This Town... That World

A GREAT PATRIOT

If you think Spangman Rice is an old man who ought to be shot for wanting to fight on and to keep up fighting with him, ask yourself this:

What would our own Lincoln have done in our Civil War, had England, say, come in on the side of the North, leading up and down the land, killing and destroying, leaving the country a wasteland and a ruin? These are the questions of the business after while, decided to pull stakes, at the same time telling us to stammer down and leave the country divided?

No, the old gentleman is a great patriot, and our desire for peace shouldn't cause us to condemn him.

A COMMUNITY TRAGEDY

Had Prestonburg had a supervised swimming pool, two young lives in all probability would have been saved this week.

OPEN THE ESCAPE HATCH!

If a lizard or a rat ever gets loose in my car while I'm at the wheel, call the wrecker and a couple of ambulances. These are my pet phobias. Russell Husley's is something else.

Two weeks ago, he was out on the Abbott road and a member of the waxy family, the kind that was a poison-tipped spear for a caudal appendage, invaded the car he was driving. Instantly all passengers were in the auto, Husley decided the intruder had designs on him. He let go of the wheel and took a wild swing at the waxy.

Result: A crash over the bank and into a tree, car owned by County Clerk Duran Moore, a total loss.

OF FORTUNE AND STITCH

The political campaign, for all its heat, smoke of battle, chest-thumping, etcetera, has its lighter moments. For instance, there is the letter he has in which our correspondent writes:

Two Teen-Agers Drown In River Here, Tuesday

BOY'S EFFORT TO AID SISTER MADE IN VAIN

Muddy water hinders rescuers; bodies float on river shoal

Mary Alice Hicks, 15, and her 13-year-old brother, Patrick H. Hicks, were drowned in the Big Sandy river Wednesday afternoon. The boy's death was ascribed to his heroic efforts to save his sister after she had walked into a "rip-off" in the river, a short distance above where Trimble Branch empties into the Big Sandy.

The current was swift at the point where the water was muddied by the rushing water, and mud-diness of the water made the search for the two drowning victims very difficult. The boy's body was first sighted when the girl's, at the same time, were seen of the drowning.

The bodies were recovered about 30 minutes later. Boys fishing nearby heard their cries for help, and they notified police who arrived too late to locate the girls in the water.

Funeral rites for the brother and sister will be conducted Friday morning at 10 from the Preswitt Baptist Church here. The Rev. Chas. Rowe and W. H. Horn officiating. Burial will be in the Moore family cemetery on Middle Creek under direction of the Moore Funeral Home.

After solicitation by my friends and after long deliberation I have decided to enter the race for Jailer on the Democratic ticket. It was a matter of long deliberation as I have been engaged in the restaurant business in Prestonsburg but as I am a crippled man and have been so for 30 years it was very hard indeed for me to be on my feet several hours each day.

To you that know me I feel sure you think I will make a good Jailer. To you that do not know me I ask only that you check with my friends and neighbors. They are best informed as to my life and character. The campaign is far advanced and I intend to do my best to see you all in the meantime if I cannot do so my support you may give me will be deeply appreciated.

Thank you.

time to wait, it was explained, in view of the fact that the board has what it considers a good contract on construction of the building and that the contractor already had begun work when the financial impasse was reached.

The W. C. Thornburgh Company contract, as amended recently, calls for a commission on a bond issue of $5. Last week, when the bond issue was up for bids, the firm asked that the commission be raised to 6. Its bid on the bonds submitted jointly with eight other bond houses, asked 4 1/2 percent.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

ASKS NEWSPAPER COOPERATION

Three editorials have been printed during the last thirty days, two by the editor of the Floyd County Times and one by the editor of The Paintsville Herald.

I am not asking that you discontinue writing in support of the Dewey Lake State Park, but I believe that if you will support the directors of the Dewey Lake Park Association, a chance we will work for the betterment of all of Eastern Kentucky, and will continue a fight between Floyd and Johnson counties.

The board of directors of the Dewey Lake Park Association is composed of the following members: R. P. BOWMAN, Pike county; Frank Crum, Martin county; Woodrow Burchett, Floyd county; William A. Johnson, Johnson county; Robert V. May, Floyd county; John Gainer, Johnson county.

It is true that roads are necessary for the development of Dewey Lake and where they will be built will be to the judgment of Commissioner William Curdin and the engineers that have given this matter serious consideration. Where the State Park is to be located, will be in Floyd county, and I am sure that Commissioner Henry Ward will use his best judgment as to where the park will be located. It takes time for both of these projects, and I have confidence in both of the Commissioners.

I first want both of the editors to understand that I have not been directed by the Dewey Lake Park Association directors to write this letter, but I am doing it as a person that is interested in Eastern Kentucky.

We in Eastern Kentucky have been very fortunate in securing from the Clements-Wheeler-Beecham administration our share of road building in the past, and I believe if both of our papers in Prestonsburg and Paintsville will join with us to develop these projects, instead of attempting to have the people of Eastern Kentucky to think that these projects are right between Floyd and Johnson counties, we will be in a better position to secure these projects and some day see a back-cropped road around Dewey Lake, allowing the tourist from Ashland and central Kentucky to enter from Johnson county, these from West Virginia and Ohio through Martin county, and all others above the Floyd county line through Brandy Keg and the Austin roads. We need roads to develop the lake and the park, and it will be to our interest to get them built as quickly as the state administration can afford to give us the assistance.

It has been the pleasure of the writer during the Clements-Wheeler-Beecham administration, to make a number of trips to Frankfort, to ask for roads not only in Johnson county, but also roads in Floyd and surrounding counties.

I have always believed that any road built in any of the counties of the Big Sandy was a help to Eastern Kentucky, and I hope that with the directors of the Lake Association and the help of both of your papers that we will be successful in our undertakings.

One other project that I wish could be accomplished and that is the name of the lake. I wish that it could be named "The Jack May Lake," as no one has had more to do with the success of the lake, than Congressman A. J. May.

I have never recommended the building of a dead-end road, and that is the reason that I asked Governor Clements when the project was being built to build a road from Johnson and Martin counties into the lake, and I believe that I asked Commissioner Henry Ward to work with the state administration for a State Park long before the lake was completed, as I was convinced that the people of the Big Sandy valley were to get their share of the tourist trade that comes into Kentucky, that we would have to have someone to offer them. We want to have them to spend a week or two with us, not to just pass us by to observe the most wonderful scenery in the state of Kentucky, and I believe in time we will have the best lake for fishing and camping in our state.

Allow me again to ask you to help us by "pulling together" and not fighting each other. After July first, we can present our plan to Governor Clements, Lt. Governor Beecham, Commissioner Curdin and Commissioner Ward, and they at any time will know how they can go to help us in the Big Sandy valley and Eastern Kentucky, and make this the tourist paradise of Kentucky.

Give Them Credit

THE TIMES has been reminded that in the laudable effort to raise teaching standards educators and others may unwittingly adopt a smug attitude toward the so-called emergency teacher.

It should be remembered that most of these are teaching veterans who earned their certificates to teach in stiff examinations years ago. They are shy on certain credits, standards which must be set in order to attain a higher level of training and competency, but many of these teachers are women and men to whom the classification, "emergency teacher," certainly should not be applied as a term of opprobrium.

For in some respects they are indeed superior to new beginners who sprang, full-blown, from a teacher-college with all the necessary credits.

One of the subjects these oldsters in the profession studied, years ago, was "Theory and Practice of Teaching." Thus they came to know something of education psychology. What they learned of it was, on the whole, learned by digging for it, not by merely getting out of the course the required number of hours. The years have seen changes in both theory and practice—some good, some bad, all designed for the better—and of the two, we'll say practice is the more important.

This is not to argue that the older teachers should not keep abreast with teaching progress. Many of them are working their way to the status of fully-qualified teachers by taking summer courses. And many the teacher who now is fully qualified was a few years ago, what is known as an emergency teacher.

There is nothing wrong with most of these folks that will not cure. So, while they are coming to the rescue of the school system by filling teacher vacancies in the remoter, more isolated school districts, give them full credit, avoid using the term "emergency teacher," too lightly.

FLOYD COUNTY DEMANDS GOOD GOVERNMENT

IV. HONESTY AT THE POLLS

It has been an old Floyd county dream for generations that we could have honest elections, free from coercion and money. Honest men everywhere want only honest elections. If elections were held only on the basis of qualifications for office the stature of men in office would rise immeasurably. But men with money, in desperate efforts to win an election, often resort to a large scale attempt to buy the electorate. I was taught, that some things were black and some were white, some were right and some were wrong. Buying votes is wrong. Wrong for the buyer as well as the seller.

In this election I have pledged that I will turn into the county treasury all fees in excess of my net Constitutional salary limit. Naturally if I had planned a huge vote-buying exhibition at election day I would have refrained from making the promise to abide by the Constitution. In this matter I want to be honest. Honest with myself and you. A man will not spend huge sums to be elected unless he plans on getting it back. He certainly couldn't get it back on the legal salary of a sheriff.

Honesty is the principle upon which I expect to conduct my campaign and upon which I expect to win. An honest man doesn't want the office by any other means. If elected it will be a victory for you, and for myself. If defeated, I shall have won, in a way, anyway for I will have gone through a campaign in Floyd county and didn't try to buy an office. I will still have my self-respect and my honesty will remain.

I see too good people to march with me but for Floyd county. It is one of the best in Kentucky. We can make it better by electing an honest public official with honest votes.

GOOD GOVERNMENT LEAGUE AND MR. TAXPAYER, DO YOU WANT TO SAVE AND PAY LESS TAXES?

Then stop the "fiddlin'" and vote for Fiddlin' Dewey Shepherd, the man who has no equal when it comes to economy...

I was born and reared on Open Fork of Middle Creek... I have eight children and have always had only the bare necessities of life...

1. To serve the people of my county, and make a record that will out-live me.

2. Sufficient table groceries for my family each year not to exceed $2,000.00...

3. Clothing not to exceed $1,000.00 which is enough to include one good "Serge Sunday Suit"...

4. Small sum of $17.50 estimated cost of fiddle strings and resin...

5. No commission for collecting school taxes. Our schools need every dime they can get...

6. No deputies who carry big pistols to arrest an offender, as good treatment will command respect...

7. Each community will be given the right to select its own deputy, whether my friend or enemy...

8. I pledge to aid and will turn over to the County Treasurer all funds coming into my hands over and above the amounts set out herein...

9. I pledge my support to all those old pledges... I pledge my support to all those old pledges...

10. My habits, honesty and integrity, if challenged by either of my opponents, will be fully placed before the people for their decision.

If either of my opponents will pledge to save the taxpayers a like sum, I will withdraw from this race and support that candidate.

Your friend, FIDDLIN' DEWEY SHEPHERD

To Hold 17th Annual Meeting and Dinner At Courthouse Here

For the 17th consecutive year the Rev. O. R. Fannin, of West Prestonsburg, next Sunday will sponsor the annual memorial and have dinner which he began in 1936. His sons are cooperating in holding this year's memorial. "We feel obligated to continue it as long as we are in this vicinity," the Rev. Fannin said.

This year's meeting will be held at the courthouse here. The service will begin at 10:30 a.m., and two portions of the day's service will be broadcast over Station WPKB, he said. The first broadcast will continue from 11 a.m. till 1 p.m., and the last from 3:45 till 4:15 p.m.

The meeting, it was announced, will be held on an interdenominational basis, and all ministers will be asked to share time on the program. Special music will be provided, and dinner will be served, free, to all.

To the People of the First Magisterial Dist.:

This office of Constable could be made a money-maker, if the man elected to the office were out to add to his bank account by any means, fair or foul. He could work, hand-in-hand, with the lawless element and collect for him. He could go out hunting for the easy pickings, arrest and jail young and old and collect his "coffee money" while making a general nuisance of himself.

Since my election as Constable last year to fill an unexpired term I have conducted the office exactly as I promised the people. I have not tried to make a lot of money out of the office by hitching a big paid tent into my belt, going out to make arrests wherever possible or by hooking up with any lawless element. I still maintain that the law enforcement job is one for city police, the Sheriff's office and the state police.

My office has simply been to serve civil papers issued from the Magistrate's and County Judge's offices. It hasn't meant much money to me, but the little I have made has been a great help. As most of you know, my eyesight is such that I cannot do other work which would pay me more, and I have to be satisfied with doing what I can, even if it does not pay much.

If I were a strong man, with normal vision, able to earn a living otherwise, I would not bother you again about voting for me. But we all must accept things as they are and do the best we can.

I accept my handicaps in good heart. My problems are not yours, but you can by your vote make them a lot less hard for me. If you think I have conducted myself as a Christian, and without offense to the good folk and good sense of the people, please vote for me at the August primary.

THE INIQUITY OF SEVEN CENTS A MILE SHOULD BE ABOLISHED!

Seven cents a mile. That iniquity in the sheriff's office began when the Sheriff's Association of Kentucky went down to the Legislature and procured the passage of a law to give the sheriff seven cents a mile to serve court processes. I want to show you how it operates to enrich a sheriff and how it keeps a poor man from going into court to get a wrong righted.

If you live at Wheelwright and have a warrant of arrest for a man who has committed a misdemeanor or if you are engaged in a civil action and need an attachment for a witness, it will cost you seven cents a mile to get the sheriff to come and serve the papers.

What I propose to do is to have the sheriff in the magisterial district in which you reside serve the papers and not charge this seven cents. It is just one of the many little fees that go to build up a big pot for the sheriff at the little man's expense. I'm going to do away with it as one of my first official acts.

WHAT'S WRONG WITH WORKING?

One of my opponents, in his quest for votes, is circulating the rumor that I can not be trusted, because I work for a company. This is a serious charge and I welcome the opportunity to discuss it honestly and frankly.

It is true that I am employed by a company, as Purchasing Agent. It is a job of trust which I have earned by 12 years hard work. For performing this work the company pays me wages. It is an honorable way of making an honest living for my family, and I am glad the company is here at home instead of 300 or 400 miles away. We need more companies, and more industries, in Floyd county to furnish more work for our people. I don't think I need to apologize for working to support my wife and six children.

For HONEST representation in the next Legislature vote for the PROGRESSIVE candidate who will work for the interests of the men, women, and children of the 96th District.

WHO HOLDS THE KEYS TO THE COURTHOUSE—

THE PEOPLE OR THE POLITICIANS?

I am not a politician, but a citizen of this county, qualified for the office of County Attorney, who desires and asks only for a chance to serve you HONESTLY and EFFICIENTLY for the next 4 years as your County Attorney.

Since making my opening statement I have been to all sections of the county and have talked with many, many people about my campaign and the "Courthouse Mess". Those people have promised me their support and agree that the time has come when a candidate can wage an honest campaign in Floyd county, and win, without having to corrupt the election, and buy or steal the office. Those people also agree that the courthouse needs to be cleaned out and New Faces installed therein.

The day I was born one of my opponents was holding public office in Floyd county. He has served as a public official for 18 years and worked 18 additional years in the courthouse. Another of my opponents has held public office in Floyd county for 18 years. They both are asking you the other 4 years. You know their records. Should you give them the keys to the courthouse so they can lock out a young man like me? Is there some law against giving me a chance to serve the citizens of Floyd county? Citizens! Awaken! Take back the keys, clean out the courthouse of corruption and keep it clean by letting me serve you HONESTLY and FAITHFULLY as your next County Attorney.

My platform, as I have already stated, is Clean Elections and Honesty in Government, and in my campaign I am doing whatever I can to bring about Clean Elections. Money in Government is something which this country needs and has needed for many long years. I pledge you that after I am elected your County Attorney I will see that your tax dollars are spent only for legal and honest purposes.

The office of County Attorney is probably the most important office in our county. There is where the seat of corruption can be allowed to begin or can be prevented from ever starting. With me in this office for the next 4 years you will rest assured that any and all attempts at corruption in any county official will end in complete failure.

The County Attorney is your "Watch Dog" the guardian of your rights. My aim is to see that during the next four years you have a "Watch Dog" and not a "Sleeping Dog" whose concern for your rights is only evidenced just before election time. Already "Sleeping Dogs" have aroused themselves and are again trying to fool the voters. The road machinery is moving fast and furiously in an effort to lull

Floyd County Historical Notes

By HENRY P. SCALF

The Lane family of England had so many emigrants to America that the separation of the many different lines poses a genealogical problem of the first magnitude. In browsing through the records of Virginia and Kentucky one comes upon names familiar to generations of generations or takes it seems that the parent stock beamed upon their children generously in each generation the names of William and John.

William Lane, or as he often spelled it Laine, was the progenitor of the Eastern Kentucky line. Today this East Kentucky line spell it Layne. There were other Williams. One was the father of the above mentioned. In trying to unravel the web and name of Williams in the family one is deeply baffled.

Sometimes thought in all this history will reveal itself that recompenses for your futile genealogical digging. One of these compensations is a letter written by John S. Lane from Alabama to his father, Col. James H. Lane of Montgomery county, Kentucky.

Col. Lane was born in Loudon county, Virginia, in 1767. He came to Kentucky in 1780, lived a short while at Broder's Station in the present Clark county, and in 1790 or 1791 he and his uncle Erwood Smith and a Captain Crawford (Smith) of the first settlement in Montgomery county, Kentucky, in the present Clark county, and in 1795 Sterling. Later he moved to Bath county and built the first cabin in that county.

The Shoach Smith mentioned above was in the present Pike county in the 1770's and attempted to survey land a few miles from Flatville. Later he went to Montgomery county, becoming one of very first settlers of that county.

The letter from John S. Lane to his father, Col. James H. Lane follows:

"Perry county, Alabama
Dec. 27th, 1834

"Dear father,
I have just got home and hasten to give you a brief statement of my travels in the far west. After leaving brother James I journeyed down the Ohio until I got to a place called Rome. Where I drove over into the state of Indiana and went about 30 miles into the country; found nothing either for myself or horse to eat and turned back and got on the Kentucky side and congratulated myself that I had once more got into a Christian country and crossed over into Illinois at Shawneetown; the inhabitants of this new town, the inhabitants of this country on the southern part of it are a poor degraded set of beings, who will neither work for themselves or anybody else.

"I went on through St. Louis into Missouri, where I was taken with the fever and was confined long enough to reduce me to a mere skeleton; as soon as I was clearly able to walk I started down the river with an intention of ascending the Red River to Natchitoches and thence across through the Mexican dominion towards the Gulf just after waiting at the mouth of Red River a week and no boat passing, on which to ascend I got on a boat and went to New Orleans and got on board a schooner and in eight days, during nearly the whole of which time I was seasick, was landed at Brazos in Texas. I bought me a mule and advanced about 150 miles towards the north, sometime on the Colorado and sometimes on the Brazos. I was very badly timbered and very sickly. I had theague and fever all the time I was in the country and it is hardly worth while after saying what I have to say I do not like Texas.

"On returning from Texas, we were in a four-day storm, which

You discover what that means when you take its wheel—when you try it for getaway—when you head it up tall hills—when you maneuver it in traffic.

The instant you want to move, you move.

You can go from standstill to a legal 30 mph quicker than quick. Fact is, this spectacular new TT Dynaflow gives you getaway, plus silence, plus smoothness, in a combination no other automotive transmission in the world can equal.

The instant you want emergency power, it's there—velveted forth from a brilliant Fireball 8 Engine with the highest horsepower and compression ratio ever to power a Buick SPECIAL.

The truth is, the instant you feel this big, broad, thrill-charged beauty in motion, you'll know it for a performance automobile—nimble and eager, responsive as quick-silver.

But exhilarating action is just part of the story here.

There's spacious roominess. There's a magnificent ride. There's superb handling ease. And to cap it all, this Buick delivers for little more than the "low-priced" cars. Why not drop in on us this week? We'll be mighty proud to have you try the greatest Buick SPECIAL yet built.

COUNTY COURT CLERK

It is impossible for a man running for office to deny each and every rumor and false allegation sponsored by the opposition. However some of these must be noticed and replied to as a matter of public information. It is being told that I have quit and that my name will not be on the ballot.

You that know me personally and have first hand knowledge of my life and character know of course that I am not a quitter. To you that have pledged your support and to the many voters that as yet are undecided I want to state that I am in the race to the finish. I expect to win and if my opponents hadn't known that I was a dangerous candidate from their viewpoint they would not have started the rumor.

I have never held public office and so there is no official public record for you to examine. However there is the matter of a man's character and reputation that is always a part and parcel of his private life. I ask you to check this with my friends and relatives. The same sense of responsibility, the same respect and the same moral and ethical precepts by which I have lived will be carried over into my life as a public official.

HOMER WICKER

Homer Wicker Endorsed for Clerk by Dr. M. V. Wicker. I want to take this opportunity to ask my friends in Floyd county to support my brother, Homer Wicker of Prestonsburg, for County Court Clerk.

He is qualified for the position, is honest and square, will offer the people the courteous and efficient service they are entitled to have in the Clerk's office. Any support extended him will be appreciated. Yours sincerely, DR. M. V. WICKER, Wayland, Ky.

Moody Hits UMWFA Welfare Fund At Recent Producers Meeting

SOMERSET, Ky. - The welfare fund of the United Mine Workers of America takes 40 cents out of each ton of coal sold, whereas 12 cents could handle the situation. That was the opinion expressed here recently by Joseph E. Moody, Washington, D. C., president of the Western Coal Producers Association. He spoke at a luncheon during the spring meeting of the Central Appalachian Section, American Institute of Mining, Metallurgical Engineers, at the Hotel Beecher.

Concerning the union's welfare fund, Moody said, "I do not think it is the coal operator's responsibility to maintain a large social project." Discussing the coal situation in far-western Kentucky, Moody said 100 mines in the association closed last year, displacing 75,000 workers. He said 411 wildcat strikes in the association mines last year cost millions of dollars. He said that residual oil is making great inroads on coal because it is a cheaper fuel.

Moody was introduced at the luncheon by Prof. E. M. Spokes of the University of Kentucky College of Engineering.

Speaking at a banquet later was William G. Caples, Chicago, president of Inland Steel, Container Company. About 100 coal operators and mining engineers from Kentucky, Virginia, and West Virginia registered for the two-day convention. Technical papers were read at the morning session. George T. Tolson, Jenkins and R. C. Newman, Benham, presided.

Herbert L. Jones, Lunda, W. Va., vice-president of Amhurst Coal Company, discussed "Mining Practices in the Ruhr Area," where only 20 per cent of the coal mines were destroyed in World War I. The coal industry, he said, is the backbone of Western Europe's recovery, and "coal is the most important commodity in Western Europe." Although the Ruhr mines makes only 64 or 65 a day, he said, he has a good home. During the discussion after his speech, he was brought out that German coal miners live in better homes than the average American miners.

Joe Siniff, Huntington, W. Va., discussed "Coal Mining in Turkey." He is associated with J. H. Fletcher Company.

The Turkish miner, he said, makes about $2 a day less one third for social benefits. The mines in Turkey, he said are operated by the State. Other papers were read by Alce Garland, Holden, W. Va., and M. J. Ankey, Washington, D. C. Garland is director of Industrial Engineering.

"County Road Machinery For Floyd County Roads"

As your County Judge I shall insist that all county-owned road equipment be used exclusively on the county road system and I shall see that none of it is leased out for use by private persons for money or for favor.

I shall further insist that every county road employee work an eight-hour day, thereby assuring the citizens of this county a full-time road program without increasing the amount of money expended for road maintenance. The citizens of Floyd county deserve a road program in return for their tax dollars, and under my administration there will be no waste of tax money. To further assure the success of my program, I will work for establishment of a central storage garage for all equipment owned and purchased, and no obsolete equipment will be disposed of until it is legally advertised for sale to the highest and best bidder.

At this time I should like to ask you to remember your needs for road improvements that have existed over the last four years and the precious little relief you have received. I should like to have you recall the record of the present administration along this line. This will help you in considering promises you may hear of road work and the future attempts to catch up on the work which should have been done long ago without an election to spur them on.

Sincerely, JARVIS ALLEN

For SHERIFF

As I travel over the county, I find that there is one thought uppermost in the minds of the people, "the deep-seated desire to restore some sort of old-fashioned honesty in our elected officials."

A public office is a public trust, and it is time that sensible, honest, Christian and patriotic people become alarmed over the machine politicians who have turned our public offices into family affairs, the first step on the road to political dictatorship.

I am not a politician and I have no desire to be one. I have nothing to hide from any person. My campaign is wide-open. I am not sponsored by any politicians or group of politicians, and I am not interfering with any other race.

Voters, watch this campaign, and be not deceived by rumor-spreading candidates, who have been dishonest and unfaithful as law-enforcement and common ordinary honesty in our county.

I am just an ordinary citizen who has worked hard and earned my living by the "sweat of my brow," dealing with my fellow man honestly, honorably and with a deep and abiding faith that the good people desire a "CHANGE" from family-dictatorships in Floyd county.

I have not promised deputy jobs to any one. I will leave that to you people in the community in which he may live and work. I will not spread "false-rumors" on anyone. For I intend to play the game FAIR. This is the way my Christian father and mother taught me around the "family-hearthstone" to live and treat my fellow-citizen, and nothing short of that kind of men and women seeking public office, will clean up politics here and elsewhere, undo family-dictatorships and restore old-fashioned honesty in our county government.

People, see your neighbors, relatives and friends, talk and vote and win with BILL HALL FOR SHERIFF.

Sincerely,
BILL HALL

By PAUL RIVANT
UK Football Coach

LEXINGTON, Ky. — During the off-season, summer months the average football fan probably has little more on his mind than the matter of how to keep cool, but for the coaching staff up here at the University of Kentucky this is the time for cooly laying plans for next fall.

One of the hottest subjects in this "cold war" planning often is not will be the value of the good line-backers and the big men. You would think that in athletics, and football above all, there would be a premium on the young giant variety; but you could get some pretty heated arguments to the contrary if you were to sit in on some of our last meetings.

For coaches who go so far as to put themselves "out on a limb" either way in the matter of small men against the big athlete. In fact, we here at U. of K. certainly want all the big men we can possibly get. If they are also good in the sense of being able to play, willingness to scrap every inch of the way and blessed with plain every day ability. But every so often we are surprised and pleased as much as the fans are in seeing a good little man come through to beat out a bigger player.

In such cases, the reason always boils down to the fact that the little guy was the "blood and guts" variety who just wanted to play warfare with the other fellow and simply outplayed his rival for the job.

Kentucky in recent years has been blessed with several top flight "little" men, such as our fabulous Jones twins, Harry (14) and Larry (13), who weighed in the five-weight poundage of about 165 and 180 only 9'4" and 9'2" respectively against gridiron heavyweights. Then there was Henderson's Wilbur (Shorty) Jamerson, a 5'8", 145 lb. in his senior year as co-captain of our 1950 SEC and Sugar Bowl championship team.

Even lighter was regular halfback Benny Clark of Carlisle, who was listed on the roster in his senior year as 5'9", 162 pounds. There were many others too, more than space will permit mentioning, but I'll certainly never forget a couple of small guys who are now valuable members of the Kentucky coaching staff—Gene Allen, a 140-pound quarterback and Jerry Claiborne, 6'10", 170-pound end and safety-man from Hopkinsville.

MARY ORDELL RAY, WHEELWRIGHT GRAD, WINNER OF COAL COMPANY SCHOLARSHIP, MAY BE FLOYD'S FIRST WOMAN DOCTOR

Wheelwright's Mary Ordell Ray, who recently was awarded a John Hay Whitney Foundation fellowship while a student at the University of Kentucky, is a little girl with a big future if she continues work along the same lines she followed through high school and college, Floyd county acquaintance declare.

She was valedictorian of her class at graduation from Wheelwright high school in 1948, won the four-year college scholarship offered a non-employee's son or daughter by the Princess Elkhorn Coal Company, of David, named it thousands of dollars at Caney Junior College and is finishing up at the University of Kentucky next week with honors as a pre-medical student.

"She has a dogged persistence, the like of which you've never seen," said Wayne Ratliff, principal of the Wheelwright high school, this week confidently predicting a brilliant future for Miss Ray.

Miss Ray is one of the 11 children of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Ray of Bryans and that $500-a-year scholarship she received from Princess Elkhorn for her college education was sorely needed. Her father is a timberman for the Inland Steel Company, and the size of his family was a strain on his finances. But $500 a year, as greatly as it would help, would not get her through the University of Kentucky, she figured.

So, on the advice of her high school principal, Mr. Ratliff, and through cooperation of David L. Francis, President of Princess Elkhorn, she took only $150 a year of the scholarship fund for the first two years while attending Caney Junior College at Pippasburg. That left her $350 a year for the next two at U. K. And she added to that by working as a laboratory assistant there. Now after attaining a near perfect 2.0 scholastic standing at the University can even 3 is perfect, with her character and ambitions for the future helping her along, she has won the Whitney Foundation scholarship worth $1,000 to defray her expenses at the University of Louisville School of Medicine.

She says she's coming back to Floyd county as a full-fledged doctor. Miss Ray stands only 4 feet, 10, but there's nothing small about her ambitions. She admits she found the going rough in pre-med, preparing for a profession dominated by men, but not too rough. "A girl has to work harder in pre-med to be accepted," she said last week.

If You Remember ...

The old lady said she could remember the night of August 9, 1938, she was a young girl and it was the horror of death that made her remember—that and the bright stars it had raged the night before the sun but had ceased before the break of day. When dawn appeared and light filtered through the Tup River hills, clouds still obscured the sky. In the valleys and coves it was dark all day. There was no heat from the unseen sun and oldsters and the ill put on coats when they walked about the cabins.

Night came and the chill increased. Her father started a fire in the huge chimney. As the light rose from the flickering flames the members of the family moved nearer. An August chill is easily dispelled and at the best increased the father got up from the hearth and threw open the cabin door. The house was too warm, he said.

He stood in the doorway, staring into the moonlight but directly he called to his children and wife to come and look at the moon and the sky. They crowded around the cabin door and, he presed by those behind, stepped into the cabin yard.
The old lady, who said she was a young girl then, stood in the doorway, staring at the moon and stars.
The moon itself was a bright orange

HANDSOME MEN and COURAGEOUS WOMEN

As you know, the old saying has been that 'Beauty is in the eye of the beholder' and the fact is true.

But I want to bring to your attention the fact that a few years ago, a young man and a young woman, both of whom are now in the Old Testament, were united in the bonds of matrimony.

And to prove to you again that the wrong kind of women can be and bring young men, take the precious son Joseph, the infant child, who with his coat of many colors covered by his brothers, had to flee from a jealous father.

Young men, I plead with you. Be wise, be true to God and man and hold your coat if you can. One class of women holds up the Sons of God, while others cause their downfall.

I have on my prayer list a number of handsome men I have helped put in office. I pray for them and instruct them the Bible way and try to rightly divide the word of God.

Most all old men or Judges I talk to about protecting my home will say, 'Get you a man or get you a lawyer. I can speak for myself and others, my word has always been my bond. My life an open book.'

I set a resolution in my youth I would live a life of honor. If all the world goes down in defeat, I will say, 'Give me liberty or give me death.'

It has been said it takes 100 years to grow a strong oak tree and a short time to grow a squash. Which is worth the most?

This is the year I am looking for seven men of honest report, full of Holy Ghost and wisdom to come under my apple tree and bring me apples off my thorns, trees, grapes of thorns, figs of thistles, or prove to me why I cannot get my home protected.

I mean to die fighting for God and country and precious sons of Zion. So will you please look on the precious picture I hold in my hand. Read your Bible, study the duty of us praying mothers and say we know that in this last age, the world, the flesh and the devil is the downfall of our youth and you will understand that men that will run from women are very few in number.

Let's try to protect our inheritance and give this young man, Henry C. Hale, a chance to be our next County Court Clerk of Floyd county.

So I thank you all in advance. Sincerely and prayerfully, EVA MEADE HALL

SIGNS OF LIFE

These are signs of life—and the life they save may be your own. Despite all efforts toward safety through the years, traffic deaths still total 38,000 a year. A terrible toll, one that every person who drives can help reduce.

It's no accident that telephone employees who operate cars and trucks are careful drivers. They're constantly trained in safety. The Bell System's safety creed expresses it this way:

"No job is so important and no service is so urgent that we cannot take time to perform our work safely."

FOR CORONER

Believing that the office of Coroner means more than a means of profit for some individual business and that the office should be made to mean something to the public which pays the bill, I have decided to make the race for the Democratic nomination for that office.

It has always been my idea, as it has been that of many others of our thoughtful citizens, that the Coroner should be a medical man who, in reality, would act as a medical examiner.

As many of you know, I have been a practicing physician 23 years. I am a graduate of the Medical College of Virginia, served as Public Health Doctor of Elliott county and operated a hospital 12 years. My further medical experience includes three years as a captain with the medical corps of the 45th Infantry during World War II—a bit of service for which I volunteered.

I am a son of Mrs. Miranda Stephens Gearheart, of Betsy Layne, and the late Ned Gearheart. I married Miss Mae Dingus, daughter of the late David C. and Bathsheba Webb Dingus, of Martin.

If the people of Floyd county agree with me that a constitutional office merits dignity and should perform for the public worthwhile service, they now have the opportunity of making the needed change. I promise to serve them faithfully and well.

Conservation Programs, Called Kentucky Afield Being Featured on Radio

Frankfort, Ky., June 24 (Sp.)—The first in a series of radio programs of conservation in general was heard over Kentucky radio stations the week of June 14. Recordings of the initial program were mailed from the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources for use by cooperative radio stations which will carry the programs to be offered every two weeks.

It is the purpose of the program, to be known as Kentucky Afield, to carry the message of conservation in all phases to the listeners. It is planned to record all types of programs, on the lakes, in the fields and forests or wherever suitable programs may be offered to better acquaint the listening public with the problems and possibilities of conservation. Not only will the program deal with hunting and fishing but will cover such subjects as forest protection, park development and soils and water resources.

The initial program, which is more or less an introduction of the series, features such speakers as Governor Lawrence Wetherby, Fish and Wildlife Commissioner Earl Wallace, Conservation Commissioner Henry Ward, Game and Fish Commission Chairman Tom Theobald. The announcer is Ronnie Rhody, who recently accepted a position with the Public Relations Division of the Department to handle the series of programs.

OIL INDUSTRIES GROUPS MEET

The regular biennial meeting of six county Petroleum Industries committees in this area was held at the Herald Hotel, Paintsville, June 3, under the auspices of the Kentucky Petroleum Industries Committee. Members of Johnson, Floyd, Magellan, Lawrence, Martin and Morgan county Petroleum Industries Committees attended. Ellis Whit, chairman of the Johnson county committee, presided and Herbert L. Clay, state executive secretary of the Kentucky P. I. C., was the principal speaker.

Mr. Clay said that a recently completed survey of the condition of Kentucky's highways by the Highway Department indicated that about 2,600 miles of the state's 8,300 mile primary federal aid highway system is inadequate and $183 million is required to bring this system up to adequate standards. At present expenditure rates it will require about 20 years for this work, Clay said, and meanwhile the whole state will suffer in many ways because of these deficiencies. He advocated a five-year accelerated road program financed by revenue increases, he said.

The meeting endorsed the newly formed organization "Project Adequate Roads for Kentucky" which will work with state administrative and legislative officials to bring the road program to speedy completion. All organized groups in the state, that are interested in highway use and road development, are urged to join the P. A. R. for Kentucky movement. This organization will actively support the program from the drafting of required legislation to the acceptance of the last mile of finished highway.

A color film "Astered for Action" was shown which outlined all the steps in enactment of good laws and just how public opinion can be effected in passing good legislation and in blocking bad legislation. The program of the Kentucky Petroleum Industries Committee this year will stress maintenance of reasonable gasoline taxes, sound highway planning, fair local business taxes, stamping out gasoline tax evasion, product brand choice by motorists on limited access highways, urge the federal government to leave taxing of gasoline to the states, and to cooperate fully with our public officials in the cause of good government.

Floyd county P. I. C. officers for the next biennium, were elected as follows:

Chairman: Woodrow Greenwald, Prestonsburg, vice-chairman, and C. R. Marshall, Weeksville, secretary.

GARRETT

The marriage of John Vanderpool of Garrett and Florence Lilen, of Wayland, took place Saturday, June 20, at Eastern. M. C. Wright was the officiating minister. After the wedding the couple was taken in a convertible, decorated for the occasion in a six-car parade from Wayland to Allen, then back home the old farmhouse at Baptist Bottom. On Sunday friends and neighbors gave a dinner in their honor.

WELLMAN WILL WIN COUNTY ATTORNEY

On August 1 the voters of Floyd county will choose their next County Attorney. They will choose Robert Wellman for this office because:

1. He is qualified and experienced. He has been practicing law among you for the past four years, since graduating from law school.
2. He is honest and reliable. He has never been accused of illegal use of tax money.
3. He is a veteran with 3 1/2 years of military service in World War II. He served overseas two years and fought in five major battles with our veterans. He knows the problems of the veterans.
4. He knows your problems. He has represented the poor and the humble for the past four years. He knows the problems of the miners, farmers and all those who labor.
5. He has no law partners nor associates. He will not be dictated to by any other attorney when he is elected.
6. He is a former Floyd county school teacher and knows the problems of the school teacher and you parents who send your children to our schools.
7. He is not a candidate for the purpose of recovering lost and ill-spent riches but to guard the taxpayers' dollars and see that it is legally spent.
8. He was born on Middle Creek in Floyd county and except for military service and college training has spent most of his life among you.

The office of County Attorney is one of the most important offices in our county. An honest County Attorney can and should, because it is his duty, see that the tax money of Floyd county is not used illegally. It is his duty to see that all officials of the county obey the law. It is his duty to bring justice to the corrupt official as well as the small time violator.

Floyd county needs Robert Wellman as its next County Attorney.

Fireworks Shipments

Check To Be Staried

Frankfort, Ky., June 22 (Sp.)—Another victory against the delivery of unauthorized fireworks in Kentucky has been won.

The American Railway Express Company has agreed with the State Fire Marshal's office to exact an affidavit from consignees of fireworks that the products are not to be used in violation of state law.

which only recognizes supervised fireworks displays after permit has been granted by local authorities.

The ban, according to State Fire Marshal J. T. Underwood, Jr., is against the sale or unauthorized use of fireworks.

Substantial strides have been made since the anti-fireworks bill was passed in 1950. Underwood added, with the only major problem being that some "bootleg" fireworks are believed to be arriving by truck in some instances "but by and large most of the shippers are co-operating with us."

Officials of Two States To Meet June 30 at Breaks

Officials of Kentucky and Virginia will meet a time Breaks of Sandy, near Elk Horn City, June 29 to inspect the area and discuss its development as a tourist attraction. Conservation Commissioner Henry Ward announced at Frankfort this week.

The meeting will be headed by Ward and Raymond V. Long, acting director of Conservation and Development for Virginia, and will be attended by advisors and planners from both states. It will be the first time that such a meeting has been held at the site.

Both the Kentucky and Virginia legislatures provided in 1932 that their departments of conservation make studies of the area and report their recommendations to the 1934 session.

Ward also announced that Sen-

So long ago that I hate to recall the passage of time I took an oath to support the Constitution of Kentucky and uphold all the state's laws. That was when I was admitted to the bar by the Kentucky Court in those times official oaths were taken far more seriously than today. I have never knowingly violated mine.

That may be the reason why I just can't understand how some 30 members of the legislature or candidates for seats in that so-called august body could sign a petition asking Governor Wetherby to pardon two labor union organizers convicted of violating the law against handling together to commit violence—Kentucky's mob law.

The two men, Arthur Chaney and Earl Saver, were convicted in the Union County Jail after a trial called for by the Court of Appeals and the Supreme Court of the land. Every man was taken by the DMVA to best the jail rap for Chaney and Saver. The men are doing a year in jail at Moreland.

When the 48 young legislators, or legislators to be, signed the law they repudiated the law they are pledged to uphold. I'll bet they signed to one that not one of the signers know the facts they signed the petition, because they thought it was good politics to oblige the labor bosses. They may not have been smart enough to realize at the time that they were violating their moral obligations as citizens if they had, some of them might not have signed the petition.

In a case where there is any doubt about the evidence or the rubric of the trial, there might be a possible excuse for signing a petition for a pardon. In the case of Chaney and Saver the highest court could not find fault with the ruling of Circuit Judge Merlin Blackwell and with the verdict of the jury. So there was no excuse whatsoever for pardoning Chaney and Saver.

Maybe the signers of the petition lost their attention in the fact that if anyone of them would utter Governor Wetherby renouncing my action and ask him to run a big blue pencil mark across my signature. And at bedtime I will get down on my knees and ask the good Lord to forgive me for violating a sacred obligation as a citizen.

CARD OF THANKS
I want to extend my sincere thanks to each friend, relative and neighbor who assisted me in any way during the death of my son Willie Little. To all I am deeply grateful.

Days of sadness still hang over us. Friends may think the work is over. They little know the sorrow that lies in our hearts concealed. We think of you in silence. No eyes may see us weep. Many silent tears are shed. While others are asleep. Sadly missed by mother and wife.

TO THE PEOPLE OF FLOYD COUNTY
In making this race for County Judge I do not intend to be tied up or connected with any other candidate or group of candidates. There already has been a caucus and probably will be more, to the effect that I am supporting this or that candidate for some office. These rumors have no foundation and I do not intend to take part in any race except my own.

I am making this race on the record I have made as a public official and County Judge. Later I will have a more detailed statement of some of the things that have been done. With the experience I have had I will be able to make you a better County Judge for the next four years. I earnestly solicit your support.
Your friend,
HENRY STUMBO

TO THE VOTERS AND TAXPAYERS OF FLOYD COUNTY:

I am asking your support for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff on the basis of my record.

It is easy for a candidate to make promises in regard to what they might do or imagine they will do if elected to an office. The best evidence is a record.

There are two major duties connected with the Sheriff's office.

1. Financial or Fiscal Affairs.
2. Law Enforcement.

I shall now give you my record on the first, as shown by the public records of Floyd county and the records of the Auditor of Public Accounts at Frankfort, Kentucky.

During my terms of office I collected and disbursed more than 4 million dollars of public money. Money that belonged to the Taxpayers.

The records show that every penny due the state, county and Board of Education was properly paid to them. Honesty and efficiency was the method practiced in my office.

It was said by the Assistant Auditor of Public Accounts while making an address to the Kentucky Sheriff's Association at their annual meeting in December, 1948—quote: "The records of Troy B. Sturgill, Sheriff of Floyd county, are in excellent condition and are among the very best kept in Kentucky. I would advise you newly elected Sheriffs who take office soon to procure a copy of his records."

There has been a great deal said and written recently by those interested in the coming primary in regard to county officials exceeding their Constitutional yearly salary, which was $5,000.00 during my term.

An audit was made by an auditing concern of Louisville, Ky., which was employed by the Floyd County Fiscal Court to make said audit of my term for years, 1947, 1948, 1949. The audit shows my net income was as follows: 1947—$4816.08; 1948—$4847.21; 1949—$4772.41. This clearly shows to you that I did not make the amount I was legally entitled to.

There is a misleading statement in The Times under the heading "Score Board". This statement would have the voters and taxpayers believe that those who are now seeking your votes were responsible for my paying the Board of Education $2462.81. The facts are that after having made my final settlement with the Floyd Fiscal Court the county owed me $2462.81, the same amount I owed the Board of Education.

There was no difference between the Board of Education and myself as to the amount due to them.

The only question was: Should I borrow the money or pay the Board of Education at such time the Fiscal Court paid me?

I borrowed the money and paid the Board of Education every penny due them.

No organization or individual had any part or anything whatsoever in this matter. This statement is being made solely for a misleading political purpose.

People who are seeking public office and for political purposes only instituted an action for a sum which had been paid by me long ago and which is shown in my Final Settlement made with the Floyd County Fiscal Court November 28, 1951.

A Special Judge was designated to hear this action. After hearing the evidence orally in the courthouse at Prestonsburg, Ky., in order that the public could hear the facts, the case was dismissed. This is substantiated by the records in the Floyd County Court Clerk's office.

I ask you the Voters and Taxpayers to demand the records of other candidates. It is your duty to sincerely study these records and decide from them for whom you will cast your vote. Make your decision from facts and truths. Not idle promises and false accusations.

I submit to you my candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff of Floyd county upon this record.

Your Friend,
TROY B. STURGILL

There's a great industrialist in Detroit, and a well-known scientist in New York, and a famous statesman in Washington who will tell you that the best way to relax from the cares of the day is to get behind the wheel of a 1953 Cadillac.

And there are also thousands upon thousands of other Cadillac owners throughout America who will gladly add supporting testimony to these revealing statements.

For these motorists know, from their own personal experience, that there is no faster or surer way to relax and refresh than to take to the highway with a smooth, comfortable, quiet Cadillac car.

It makes a man feel good just to sit behind the wheel. As he glances about his Cadillac's gracious interior, he's reminded that he has made something out of his years—and that, in itself, gives a lift to his spirits.

And then, once he's out on the highway—well, in no time at all, he's as happy and contented and trouble-free as it's possible for a motorist to be.

He is surrounded with comfort—and his driving is so relaxing and effortless and enjoyable that his mind clears, as the miles go by—and his heart grows gay and his outlook bright and hopeful.

He has literally driven his cares away!

You really ought to try it sometime. Come to think of it, you ought to try it today... after your day's work is done.

The car is waiting—and so are we.
