A-SALIN' WE GO

I was all for this Salt River Special business until I learned Shikepoke or somebody had designated me skipper of the Cooper boat. After that, I wasn't so keen about the matter, what with fishing right from that section none too favorable. But, with Leonard Martin as navigator and Willie Clark as chief cook, the voyage was not too rough. We argued a bit over my votes for Truman and Perkins, but nobody was thrown in chains, so all was well—well!

Up at Martin the following schedule for the "Special" was prominently displayed on the windows of well-known Republicans' best places and homes:

SALT RIVER SPECIAL

The following schedule of departure of boats for Salt River will prevail:

Boat Supporters: Boat leaves 2 p.m. in charge: Glenn Spradlin, D. P. Dugas, navigator; Mann Preston, chief cook.

Cooper Supporters: Boat leaves 3 p.m. in charge: Lawrence Kentzley, Kessie Acker, navigator; Max Bentley, chief cook.

Dred-in-Wool Republicans: Boat leaves 7 p.m. in charge: A. E. Osborne, Lewis Dugas, navigator; E. C. Slade, chief cook. Taxis Flavier, assistant cook; Mark Elwick, kitchen help.

Moxy: Heaver Soup—let-off chicken from 1922 campaign.

Music: Missouri Waltz by Harry Truman in radio broadcast.

Program: Investigation of Gallup Polls conducted by Special Investigators from Washington now in Kentucky.

Anti-Truman Speech by John L. Lewis or Shikepoke.

Pop-Talks for election four years hence: A. B. Osborne, Glenn Spradlin, E. C. Slade.

Martin boats will be supplied through courtesy of Perkins supporters.

HILL, CORNETT IN NEW COURT

Contempt Fines Levied In Hill Stirs Circuit

The Martin circuit court had a new judge this week and the acts of the first two days were considered the talk of the town.

When Judge Richard P. Hill got Monday's opening-day program out of the way, he expected to get down to cases Tuesday. Several cases were tried, the attorney for the defendant in each case was present, but not so the defendants. Of witnesses Tuesday morning, there was only one. Tuesday afternoon, the court witnessed in an adultery case rudeness and tardily appeared.

Judge Hill began cracking down on truant witnesses with contempt fines.

That's what started folk talking. They hadn't been used to such a court. But, on the whole, Martin counts were glad the new judge meant business. As the word spreads, prompt appearance of all parties to trials is expected.

Judge Hill and Commonwealth's Attorney John Chris Cornett opened the Legislature's 1948 re-districting act which separated Floyd and Knott counties and Martin with Floyd in the first judicial district. The term will continue as started unless the Court of Appeals holds the act unconstitutional.

Two murder cases are docketed for trial during the term.

MISSING SPAN WRECK CAUSE

Hallow'en Pranksters Remove Barricade; One Killed, Six Are Hurt

Loss of one life and the injury of seven other persons was traced this week to a gap in the Melvin-Weeksburg road where a bridge has been cut for several months.

Ben Hurt, retired Weeksburg miner, was fatally injured Oct. 29 and his brother Barbara suffered a broken arm when their car was driven into the gap where the bridge had been. This was followed last Sunday night by a wreck from the same car in which six persons reported injured and a new Chevrolet badly damaged.

The car was a barricade had been placed across the highway near the missing span but Hallow'en pranksters had removed it, leaving no warning to motorists of the danger.

A fill over drain pipe is now in use as a detour.

Both the county and state drew criticism from Weeksburg and Martin for their failure to replace the span. The bridge broke down last summer because the weight of a bulldozer told that county officials here had been promised replacement of the bridge by the state which has contracted to maintain it in the future, according to the county.

Weeksburg said, "They should have built it themselves before now."

County Judge W. Davidson said the county has entered into a contract for the state highway department for the state to build a bridge immediately to be used in conjunction with the county paying 40 per cent of the cost. At the time the contract was made the state agreed to begin work immediately.

Most seriously hurt of the six injured in Sunday night's car-wreck was 16-year-old Martine Bartley, who is in the Beaver Valley hospital, suffering a broken thigh.

Richard Blackwell, 21, was dismissed from the hospital Monday after receiving treatment for a broken arm.

JUDGE'S PAY IN MIX-UP

Hatcher Says Delay In Extra Pay Caused By Lack of Notice

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 6.—Payment of $100 monthly expense allowances to the judges of the circuit court was delayed because of a mix-up in the office of the Secretary of State, it was reported today.

George Glenn Hatcher, Secretary of State, said his office was told to "take the first thing on Monday." State officials generally are closed on Saturdays.

By arrangement with the Finance Department, Hatcher's office prepares monthly payroll for circuit judges and commonwealth's attorneys. Hatcher said today his office did not know until a few days ago that it also would have to compute the expense allowances.

Hatcher said he had received "no official notice" of the action of the State court of Appeals upholding the extra pay on October 15. He issued a mandate ordering the expense allowances paid.

The new law became effective August 24. Hatcher said he had received the mandate on October 15. He issued a mandate ordering the expense allowances paid.

But Hatcher explained this will call for an examination of records in his office to determine how much each judge will receive. Some new judges have received their pay since March 24 and some judges may have resigned or died, he added.

In addition, Hatcher said he had no official notification of whether Federal income taxes should be withheld from the expense allowances. He said he understood the expense allowances would be paid.

Do We Know How To 'Scratch'— Answer in Election Returns

All doubt that the voters of Floyd county know how to "scratch" or answer in election returns was dispelled by results of last week's election.

A comparison of the vote totals makes this evident, but to look the vote by precincts emphasizes the certainty that the Floyd county voters are reverently how to cross from one party to the other.

The vigorous opinion vote exception to almost every claim set out by the company, it declared, in effect, had been made by the county, the sufficient and that a 12 per cent increase was unwarranted.

The big rate of earnings are realized throughout the Bell System, the opinion said, "American Telephone & Telegraph Co. continue to meet its debt demands, pay dividends, and generally augment its surplus." Southern Bell is entirely owned by A.T.&T.

In practically every precinct of the county's 84 Chapman road behind the company's candidate continued. "But one of the functions of this commission is to guard the public against such..."

Raging flames, discovered at 1:30 a.m. this morning (Friday) resulted in an estimated $200,000.00 in the business section of Martin, 15 miles from here.

JUDGES MAY MAKE RULING DURING WEEK

The Eastern Kentucky judicial redistricting bill—described by those opposing it as the "Evins-Turner bill," designed to create for the Jackson friend of Governor Earle C. Clements a circuit judge—was attacked before the Court of Appeals Friday as unconstitutional on four specific counts.

The Appellate Court is expected to make a final decision in the case this week.

Oral arguments against the legislation were made by Commonwealth Attorney John Chris Cornett, of the 31st judicial district, and Joe Hobson, Prestonsburg attorney.

The redistricting legislation is unconstitutional, they argued, they argued, on these points:

1. It provides that Commonwealth's Attorneys and Circuit Judges not residing in the new district boundaries may move into the new district at any time before the expiration of their terms of office, whereas the Constitution demands that such judges should be re-elected to office. It was contended, the legislature would not have passed the bill.

2. The bill, becoming effective June 7, 1948, cancelled the regular June term of the Knott circuit court, making possible only two court terms in that county this year. Section 131 of the Constitution provides that there shall be at least three terms of circuit court in every county every year.

3. The redistricting bill provides a continuous session for the Boyd circuit court at Ashland, with no provision for court at Catlettsburg, the county seat. This is in violation of the Constitutional provision that at least three terms of circuit court be held in each county.

4. The bill fails to change the districts with due regard to territory, business and population as provided by the Constitution. Except for the amount to special legislation, in violation of the Constitutional provision that at least three terms of circuit court be held in each county.

It was admitted, however, courts of continuous session in Knott, Kenton and Campbell counties. It was contended, but litigants may demand trial at the county seat, whereas in the Boyd case no such right is granted by the redistricting bill.

The bill fails to change the districts with due regard to territory, business and population as provided by the Constitution. Except for the amount to special legislation, in violation of the Constitutional provision that at least three terms of circuit court be held in each county.

Hi-Ho, Mister! Down at the courthouse the other day a couple of fellows were still arguing about the election. Seems they couldn't agree on nothing, except when it came time for dinner and they went over to a hamburger joint to get a piece of Silver Mist apple pie. No trouble getting together on that! One of those Arkansas apples costing twice and that Silver Mist crust still had as crisp as a brand new dollar bill and they were friends again. That's what good food does for folks.

Make 'em forget their troubles. If the old man in your house is grouchy as a flea-bitten bear, try the Silver Mist treatment. Serve him plenty of good tasting pies and biscuits and cakes made out of that Silver Mist Flour with honest goodness flour, and you'll have him flirting with you like he did in your courtin' days. No foolin'. Stuff mixed with Silver Mist Flour just naturally tastes better. Why don't you buy some.

Si

(That's short for Silver, Mister)

NEVER FORGET THE 72. This is the only flour that makes the top. If you don't buy Silver Mist Flour, I don't advise you to bake!

OF INTEREST TO VETERANS

Documentary evidence of dependency should be submitted to Veterans Administration immediately by veterans with disability ratings of 60 per cent or more in order that they may qualify for increased compensation payments. Public Law 877 of the 80th Congress provides additional allowances for such disabled veterans who have a wife, children or dependent parents. The married veteran may receive up to $21 extra.

with added amounts for additional dependents.
Veterans whose dependents are recorded in their VA claims folders as of September 1, 1948, will have until December 1 to file their evidence. These awards will be retroactive to September 1, the effective date of the law. Otherwise, the effective date of the increase will be the date of receipt of the evidence.
As evidence of a wife and child, a veteran may submit certified copies of public or church records. If for any reason these are not available, he should submit the best evidence at hand, such as sworn statements of responsible persons. For parents, proof of dependency in the form of sworn statements as to income and property ownership are required.

The first G.I. Bill deadline is not far away. Veterans Administration said this week.
Veterans discharged before July 25, 1947, have only until July 25, 1949, to apply for readjustment allowances for unemployment and re-employment.
G.I.'s discharged after the 1947 date have until two years after discharge.

Q. My son was disabled during World War II. Will VA pay him an additional sum for dependents?
A. If your son is rated 60 per cent or more disabled he is entitled to an additional sum for his dependents.

Spurlock's Food Service Serves Chicken

Sixty-five of the 82 employees of Spurlock's Food Service, Inc., were present for the chicken dinner given on the evening of Oct. 16 at the Brown hotel here by the company. Other guests of Spurlock's for the occasion were employees' wives. The company is the section's largest distributor of dairy and bakery products.

during July and August." Defenders of the act asserted it was constitutional and declared the only complaints against it are "based on personal grievances, technicalities and trivialities." The case came before the Court of Appeals from the Franklin circuit court where it was upheld.

The 1948 General Assembly in making Boyd's separate judicial district with a circuit court of continuous session at Ashland, changed the setup in five other nearby judicial districts, including the 21st. That made an additional circuit judge necessary and Governor Earle Clements appointed Turner, chief clerk of the 1948 State Senate, to the new 39th district, Breathitt, Powell and Wolfe counties. Douglas Graham, also of Jackson, was appointed Commonwealth's Attorney. Both men were elected last Tuesday to their posts without opposition.

In addition to the new 39th district, the changes shifted other counties as follows: 24th district, Johnson and Lawrence; 26th, Clark, Jessamine and Madison; 31st, Floyd and Martin; 32nd, Boyd only, and 36th, Knott and Magoffin.

Under the shift of counties from one district to another, Cornett will have to move from Knott to either Floyd or Martin, and Clark from Martin to Johnson or Lawrence.

agreed, but the meeting was, in its later stages, far from amicable. The differences started with Magistrate G. C. Burchett's motion, seconded by Magistrate Dewey Roberts, directing that Pat Bentley, who has been employed by the court as a truck driver, be notified that, effective Nov. 15, his employment will be terminated. The order on the County Clerk's record pointed out that his discharge was made for the reason that his services are not required during the winter months. Magistrates John May and Harry Stumbo did not vote on the measure. County Judge Davidson did, along with Burchett and Roberts, saying "That is one document I want my name on."

Thereupon Magistrate May offered a motion to the effect that Mrs. Alta Davidson and Mrs. Nerde Burchett, employed as secretaries in the offices, respectively, of the County Judge and County Attorney, be discharged. The motion died for lack of a second.

Magistrate May said, in making the motion, "You fellows fired Pat Bentley to save money. Now, ask the county some money by getting rid of Mrs. Davidson and Mrs. Burchett."

Before all that, the court employed Woodrow Fitzpatrick as a bulldozer operator at a salary of $300 a month.

A resolution also was adopted authorizing the purchase from R. L. Gardner of outstanding Floyd county road and bridge bonds to a par value of $50,400 and a 2 1/2 per cent yield basis.

A. W. COX DEPARTMENT STORES CELEBRATE 38TH ANNIVERSARY

Thirty-eight years of successful service to the public under one continuous management is the record reached this week by the 12 A. W. Cox Department Stores operating in West Virginia and Kentucky. And in celebration of this milestone, the Cox Stores have planned an outstanding merchandising event in their 38th anniversary sale which starts Friday, November 12, in all 12 of the Cox Stores.

The history and success of the Cox Stores starts with a modest bargain store in Clendenin, W. Va., in 1910 with A. W. Cox and one other partner in the store. Founded on the determination to combine lower prices with a personal, friendly service, the small store immediately prospered and became the civic leader.

With success in the background, Mrs. Cox moved into the Charleston shopping area when he had the opportunity to buy out the George Ort store. The present Capitol street location became the second A. W. Cox Department Store in 1914, and its continuing success is well-known. In those days before West Virginia had good roads, customers came from far and wide by horse and buggy and by train from up and down the Kanawha and Elk rivers. Good service, travel facilities and the good news of the friendliness and merchandise values offered by Cox's became common knowledge throughout the trading area.

Continuing its natural growth with the neighborhood, the Cox Department Store next opened a store in St. Albans, W. Va., just a short distance from Charleston, and the fourth unit was a jump into Boone county to the county seat town of Madison. And around this nucleus, the group of 12 modern shopping centers grew to include Bluefield, Nitro, Williamson, Parkersburg, Ton and Welch, W. Va., and then into Palmito, Virginia and Prestonsburg, Kentucky.

With 38 years of experience, the Cox Department Stores are happy to take stock of their progress and feel that over West Virginia and Eastern Kentucky they number their friends in the many thousands. It's the desire not only to bring honest, helpful merchandise in a friendly, helpful manner that Cox's is proud of. In this modern day of hustle, bustle and hurry, too many people and stores take things for granted. Cox's prides itself on serving a personal interest in helping each customer in a helpful manner.

Today, in 1948, it's interesting to check a few facts against 38 years ago. In 1910, Mr. A. W. Cox had one employee besides himself. Today this modern group of stores employs 800. That first year of operation the Clendenin store had a volume of $28,000; today this group sales in excess of five million. The Cox Stores have their own New York office located at 33 West 37th Street, with buyers who constantly shop the markets for all that's new and smart, and at the lowest prices. Thousands upon thousands of customers now through the third generation make the Cox Department Stores their shopping headquarters, day after day.

Legal Control of Students By Teachers Stated

Frankfort, Ky. (Sp.)—Assistant Attorney General W. Owen Keller, in answering requests for opinions, ruled this week that school teachers have control over pupils in classrooms during recesses, intermissions and en route to and from school. Keller informed Luther D. Hill, of Disputanta.

Keller also advised H. M. Hamm, Route 3, Rubank, that a school superintendent can not deduct dues for local, state or national organizations from a teacher's pay over a teacher's property.

He likewise informed Spencer County Superintendent L. C. Winchester that schools must pay their share of floodwall costs because it involves direct protection of property.

Seven-Year-Old Boy Ready for 5th Grade

Pupils in the Porter school, near Lackey, have been getting only fleeting glimpses of seven-year-old Larry Glenn Triplett as he sits from grade to grade.

Last year, he started out at the age of six in the first grade. As of a few weeks ago he was in the fourth grade. And, said his teacher, Miss Eleanor Stone, he will soon be ready for the fifth.

Larry Glenn was not unacquainted with books when he entered school; his mother, widow of Lawrence Triplett, had encouraged him in his natural bent for learning till he was well ahead of the ordinary pupil when he first entered school. "He was so good in the other grades, his teachers didn't keep him in them very long," she explained.

He makes "straight A's" in all his subjects, but likes reading best of all. Although a sensitive child and inclined to shy, he gets along with other children as well as he does with his books and takes the ordinary boy's time out for play at all childhood games.

Larry Glenn is a nephew of Prof. Inhamel Triplett, of Lexington, former superintendent of Prestonsburg schools.

Cats Defeat Wayland, 13-7; Prep for Paintsville Game

SPORTS AFIELD

By TED KESTING

We've just come across a fine new club called the "Drop on the End of the Nose Association." We were introduced to this group by Gordon MacQuarrie, journalist and author of many outdoor articles.

Members are dedicated to supporting the cause of the sportsman's taken-for-granted friend—the common or wool-bearing sheep.

For years science reporters have been hinting that researchers are about to come up with something "better than wool." Well, maybe. But they haven't yet and the DENA doesn't think they will. The sheep family is still royalty and there's just no substitute for wool—especially on those late dusk season days when there's a fast north wind.

There are sportsmen who "can't wear wool next to my skin—makes me itchy." In most cases this is just a phobia, and if they really do itch, what's wrong with scratching? You may be eradic, but you'll be warm and comfortable.

Basic garments for cold-weather sports start with underwear which is all-wool, spring needle knit, with full length sleeves and legs, and a high neckline. Suit yourself whether it shall be the two-piece outfit or the union suit.

Now and then a store will come up with the old-fashioned two-piece red flannels, but don't be fooled by the light-weight kind used by many skiers. It's a good idea to wear a pair about four sizes bigger than your true size.

The well-selected man of rod and gun wears wool on his feet, often during both summer and winter.

If your enthusiasm for wool includes jackets, pants, mitts, caps, etc., the question arises: "How do you keep the moths out?"

The answer: Assign one closet in the house as the wool closet. Clean, sun and air all woollens thoroughly, hang or stack them away in this closet. Now, hang up as many cans of naphthalene as you can afford.

It comes under various trade names, but somewhere on the container you'll find the real name. The crystals will in time evaporate and fill the closet with a fragrant moth-repelling odor. Come cold weather, your flannels will still be "all" wool.

Garrett High Downs Highly-Rated Vicco By 57 to 43 Score

By CARL HIGGINS

Garrett, Ky., Nov. 8.—The Garrett High football team defeated a highly rated Vicco five Saturday night, 57-43. The Devils led throughout the game as they racked up their second consecutive win in as many starts.

The first half was a thrilling one as the score was very close through-out. Superior shooting, however, gave Garrett a 25-17 half-time lead.

At the opening of the third quarter Vicco rallied to draw within two points of the Devils as the scoreboard indicated a score of 25-23. Three minutes later Garrett also rallied to increase their lead as they finished the third quarter ahead, 37 to 23. During the fourth quarter the Devils' aim continued to improve as they continued to shoot from every position of the floor and at one time led by 19 points. Coach Frady substituted freely in the final two minutes and at this point Vicco capitalized on the inexperience of the second five to tally a few baskets and draw within 14 points of Garrett, only to be stopped by time.

Guard James Mullins and forward Jack Patrick led the winners with 19 and 14 points, respectively, followed closely by Little Coyet Bolen with 10 markers and Jack Stone with 8. Noble was high scorer for the losers with 12 points.

The next scheduled game is with Betsy Layne at Betsy Layne Saturday night of this week.

No. 2 Derby Hound

The Ployd county grid championship tucked securely beneath their belts by virtue of their 13-7 victory Saturday night at Wayland, the Prestonsburg Black Cats turned their full attention to preparing for their annual battle with their traditional athletic foe, the Paintsville Tigers, under the lights here Friday evening.

This game Friday night is the game of the season for both counties. Time was, and it may not be past even yet, when victory in this encounter meant more for the two teams than all other games of the season.

But Prestonsburg has something else at stake in this season-closing game. To hold onto a share of the Big Sandy Conference title the Cats must lick Paintsville. They currently are in a tie with Fleming for loop honors.

Although Paintsville has had one of its worst gridiron seasons, with only one victory and a tie game, the Cats have never been counted out when Prestonsburg is the foe. Anything can happen in this game, and usually does.

In the game at Wayland Coach Ted Benedict uncovered in the person of big Mike Horn a powerhouse at the fullback position, and it was this terrific line-plunging wheel that cutbated heavily to Wayland's downfall.

In a scoreless first quarter, Prestonsburg drew first blood in the second period when Willis, Black Cat, intercepted a Wasps pass while standing near the goal line and dashed 98 yards for a touchdown. The conversion attempt failed.

The Wasps' fighting like mad horses, came back with a surge and late in the same quarter scored from the 30 on a play starting out as a double reverse and winding up as a touchdown pass. The try for extra point was good and at halftime Wayland led, 7-0.

The Cats came back in the third quarter with Horn on the rampage. After his 90-yard run for a touchdown had been called back on a clipping penalty to the Wayland 40, he went over for one that counted in five plays. A third scoring run by Horn was also nullified by a decision by the officials.

In the matter of first downs Wayland probably held an edge, with Prestonsburg's seven successes in fumbling while on the march and with the Wasps recovering each time. The Wayland team recovered five fumbles.

A big crowd saw the contest, the first meeting of the two teams, and both schools expressed the hope that the inter-county gridiron rivalry will be continued.

For the Paintsville game the Cats are still far below their best projected form, with the injured list including Boyd who has not seen action since the Lottina game, Durham, Wheeler, Branham, Ed Ball, Tom Spradlin and Doug Hyden.

Saturday night's was Wayland's last game of the season.

Lonnie Herald, of Cow Creek, has for some time been arguing that his hound, Rowdy Haggin, is the best deroed dog in these parts, and not long ago he got an able second to that claim.

Judged at the Central Kentucky Foxhounds' Association bench show at Carlisle declared Herald's the second best derby dog among all those shown there.

And during that week's field trial Rowdy Haggin bumped up against dogs nationally known to breeders and foxhunters. Some of these were Kentucky dogs, others came from as far away as Oklahoma and Texas, with 13 states represented in all.

Only 13-months-old, and a son of national championship hounds, Rowdy Haggin is going places, here on out, Herald predicts.

Auxier Swamps Blaine In First Tilt of Year

The Auxier Horseshoers won their first game since the season of 1946-47 by defeating Blaine High school at Auxier last Wednesday night, 60 to 35. Although losing three of its first five players in the first half on personal fouls, Auxier came through with an easy victory. Auxier led more points at half-time than it scored in any whole game last year. The score at the half being 41 to 25.

Homeport, Auxier's six-foot-two center, sparked the Hornets with 24 points. Clarence Wilson, Hal, and Wilcox also did remarkable shooting and ball handling. Bill Wells, Paul Hays and William Hoyer, who made up the second string, showed their ability as hot players.

Community Hybrid Corn Show In Progress Here

A community hybrid corn show featuring some of the best corn grown in the surrounding area this year is now in progress at the Prestonburg Farm & Home Store, Southern States Cooperative service agency.

Open to farmers, Future Farmers of America and 4-H Club members who used Southern States Hybrid seed last spring, the show will be judged Dec. 4 by an impartial local agricultural worker. An entry consists of three ears and must be placed on exhibit by Nov. 22.

Southern States hybrid corn, along with blue, red and white ribbons, will be awarded winners in the show. First-place entries will compete in a district show in January. The cooperative is planning eight district shows throughout the six-state area of Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, West Virginia, Kentucky and northeastern Tennessee.

Delaware has the lowest elevation of any state in the union; its surface, if leveled, would be only 90 feet above the sea.

BETSY LAYNE

The Betsy Layne P.-T.A. was off to a fine start last Monday night as a large group gathered. Group meetings are enjoyed and the national P.-T.A. by-laws were presented by the president, Mrs. Beecher Hatfield, and were voted upon and accepted. It is felt that this will be one of the best years for our P.-T.A. because it is good to be guided by a state and national organization.

The Betsy Layne Woman's Club met at the home of Mrs. W. P. Howell, Nov. 4. The program, "Our American Heritage," was conducted by Mrs. Howell, the president, in the absence of the regular program leader. Interesting articles based on the history of our country were given by several members of the club with the salute to the flag as the climax. During the business session it was decided to send Christmas stockings to one of the veterans' hospitals in the state. Plans were made for the annual Christmas party.

Members who attended the district convention at Pikeville, Oct. 30, gave reports of the meeting. The Betsy Layne Club won second place for its report of the year's work which was written as a poem by Mrs. Jack Williams.

Eight people could be seated at a table in 4120 different ways.

Remember?
Remember the Thanksgiving dinners of years ago—and how big a part water played? Excited youngsters to scrub before the meal . . . mountains of dishes to do afterward. Water for cooking, water for laundry—lots of water. . . .
Not much of this has changed. A farm still needs plenty water . . . more, perhaps, than ever before. But on the most profitable farms today, water is pumped—and heated electrically.
Electricity pumps the extra water that puts top-price poundage on stock, that make hens lay more eggs, cows give more milk. It will pump all the water a man could pump in a day—for any purpose—for about 2 cents. An electric water heating is economical, too.
Look into electric pumping and water heating. You'll be thankful you did.
