LIGHT VOTE PREDICTED IN STATE

The presses are slowing to a walk on campaign literature, and the stump speaking is doing a fade-out as this newspaper is being printed, with everybody concerned grimly grinding for the "this-is-it" all-out night vote is predicted, but in Floyd county pre-election interest augurs at least an average number out at the polls.

Smith Motor To Open In Its New Building

The C. H. Smith Motor Company announced this week that its forthcoming store will be opening on the Mayo Trail at the upper limits of Prestonsburg will be held Saturday. All visitors will receive souvenirs of the occasion, and favors will consist of flowers for the ladies, cigars for the men.

LOCAL GROUP, SINGERS OF OLD SONGS, ORGANIZE RECENTLY AS 'THE CHANTERS' BUT ARE HAMPERED BY LACK OF FUNDS

The Chanters, a group of singers of old tunes who may never number more than 10, was organized here recently by Mrs. Edith F. Jamps, founder and leader of the original group of singers at Benfro Valley, Ky., today and tomorrow (Thursday and Friday). But the appearance is a matter of art for the sake of it, says nothing, and more being as it is, the trip is not practical.

94-Year-Old Farmer 'Cutting' New Teeth

It's a little late, but Uncle Harry Lee Moore, prominent Benfro Creek farmer, will soon have in operation a brand-new set of teeth.

SENATE ACTION SAVES FLOOD CONTROL JOB

Appropriation Total For Johns Cr. Work Nearly $3,000,000

Picture of a Campaign Manager Making a Pre-Election Forecast

MANAGER: "I'm not predicting anything. What's in the seventh of Pinkey's Ch. the Seventh district. I have a hunch. We'll carry it by a close margin. It's 50,000. The First Ch. the grand old First. It's 10,000. It don't hurt, you know, to say."

ASSISTANT: "But, sir, we're in a bad shape."

MGR.: "We are? What about that Unimentionable over in the Third? Don't interrupt me. I know what those places ought to do. We'll let 'em do it. Now, let's see... Well, let's be fair about this matter. Let's concede that ninth his name precinct—but I tell you, I'll be close there, mighty close."

MGR.: "More of the unimentionable checks on the number of Congressional districts, to be certain he hasn't claimed for his man one of the several districts in the re-districting, several years ago. Then he has his several precinct ready for the press."

MGR.: "After a thorough survey of the entire state an intensive study of the situation district by district, county by county, by precinct by precinct, and personal visits to every nook and corner of the Commonwealth, I've now predicted. We will carry the state by at least 75,000 votes!"

ASSISTANT: "Great! This is grand news."

MGR.: "Never mind the congratulations, Heckler. Shape a leg and get me a bet down on that longshot in the seventh at Pinkey—Walt a minute. Cover up that with a bet on that 50-and-50 runner against my man. And let 'er run. Ever huss in this race is a good mudder."

LEGION NINE ELIMINATED

Prestonsburg Team Licked by Ashland At State Tourney

Prestonsburg lost to Ashland Wednesday afternoon, 14 to 1.

Prestonsburg this week is in a tight spot. The team for the second time this year as its Junior American Legion nine carries the hopes of this district in the state meet at Louisville.

Earlier in the year, the Prestonsburg Black Cats represented the district in the high school tourney there. It was the Cats' second straight year to go to the state tournament.

3 CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR

In Floyd Appearances—Clements at Wayland, Williams, Dammit Here

Floyd county in the last week before the election received its share of attention from three candidates for Governor.

E. C. Clements, candidate for the Democratic nomination, spoke at Wayland Saturday night, Wednesday, the two major Republican candidates were here—John P. Williams at 1:30 p.m. and E. C. Clements at 7 p.m.

Clements' Wayland appearance attracted the entire canvass of United Mine Workers leaders, with Tom Roney, Pikeville, UMWA international representative, introducing him as the friend of the miners and urging his support. Mr. Roney was introduced by Carl P. Williams, local attorney.

Salient portions of Mr. Clements' address emphasized that he was in favor of the present five lines in major labor bills, and that he was in favor of handling the whiskey situation through local option elections.

He favors rural roads but primarily for the farmer's crop and that these must be maintained.

"No mind to sling no stones to throw," was the theme of Mr. Williams, stressing the state's problems and the great obligation resting on its leaders.

"Rural needs must receive more attention than city other," he declared. Among those he listed roads, schools, medical aid and the public health.

Mr. Williams was introduced by County Superintendent Town Hall, who in turn was introduced by Wayne Bialik, principal of the Wheelwright consolidated school.

TO OUR TRADE

Dear Patrons and Customers who have supported me and given me your trade and friendship since I have been in business:

As you all know, the grocery business has been a hard go for the last year or so, but I have done my best in trying to keep at all times what you needed in the way of groceries for your families. But now I suppose that you all pretty well know that I am no longer able to do and serve you as before, as I am laid up at home and confined with an illness beyond my control. My fate lies with my Almighty God, in whom I have great faith.

Just how long it will be before I shall be able to serve you all again, as in the past, I do not know. But I am going to run my business on with the help of the people and my own son and my wife and with the help of the good Lord. It has been some time since I have rightfully been able to work, but I continued on in order to make an honest living for my family and me.

I would like to say to all my customers, old and new, who have loyally given me their patronage in building my business, I will thank God for the privilege of again saying, "Thank you all for your support," and since I have been down and out, those who have given me a helping hand will never be forgotten. I am pretty sure it will be a hard job on us to keep on hand at all times what you need, but we assure you all that we will do our best, and we ask that you all be patient with us for the time being. I hope that things will turn out better in the near future for me.

ATTEND ARNETT RITES

Floyd Arnett, West Liberty banker and former judge, died of a heart attack Friday. Among those attending his funeral at West Liberty Sunday were Dr. and Mrs. Earl T. Arnett, Mrs. John Hale, A. J. May, J. W. Howard, Russell Peltrey.

dress Wednesday evening supplied the comedy he let to the campaign. His running fire of anecdotes kept the crowd in high good humor.

"The big issue in this campaign," he declared, "is Are we going to let Ida and Sim Willis name their successor?" Referring to Kentucky's needs, he said rural roads are most needed, adding: "If Governor Willis built all the roads he has promised in the last 30 days, all I would have to do would be to look after the rivers and harbors."

"It's nice," he said, "to have main highways so that folks from New York and other states can drive to Mammoth Cave, but it would be better if folks who live on rural roads could get out to a doctor and, some day, perhaps get down to Mammoth Cave themselves."

The speaker was introduced by Edward L. Allen, Prestonsburg attorney.

Mrs. Willie Turner, of Haysville, spent Sunday night here with relatives.

Why Labor Should Support Harry Lee Waterfield

(From "MASON DIXON'S LINE" in The Kentucky Post of June 21)

Reports from various sources indicate that an interesting situation is developing with respect to labor support of the pre-primary race of Harry Lee Waterfield and Earle C. Clements for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Kentucky.

... There are signs around the state that labor will play an important role in the outcome of the contest.

Among the miners, for instance, ... it is reported, the miners will remember his (Waterfield's) championing of the rock-dust legislation for safety in the coal districts and will line up for the Clinton candidate.

From one labor leader this week came a report that it is apparent that "Clements is losing ground and that Waterfield is forging ahead." This turn of events, said the labor man, can be credited greatly to labor. It was recalled that some of the most influential Kentucky labor leaders in the state have been irritated during the last two years because of some of the actions of Mr. Clements. Cited as such was the fact that labor was very much concerned about a bill to draft labor in February, 1945, and that Mr. Clements voted for this measure. Again, say the leaders, when the President's labor disputes bill was pending in May, 1946, Clements again was credited with voting favorably toward labor. At that time one of the largest railroad organizations notified all of Kentucky locals that Clements was unworthy of labor's support for re-nomination to Congress in the 1946 primary. Reports are that a large segment of labor has not forgotten and that Mr. Clements has failed to mend his fences with many of the labor boys.

The labor leaders who reported to Mason Dixon also are recalling the Clements influence in the Senate of the 1946 legislature where, they say, he was "credited with assisting utilities and industry, but did not assist labor in getting the Unemployment Compensation Bill reported from a Senate committee. Then these leaders declared that Waterfield, on the contrary, was very popular with labor because he always listened sympathetically and assisted strenuously when he was called upon by labor lobbyists, particularly the United Mine Workers with their safety bill, which carried the rock-dusting provision for which Waterfield was given the credit."

"As one labor leader put it, 'Labor feels that Kentucky has had too much too long of the ordinary political type Governor. They want a statesman. Labor embracing teachers' unions want adequate funds for education. They are tired of lip service. Waterfield was specific in how to get the funds by supporting the Speaker of the House, a liberal budget; while Clements is charged with opposing such liberality in the Senate.'

Continuing, this same labor leader also had this to say: "As a candidate for Governor, Waterfield has stated he favored a five-cent tax on pari-mutuels which exists in other racing states and at a much higher rate in some states." Clements is accused by this labor man of "still" generalizing that more money is needed for education."

Labor is wise, of course, to the old story based on past experiences, that campaign chairman, both state and county, play influential parts in the administration by the Governor they succeed in electing. Labor men, in some instances, say they are looking with dread at a great part of the Clements machine.

A consensus of labor opinion coming from several leaders can be summarized as follows: As a result of the present Congressional activity, labor is soberly and intelligently weighing all issues. Its members realize that such matters as housing, health, public welfare, education, taxes must be construed in the category of labor legislation. They realize further that politicians generally can be pressured—that power and money count most in the pressuring—and that a politician who will bend from pressure in one direction will bend in the other direction and that the salvation of labor and the nation is the election of statesmen to office.

Labor realizes that the definition of "statesman" is one who has the courage and the character to take a position, one who will talk, work, and vote in committees behind closed doors, the same as he talks, works, or votes in the record. A decade of observation has proved to labor that it may well have a man of such caliber as the candidate for Governor this year, some of the leaders declare.

One leader to whom Mason Dixon talked was quite vehement in his championing of Mr. Waterfield. He declared: "The line-up proves that the support of utilities, capital, industry, and other selfish groups is centered in Clements, while those rich in human principles, although poor in worldly goods, the real supporters of democracy, are gathered in the Waterfield camp." (Political adv.)

with a clear, clean conscience. I have never violated the law, so far as I know, in the 72 years that I have lived.

"I am the baby son, a twin, of a father who lived 94 years, two months and 20 days. Honor thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long upon the earth is the way he lived. When I was a boy I followed him to the woods to fell the trees and cut the lumber to build what was known for years as the May Chapel in the community where I grew up.

"My father had five brothers. Every one of them lived beyond 75 years of age and he, with every one of them, was active in school work and church work in their respective communities and not one of them was ever suspected of violating the law. Three of them were ministers of the Gospel and one was a judge of the court.

"The name 'May' is labeled on my town where I grew up, Maytown.

"I practiced law for 35 years, diligently and industriously. I defended men and prosecuted men.

"I have held public office 24 years, including 16 years in Congress and never received a dollar, directly or indirectly, that was not honestly earned and justly due. I have always lived this way.

"I was superintendent of my Sunday School. I was a teacher of the Bible class as long as I was in my home community and when I came to Washington, I attended the Baptist Church on 16th street regularly.

"I never tasted liquor, wine, or beer in my life, and I never used tobacco in any form because I had hoped in my old age that I would be able to enjoy life physically and not be diseased and contaminated by my system.

"I say this to the court now that I never did a thing while I was in Congress that today affects my conscience in the slightest. I never received a dime as compensation or otherwise for any service I rendered to anybody, including the Garsons and Freewomen.

"I stand here today on the mercy of the court, and if I go to prison, my grandchildren will drop out of college and that may be a break of a golden chain that might lead to greatness.

"I say to this court, regardless of the verdict of the jury, regardless of what has been said in a malicious press, regardless of what may happen in any form because I have no conscience and I am not guilty."

"There followed appeals for Murray Garson by Attorney Perry Howard, near Republican national committee man from Mississippi, and for Henry Garson by himself and his attorney, former Pennsylvania Attorney General Charles J. Margitt.

Murray Garson, Howard said, lived through the trial on stretchers and was not carried three months' imprisonment because of a "hopeless" heart condition.

Margitt's effort to lengthen on the outstanding production record made during the war by companies in which Henry Garson was an officer.

"He is the most brilliant man I have ever met. His war record is outstanding. Above that, he is a gentleman and I'm proud to have defended him."

Said Henry Garson: "I want to dispose of two myths. One is the myth of 'the powerful chairman of the House Military Affairs Committee coming to my aid, obtaining favors for me. He may be powerful in formulating policies, but I knew then and know now that Congressmen have very little power in getting things accomplished in the executive agencies. I reported cases of racial discrimination against us to him because I thought he should know of anything hindering the war effort."

"The second myth is that I made a lot of money. The end of the war left me in a financial position worse than at the start. Every cent I made was reinvested in the companies. I'm in debt today."

The court, after conference with attorneys, acknowledged that all three defendants are unable to pay fines. The judge said also that he would consider the three counts of the indictment on which they were convicted as one offense.

"Therefore, the sentence in the case of each defendant will be a minimum prison term of eight months, a maximum of two years."

"The new charges made by Margitt in the early stages of today's hearing, involved alleged facts of the jurors to observe the court's instruction to refrain from reading newspaper accounts of the trial, and other misconduct by the panel.

Members of the jury admitted to a defense investigator, he said, that they had read what the attorney termed "prejudicial and distorted facts, misleading and inaccurate quotations of the court" in Washington newspaper accounts of the 11-week-long trial.

Further, he charged members of the jury had discussed and prejudged the case among themselves before the close of the evidence, that "one or more" of them had reasonably doubted of the guilt which they ascertained improperly to surround the majority.

He said also that it is difficult at best for defendants to receive a fair trial away from their home communities before a Washington jury containing many government workers predisposed to favor the government's case.

"After 73 days of trial, after 12 hours of closing arguments, two hours of instructions by the court, 30 minutes to return an verdict. One juror said they agreed in 40 minutes. Why, they couldn't even read the indictment in that length of time," Margitt charged.

These and a score of other assignments of error by the court will be filed with the Circuit Court of Appeals within 40 days. Within 30 days thereafter, the defense must file its brief. Margitt estimated that the case will come up for argument late in the fall. If the defendants are unsuccessful in the Circuit Court of Appeals, the case will be taken to the Supreme Court, he said.

NOT ACTIVE ON EITHER SIDE
 Some one has given my name to your paper and represented to you that I am favorable to the candidacy of Mr. Dummit for Governor of Kentucky.

It may seem old-fashioned to some, but to my way of thinking county election commissioner is a servant of the voters, and more especially to all of the candidates, in that he should see to it that the election is fairly held and that the votes are counted promptly and just as the votes were cast.
 He should be impartial toward the candidates of his own party in a primary election.
 The above information was given to you without any authority from me, either expressed or implied. I am taking no active part whatever on either side.
 Should I decide to take an active part for any candidate, my first move will be to resign as Floyd county Republican Election Commissioner.

Only Five Per Cent Of Vets Reinstating Insurance Dropped

While reinstatement of National Service Life Insurance is progressing in Kentucky at the rate of $2,400,000 a week, only 5 per cent of the veterans who dropped the insurance when separated from the armed services have reinstated it. Harry W. Farmer, regional manager of the Veterans Administration office, said value of insurance reinstated by 8,741 veterans since the drive started February 3 was $60,322,000. He estimated 165,000 veterans in the state have not reinstated the insurance.

Under a recent extension, the insurance may be reinstated without physical examination up to January 1. The previous deadline was August 1. The insurance may be reinstated in multiples of $500 from $1,000 to $10,000. It may be converted to any of the type of policies issued by insurance companies. It carries loan values after the first year up to 84 per cent of cash value. Farmer invited all veterans interested in reinstating insurance or converting it from term to one of the standard policies to contact any VA contact office in the state.

Vote for Henry Clay Stephens for State Treasurer. He wants your help. If his friends are as loyal to him as he has been to them, he can and will win. He has taught school, been Circuit Court Clerk, Circuit Judge, Director, Cashier and President of The First National Bank in his home town. He is just a plain, old mountaineer, born and reared on the Caney Fork of Middle Creek. He is competent and qualified by years of experience. He knows people and never forgets a good deed.

Let's give him the biggest vote he ever received in old Floyd county. Don't forget him, August 2, 1947 on the Democratic ticket. He has always tried to do more for people than they have done for him. Show by your vote that Floyd county is still on the map, regardless of what they say about us. (Pol. adv.)

This The Is Truth About It! They're ALL For CLEMENTS

FARMERS are for CLEMENTS
 BECAUSE:
 He is a farmer and a farmer's son.
 He will be the first real farmer Governor in many years.
 He is a Charter Member of his Farm Bureau.
 He owns and operates two farms.
 He is one of the best judges of livestock in his County.
 He was a former County Judge for 8 years.
 He handled rural road problems.
 His county is one of the best-developed REA counties in the state.

VETERANS are for CLEMENTS
 BECAUSE:
 He is a Veteran himself.
 He served 28 months in World War I.
 He was in the Army of the United States, never in the S.A.T.C.
 He enlisted as a private in a mountain company.
 He served in the Infantry.
 Many Kentuckians who served with him testify he was a good soldier.

Earle Clements Is Not Trying To Win The Governorship By Deception!

Have you heard any such wild story as this! That Ben Kilgore and Harry Lee Waterfield were responsible for getting the REA for Kentucky?

HERE IS THE TRUTH ABOUT IT! No state funds ever were appropriated by the legislature of Kentucky for REA. REA is a federal-government operation, not a state function.

Have you heard any such fantastic story as this! That ANY former member of the Kentucky House of Representatives was responsible for bringing the REA to Kentucky?

HERE IS THE TRUTH ABOUT IT! Congressman Virgil Chapman, who helped to write the REA Act, in a recent speech pointed out that it was created by Congress, receives all its funds from Congress, and that no member of the State Legislature has created the REA. Earle Clements appeared before Congress to make a speech to protest against reduction in REA funds.

Earle Clements is the REAL people's choice in this campaign. His opponent has spent all his adult life on the state payroll and launched his campaign for Governor while engaged by the Democratic State Central Executive Committee. His opponent used the office of Organization director of the Democratic State Central Executive Committee and his office as Speaker of the House to further his candidacy for Governor.

The principal backers of Harry Lee Waterfield have frequently run but seldom won a state-wide contest. They have behind them a record of defeats in both primaries and final elections. EARLE CLEMENTS NEVER LOST AN ELECTION AS A CANDIDATE AND HAS NEVER BEEN DEFEATED. If nominated he will be elected by the biggest majority any candidate ever received in the history of the state. His nomination assures the Democratic party of a tremendous victory in November. He can and will win.

All of Waterfield's promises, promises, promises mean merely more taxes, taxes, taxes for the people of Kentucky. Mr. Clements has been careful about making commitments, but there is hardly a county in the state in which those opposing him have not promised scores of jobs and often the same job to different people many times. If they filled all the jobs they have promised, they would triple the payroll of the state. WATERFIELD HAS OVERPROMISED HIMSELF ON JOBS JUST AS HE HAS ON APPROPRIATIONS.

I was born and reared in Floyd county and have spent almost my entire life in this county. I know many of you personally and am related by blood to a number of you. I know your problems, the things you need done, and I assure you that if you nominated and elected your Representative, I will be your friend in Frankfort.

I have had no previous chance to establish a labor record—for the reason that I have not held office and have earned my living at work other than in the mines. But those who know me cannot but feel certain that, if given a chance, I will establish a labor record of which you will fully approve.

I think you men who are doing the actual work, who risk your lives every day, are more capable of judging your friends than some man who lives two hundred miles away and who does not know me and many of you personally.

If elected, I will not only be fair to you—I will serve all the people to the best of my ability. And anybody who promises more than that is trying to "put one over" on the public.

WHY?

Earle C. Clements has the support of the power companies, the big liquor interests, the somewhat broken-down Chandler-Johnson-Rhea political machine and the big corporation lawyers.

WHY then should any man who digs his livelihood out of the mountains think Clements, deep down in his heart, is his friend?

Can Earle Clements serve two masters—the big moneyed interests and the common working man, too? Do you think so?

Union leaders are human, as we all are. They are prone to make mistakes. They have made them, and they are making a big mistake again.

They are telling you, simply because Clements voted against the Taft-Hartley Bill, that you should vote for him against Harry Lee Waterfield.

WHY don't they remind you that Clements voted for the Work-or-Fight Bill?

Do you think Earle Clements, even if he has the best intentions in the world, can shake labor-hating "Happy" Chandler and his gang loose long enough to be the miner's real friend when it comes to a showdown between you and the Big Interests?

WHY have Union leaders endorsed one man for the State Legislature because he supported the Compensation Law and the Mine Safety Bill, then opposed Harry Lee Waterfield who led the House of Representatives fight for those two bills? WHY?

WHY have taken onto the mountain every four years and be shown the wonders of the earth—only to learn, when it is too late, that your best friends are among the common people, and not those consorting with those who never knew you until election time?

WHY not think this thing through, fellows, as good, free and freedom-loving Americans?

WHY not help nominate and elect your friend and ours, the cleanest young man to come upon the Kentucky political scene in generations?

Harry Lee Waterfield is that man. Time will prove the truth of this statement—and it will not be long.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 96TH LEGISLATIVE DIST.

I was born and raised on the Left Fork of Middle Creek at Blue River, Kentucky. I am the son of the late James Hale and the grandson of George Hale, better known as "Big George" Hale, of Goodloe, Kentucky. Both my father and grandfather were staunch, life-long Democrats. I grew up in Floyd county and have lived in Floyd county all my life. I entered the service of my country in 1943 and spent over two years of my life overseas serving in the interest of my country and the good people of Floyd county. I wish to ask 96th voters, where was my opponent, the Honorable Bill Biggers, during this time? He was in the Legislature, serving the liquor interests of the state of Kentucky.

TO THE VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY:

For some unknown reason the well known question has been attempted to be injected into the race for State Senator in Floyd county. It is the first place this question is not at issue in this election and is not placed in any platform of either of the candidates. Floyd county has been declared legally dry by a majority vote of the people of Floyd county. It will remain so under present laws until a majority of the voters express at the polls their desire that it be changed. This will be true, regardless of who is elected Senator.

Doug Hays has served four years in the State Senate. During this time he was the Senator for all the people in his district. He was not just a Senator for the Methodists or Baptists or Democrats or Republicans or any other denomination. He was his duty and privilege to vote for and enact laws calculated to serve the best interest of the people of Floyd county. His record stands as a silent tribute to his ability and faithfulness as a public officer. When he is returned to the Senate he will support such measures as will be to the best interest of the people in his district. He will do his best to be a good Senator. He can not be a good Senator if he supports any legislation not suitable to the best people. He would not try to do it.

Do you good people want to have this type of representation in Frankfort again? Certainly your answer is No! And when you march to the polls on August 2nd I am sure you will make known your answer by voting for me for Representative of a Floyd County for Floyd County People every time. I marched for you in 1943. Now, you march for me in 1947! HENRY C. HALE Candidate for Representative, 96th Legislative District

It Is Easy to Make a Mistake

Sensible, right-thinking people have long since ceased paying any attention to political "MUD-SLINGING."

At least one of my opponents does not seem to realize this, as is evidenced by a rather long mud-slinging statement published by him.

I take it for granted that the good people of Floyd county know my record at Frankfort, as their State Representative. I am not ashamed of this record. I worked and voted at all times for the poorly paid school teachers. I introduced and had passed the Tuberculosis Sanatorium bill for five (5) new state hospitals, and as is generally known, one of these hospitals would today be located in Floyd county, at Allen, had it not been for the actions of a Republican Governor. I voted for and stood true, at all times, for any beneficial legislation for the laboring man, and my record in this respect is vouched for by the State Labor Leaders of Kentucky. I feel that my experience has been such that I can be of real service to the People of Floyd county if nominated and elected as your Representative.

I have the interest of all our people at heart, and they may rest assured that at all times I will be found working and fighting for the best interest of Floyd county.

Important legislation affecting the interest of Floyd county will come up for consideration at the next session of the Legislature and the people of this county may rest assured that I will be found standing behind a Democratic Governor working with him for the best interest of Kentucky. I am making this last appeal to the end that those who really love this county may not be misled and that they will not forget to cast their vote for me as State Representative on Saturday, August 2.

TO THE PUBLIC:

There appeared in The Louisville Courier-Journal, Louisville, Ky., a letter signed by B. M. James, and dated at Lexington, Ky., which relates to the "Tate-Hartley Act." I wish it understood that I did not write that letter and I did not mail such a letter in Lexington, Ky., either. I want it understood that I am for the Hon. Earle C. Clements for Governor. In my opinion that was written from this town by some person knowing that I was for Mr. Clements.

To prove to my satisfaction that the letter was mailed by some person from Prestonsburg I wrote a letter to "B. M. James, Lexington, Ky." The letter was returned, marked, "Address unknown."

Yours truly,

NEWS FOR THE VETERAN

ONLY HALF OF APPROVED VETS TAKE G.I. TRAINING
 Slightly less than half of the World War II veterans in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky who have applied for education or job-training benefits provided by the government actually have entered into any type of training program, the Veterans Administration reports.
 Officials at the VA's tri-state Branch Office in Columbus, O., said 65,628 applications for education or job-training have been approved, while 48.5 per cent, or 294,106 veterans, have taken advantage of their benefits.

Education and job-training benefits are available to eligible World War II veterans under provisions of the G.I. Bill and the Vocational Rehabilitation Act.

Of Ohio's 770,000 World War II veterans, 325,688 have been approved for training benefits and 150,000 actually have commenced training courses.

In Michigan, 184,471 of the states' 564,000 World War II veterans have been approved for training and 105,000 have started training programs.

Of Kentucky's 710,850 World War II veterans, 95,769 have made application and have been approved for training, while 38,147 have entered into training courses.

VA ADVISES VETS ON ARMED FORCE STUDY
 Any correspondence or self-teaching courses which veterans may have taken while in the armed forces through the U.S. Armed Forces Institute or University Extension Correspondence Courses, or courses taken under the Army Education Program, do not reduce in any way the amount of education to which they may be entitled under the G.I. Bill.

Officials at the Veterans Administration Branch Office in Columbus, O., said that such courses indubitably earned veterans definite credits which may be applied on any course they may take as veterans under the G.I. Bill.

VA OPERATES CANTEN SERVICE IN HOSPITALS
 The Veterans Administration now is operating its own canteen service

In each of the nine VA hospitals in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky, it was announced this week by Dale C. Cummings, chief of the Canteen Service for the tri-state Branch Office in Columbus, Ohio.

VA operation of the canteens was authorized last August by Congress, which provided a $400,000 revolving fund to finance the program. Until taken over by VA, the canteens were operated by private concessionaires under contract with VA. An operator of the canteen service was consummated recently with the opening of new canteens in the hospitals at Dayton, Mich., and Owsouth, Ky. Other VA hospitals having canteens are those at Port Chester, Mich., Cleveland, Dayton, Berea, and Cincinnati, Ohio, and Lexington and Louisville, Ky. VA also will operate a canteen at Ft. Thomas, Ky., when the new medical rehabilitation center there is opened.

VA operated its canteens along lines of the army PXs and the navy ship stores. Veteran patients may purchase at reasonable prices tobacco products, toilet articles, miscellaneous food items such as sandwiches, light meals, soda and soft drinks, and the services provided by barber and beauty shops, tailor shops and soda fountains.

Special orders and a special shipping service for items of necessity are provided for bedridden patients. Sales in hospitals are limited to hospitalized veterans, their friends and relatives who visit them, employees and members of their families who live at the stations. Sales to other persons are restricted at the stations are limited to items for consumption or use on the premises.

Profits are kept at a minimum and any that accrue are turned over to the U. S. Treasury. VA's canteen service does not compete with private small businesses in the communities where VA hospitals are located. Congressional authorization restricts sales and provides for constant supervision and inspection to prevent abuses.

VA RULES ON JOBLESS PAY FOR STUDENT VETS
 Veterans who have been attending school under the G.I. Bill may not use unemployment allowances as summer vacation pay between school terms. VA officials emphasized recently.

VA officials pointed out that only veterans actively seeking and willing to accept any suitable work may legally receive unemployment allowances. Even then, veterans are not eligible for unemployment pay during any period for which they receive subsistence allowances under the educational and training provisions of the G.I. Bill.

VA officials said that veterans remaining in school during the summer will continue to receive subsistence allowances, but payments are stopped for those who interrupt their studies during the summer months.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
 Q. I am a widow of a World War II veteran and want to buy a home. Can I obtain a guaranty loan from VA?
 A. No. The privilege is limited to veterans of World War II.

Q. Can I obtain a guaranteed loan to purchase household furnishings?
 A. No.
 Q. Can I go to school under the G.I. Bill while I am taking on-the-job training under the Act?
 A. Yes, you can go to school under the G.I. Bill while you are taking on-the-job training. If the school course is determined to be related to the on-the-job course, the government will pay your tuition.

Q. Will the government pay for tools and other equipment while I am taking on-the-job training under the G.I. Bill?
 A. Yes, if the tools are necessary for the successful pursuit and completion of the course of training and are required by all trainees.

Q. I have been informed that my pension will be reduced in 60 days. What can I do to prevent this reduction?
 A. You may submit additional evidence to show the reduction is not warranted.

Q. Must I show that I have had experience in business to get a guaranty loan for business purposes?
 A. The law provides "that ability and experience of the veteran, and the conditions under which he proposes to pursue such business or occupation, are such that there is a reasonable likelihood he will be successful."

VA Representative To Skip Wayland Visit
 It was announced this week by Estel L. McKinney, officer in charge of the Veterans Administration contact office here, that Donald K. Beverly, district contact representative, will not visit the Wayland contact office in accordance with the regular schedule on Aug. 7. Unless announced otherwise, his usual visits on the first and third Thursdays of each month will be resumed August 21.

 7-24-2. HENRY STEPHENS, JR.

To the Voters of the 29th Senatorial District:

In this my first race for a political office, I have tried to see and talk to as many people as possible concerning the governmental affairs and concerning legislation which will be beneficial to our country, and YOU the people have assured me that in this great country of ours there is still in us a spirit of progress and achievement.

Many years of my life have been spent in preparing myself for service to my country. I attended Casey Junior College and then graduated from Morehead State Teachers College, and I have taught for eight years. I recently completed my legal training of the University of Kentucky Law School after an interruption of almost three years which were given in the service of my country during World War II.

My opponents have been very silent on any form of a program to offer the people, and seem to be "floating around like a ship without a rudder and without any purpose or goal of achievement.

I have submitted to the people a program advancement of Education, Labor and road building, and of good clean government. I stand for cheap electricity to our people, and my opponent, Doug Hays, voted for a "ripper" bill which would deny the extension and expansion of rural electrification and is now asking for re-election so he may once more vote against the interests of the people.

My program consists of the following: (1) extension and expansion of rural electrification; (2) a nine-month school term with an increase in teachers' salary and teachers' retirement fund; increased appropriations to our rural highways to be handled by the fiscal courts; (4) a program of reasonable legislation for the veterans; (5) increased appropriations to the Welfare Department.

As for Labor, I am for, with and a part of labor and the laboring people of this section are my people, and this is the only sensible stand any man could take. My opponent, Doug Hays, talks of his labor stand, but he also should tell the people who work in the mines of the royalties that he receives from coal which he did not own, but through his close associations with Tom Raymond in getting the contract, he receives a royalty. Might his vote in the Senate have been responsible for this? I stand for an increase in appropriations for mine inspections and for an increase in Workmen's Compensation to take care of the permanently disabled and injured, and I will fight for any other reasonable legislation for labor. I will not run to the front offices of the operators and try to serve two masters as my opponent is now doing. As you all know, if Labor had endorsed Doug Hays, you the miners would be the first to know, and this late hour, neither Tom Ransy or Sam Caddy have made any statement, and they DO NOT intend to endorse Doug Hays, regardless of how much he and the worn-out telegram that was sent him in 1946.

I have discussed the issues of this campaign with many of you, and it is heartening to know that as an independent voting people you are interested in the welfare of our country.

May God give you strength to go to the polls and vote with knowledge and wisdom for the best interests of your country.

Yours for better government,
 (Pol. adv.) CORDELL MARTIN

 To get "Something for Nothing"

The railroads have received 44 "rules" demands from the leaders of the operating unions . . . representing engineers, firemen, conductors, trainmen and switchmen. They say they are seeking only changes in working conditions—none a wage increase.

More Money For Less Work
 But what kind of rules are being asked for? Twenty-eight of them would compel railroads to pay more money for the same, or less work; 7 would require additional and unnecessary men to do the same work; the rest would bring about changes in operating practices at increased cost.

For Instance:
 The Union leaders demand additional train and engine crews on Diesel-powered trains—one full crew for every power unit in the locomotive. A freight train hauled by a 4-unit Diesel would have to carry 4 engineers, 4 firemen, 4 conductors, and at least 20 men, or a total of 29 men instead of 8.

"Made Work"—Sheer Waste
 The Union leaders demand that full-length freight trains be cut to about half their length, even though such trains are most efficient for low-cost service to you. This rule would call for twice as many locomotives, would double the number of trains, and make accidents more likely.

Additional equipment, yards, and other facilities required to take care of these short trains would cost hundreds of millions. What the Union leaders really want is to make more jobs.
 The Union leaders demand that when a crew in one class of service performs incidental service of another class, they will be paid not less than a day's pay for each class, even though all service is performed as a part of the same day's

The crew would get at least two days' pay for one day's work.
 The Union leaders demand that the present basic day for passenger conductors and trainmen be reduced from 150 to 100 miles, which would have the effect of increasing their pay 50%. Such a run often takes only two or three hours!

You Can't Afford This Waste
 Demands like these are against the interests of the whole American people, who depend on railroad service for nearly everything they eat, wear and use.

These rules would cost a BILLION DOLLARS annually—a gigantic waste which neither the railroads nor the country can afford.
 Railroad workers are good citizens and good employees, with pride in their calling. Their record during the war was outstanding. We do not believe they fully understand the "featherbed" rules which the Union leaders are demanding. We do not believe they understand the harmful results which these rules would have to the railroad industry, to the millions of men and women dependent on railroads for their livelihood, and to the shipping and consuming public.

The great strength of America is in production—an honest day's work for an honest day's pay.

For only through greater production can we hope to stop the steady upward surge of living costs.

Surely, if ever there was a time in our history when we needed to work, not waste, this is it.

WILLIAM HITE MARTIN
 FOR STATE SENATOR
 To the Voters of Floyd County:

I am in this race to win!

I am the son of Leck Martin and Kate Estep Martin, of Garrettsville. I married the daughter of Grover Stephens and Minta Dingus Stephens, of Martin, Ky., and have two sons, one 11 years of age, the other nine years, who must be educated, and this I intend to do.

Every veteran of all wars is called to action! What do my opponents offer you? One has about half-way agreed to vote for a $500 bonus, I say to you veterans, if he should get the full amount of this—is it enough? Where is their political wisdom? Every fair-minded veteran knows that an inevitable consequence would reduce this amount by half. Why not ask for enough in the beginning—say, twice that amount?

Veterans, the old line of politicians in Prestonsburg and vicinity are doing everything in their power to drive a wedge in the ranks of Floyd county veterans. This must not happen! Remember, I have a veteran for an opponent. While I was in the Southwest Pacific holding a rifle, Doug was in Frankfort holding a rouser. Remember seeing his pictures in all the papers in the State? Just remember, veterans, you can vote for Doug any time, because he runs every time. Personally, I have voted for Doug ever since I have been a voter. Most of you can say the same thing.

As for my other opponent, may I ask on what foreign soil did he eat the dust and dirt of a smoking battlefield? None! The most of his career as a soldier was spent in and around Washington, D. C. The political stunts were heading out from some source. Most of you know the old source and game.

Now, veterans, I am the only overseas veteran asking for this office. Therefore, you help send me to Frankfort and yours and my rights will be the utmost of my ability be taken care of at all times.

No civil-minded person would fail in doing and supporting to the utmost of his ability all the points either of my opponents has offered you. I'm not making a lot of flaming promises, not knowing whether I can or can't get them through. I have merely tried to show you that I am more deserving than either of my opponents.

For 17 years I have earned a living for my family in the dry cleaning business, which comes almost solely from the miners and their families. All of my life, except while I was in the service, I have lived in a mining community. I have always supported labor and always will. Why shouldn't I? There has never been a labor mark against me nor against my father before me. And there never will be. Every laboring man that knows me will tell you that this is true.

I call on the rank and file of all labor to go out on Aug. 2 and cast their votes for a man who will protect them if given a chance.

Your friend,
 WILLIAM HITE MARTIN

Louisville Man New Legion Head

The Kentucky American Legion convention chose John F. Hagner, of Louisville, state commander to succeed W. E. Shelton, Jr., of Mayfield.

The selection of Hagner, first Louisville man to head the state Legion since 1936, was a feature of the convention's closing business session Wednesday.

Members of the Legion refused to approve resolutions advocating anti-Communist measures and admission into the country of displaced Europeans.

The anti-Communist proposal called for scrutinizing the loyalty of all persons employed by schools receiving federal aid and to "emphasize that the search for truth by educators does not include Communist domination by Soviet Russia."

Carl Constock, of Allen, and Jailer Everett Collins attended the convention as delegates from Floyd County.

Nine homemakers clubs in Nicholas county report a membership of 240 women.

ATTENTION!

We urge all dry voters to go to the polls on Aug. 2 remembering that the names of Doug Hays and Bill Biggers appeared on that letter written to the teachers of this county soliciting them to vote wet. Do you want this kind of influence over your children? Both of these men voted wet in the Legislature and supported a bill to nullify Local Option, which would leave the entire state wet. That would have been the law in this state, but for the veto of the Governor.

Ray Allen and Cordell Martin are to be dry.

BANNER

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, Sr., entertain their son, Fred, Jr., and their daughter, Mrs. Lucy Marie Kinzer, of Allen, with a joint birthday dinner Sunday afternoon, July 13. Dinner was served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hayes and children, Mrs. Mary Spradlin and daughters, Miss Liza Stewart, Miss Eleanor Loveday, Tom Miller, Sam Tracker, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, Sr., and son, Jack, Mrs. Lucy Kinzer, Fred Miller, Jr., Mrs. Josephine Pulliam and Dr. Den Wedding. Following the dinner the guests danced and played cards.

Outshining thousands of girls, Wendell Straghton, 17-year-old Ordham county boy, is 4-FH club champion of Kentucky. He enrolled in the canning project five years ago because he said he wanted to make his work more interesting. As his mother helped in the field, Wendell helps her by doing the family canning. The 1400 grams he earned from his own garden last year was more than the family needed, and so he gave 235 cents to a school lunchroom and 200 cents to a hospital and an orphanage.
