

War Ration Book Four combines point and stamp. It has eight pages containing a total of 384 stamps, printed on special paper in blue, red, green and black links.

"The green stamps will be used on an interim basis in connection with the blue processed food stamps in much the same way that the brown

Canty's Scrap Quota, 100 Pounds Per Person In New Salvage Drive

Floyd county's quota in the nationwide scrap drive which began Oct. 1 is 100 pounds—100 pounds per capita—W. W. Burchett, chairman of the Kiwanis Club committee heading the drive in this county, said Wednesday.

As in the past, Floyd county schools will play a prominent part in the accumulating of much-needed scrap metals for the country's war production plants. Two days will be designated as school holidays and pupils and teachers will spend those days hunting scrap. It was said Wednesday.

(See story on Page 6 giving drive details.)

Auto, Train Kill Three Floyd Men

Three Others Hurt, Condition of One Is Held Critical

The dead: Cecil Whitt, 25, Water Gap miner.

North Case, 22, Houaker, Estill Kidd, 20, Harold.

Injured were Richard O'Call, 21, a sailor home on leave; Alvin E. Heflin, 19, Harold; and Berlie Prater, 36, of Water Gap.

Whitt and Prater were two of three men on the railroad track at the old Barke Coal Company tipple, a short distance south of Prestonsburg, Sunday afternoon, when struck by Passenger Train No. 38. One third, Joe Bayes, was unharmed, though it was said the length of the train passed over him as he lay between the rails.

Through the generosity of the Kentucky Bankers' Association, $500 in War Stamps are to be divided among Kentucky farm boys and girls who attend the 12 district 4-H club conferences to be held over the state Oct. 15 to 28. About 1,200 county 4-H club champions will attend the district conferences.

The donation was announced by William Miller, of Louisville, president of the Kentucky Bankers' Association.

4-H Clubs Make Big Bond Sales

A call that sold $50,000 in War Bonds was a feature of a 4-H club auction at the Pike county fair. N. A. Crisman got the call in return for buying the bonds for the community which he represents. Purebred pig sold by Harbert and Robert Potter, club boys, and Layton Howerton, club leader, added $5,200 in bonds.

U.K. GRADUATES 120 STUDENTS AT END OF '43 SUMMER TERM

No laureate or panoply, usually attendant upon university commencement, attended the graduation of 120 University of Kentucky students who completed the required work leading to degrees, at the close of the 1943 summer term. Diplomas will be mailed to the successful candidates for degrees, following the new University ruling that only one commencement will be held at the state institution annually, and that in June of each year.

Among those from Floyd county receiving diplomas were Elizabeth Stephens, Bachelor of Arts in Education, Prestonsburg;

Pete Swanson fancies himself as an armchair strategist. Sometimes he gets so tangled up, I just can't resist tryin' to straighten him out.

For instance, the other day he was waxing indignant about our soldiers being allowed to buy beer right in camp. Said that was just coddling the troops and would ruin discipline.

I told him the actual facts had already been established by a study the Government made. Their report said chaplains and the military police agree that instead of raising discipline, 3.5 beer sold in Army camps provides our soldiers with a mild form of relaxation without impairing their efficiency.

Well, Pete allowed that the chaplains and military police are a pretty good authority on what's right for soldiers. I've noticed lately he's been confining his remarks to the broader phases of strategy.

ON GUARD
I'm a guard tonight in a distant land
In a land far over the sea
God help me tonight to keep that sword
And the lives of my buddies and me
They sleep tonight on a sheltered ground
They lives entrusted to me
God help me tonight to keep that sword
And the lives of my buddies and me
They sleep in their homes, they love so well
And the lives they'd love to see
God help me tonight to keep their dreams
So these loved ones mine more than I

Kentucky's Drive To Collect Huge Scrap Tonnage Begun

A state-wide drive to collect 265,000 tons of scrap metal will be held between October 1 and November 15, it was announced by J. J. Rice, director of the Kentucky Scrap Campaign.

The campaign will be coordinated with a nation-wide drive to collect 1,500,000 tons. The War Production Board has designated the drive as the "Victory Scrap Drive Campaign."

From the state and national quotas Rice explained, are goals for the last six months of 1943. But, in Kentucky, at least, the response has been so far below the quotas that the scrap must be gathered in the special period of six weeks.

While the drive will enlist aid from Kentucky newspapers, radio stations and all civic bodies, Rice said, it cannot expect the intensive promotion afforded last fall in the "great drive" sponsored by the newspapers.

The drive in Kentucky will be conducted thru 120 county demonstration areas, each directed by a local salvage committee, in cooperation with the schools and every other agency of the county and county seat towns.

A model plan, tested out in Perry county between June 21 and July 1, is being sent to county salvage committees with the recommendation that it be adopted throughout the state. There are no magic formulas of success in the Perry plan, Rice said. The success of it is through active planning, community organization and hard work.

That the Perry county plan will work, Rice said, is indicated by the fact a 360-ton quota was exceeded by 150 tons, salient points of the plan follow:

1. Salvage committee meets, sets

BETSY LAYNE

Outstanding event of the past week was the community fair, sponsored by the Betsy Layne Woman's Club. It was the first attempt at such a program, but the results were sufficient for the time and effort spent in preparation. A display of picturesque State War Bonds and Stamps.

TO THE VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY:

On my campaign cards you will notice that one of the "planks" in my platform is to free Old Dix.

I want to explain that this is done in one kind of Old Dix—not the old hound dog alone. There is the poor and underprivileged class of people who, too, wear the collar or yoke. These include the barefoot boy with high hopes and ambition, but whose parents are too poor to provide him the education every child deserves.

I believe that the people of Floyd county should have an equal chance with the people of Central Kentucky. They should have schools equal to those of the Bluegrass counties. I also believe that every boy and girl should have at least two years' college education at state expense.

I have nothing to say about my opponent. He is a gentleman, as far as I know. However, as a whiskey salesman with a "C" card, he has an advantage over me in getting around to see you voters, since I do not own any car at all.

I assure you that if you will elect me your Representative, all the people will have equal representation at Frankfort. I am a coal miner, and some might say I would represent only the miners. But there are only citizens, just like the rest of us, and I would give them no more consideration than I would give any other group. A law that will help the miners will, if honestly written, help the farmers, the gas workers, lawyers and bankers.

Let us not be hot-headed about our politics and vote against our own interest in Floyd county.

Make sure of voting right by electing a Floyd candidate for Representative.

ROBERT HICKS

SUNDAY A CATHOLIC HOLIDAY

"My Brethren, look about you upon the various wrangling sects and denominations. Show me one that claims or possesses the power to make binding on the conscience. There is but one on the face of the earth—the Catholic church—that has power to make laws binding upon the conscience...

Which church does the whole civilized world obey? The Bible answers: "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy, for the Catholic church says, 'No, keep the first day of the week, and the whole world bows in obedience.'"

In this Alexander Campbell, founder of the Christian Church, concurs: "But some say it was changed from the seventh to the first day. Where, When, and by Whom? No man can tell. No; it never was changed, nor could it be, unless creation was to be changed again; for the reason assigned must be changed before the observance or respect to the reason be changed! It is old wives' tales to talk of the Sabbath from the seventh to the first day. If it has been changed, it was that August personage changed it who changes times and laws ex officio, I think his name is Dr. Antichrist."

Mayo Receives Wings As Gunnery Graduate

SGT. MAYO

A graduate recently of the Harlingen (Texas) flexible gunnery school who qualified as an expert aerial triggerman after six weeks of intensive training and now wears the silver wings of a gunner-sergeant is Dick E. Mayo, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Mayo, Prestonsburg.

He was promoted to sergeant and received his diploma and wings at brief sessions at the Harlingen army air field and, unless held over to serve as an instructor, will depart immediately to join a combat crew aboard a U.S. bomber. Before learning to "double in gunnery," he completed a course in air mechanics and qualified as an air crew technician. He has fired every type of weapon from .38 and camera guns to 30-caliber Brownings, spent from 12 to 16 hours daily on the ground and in the air mastering the course of instruction and training eyes, nerves and fingers to split second timing. He dismissed the course by firing on towed targets from Texas training planes and medium bombers.

Sgt. Mayo volunteered for service while a law student at the University of Kentucky. He is now at Green Field, Boise, Idaho.
