HOUSE VOTES AID PER PUPIL

$80 Minimum Approved; Other Legislative Acts Claim Local Interest

The Kentucky House of Representatives held Thursday acted to strengthen the Minimum Foundation program for education by voting to guarantee each public school district in the state at least $80 per pupil in average daily attendance.

The bill passed through the House by Representative Bookie Hinkle, a Paris school principal, was tagged as an administration measure with the full backing of the State Department of Education.

The bill provides for a single foundation program fund to take the place of the per capita account and the equalization account now in operation.

Money will be distributed to the school districts in accordance with the minimum-foundation program. If the total does not average $80 for each pupil in average daily attendance in the district, the State will make up the deficit.

The bill passed today also makes adjustments in the educational requirements for the various teacher-salary grades.

It requires that local and state allotments for teachers' salaries and capital outlay must be used only for those purposes.

Another bill which passed the House last week that is introduced by Rep. Paul E. Young providing that the police judge in cities of the fourth class shall be elected by the voters of the city at the general November election.

Prestonsburg is a city of the fourth class. Police judges are appointed by the city council of each city under present law.

Flood legislation featured in the sponsorship of various bills. Approval of the local fiscal court would have to be obtained before the commissioner of Fish and Wildlife Resources could authorize the use of fire, explosives or gas to destroy the den of any infested animals under terms of a bill offered in the House by Rep. David Martin, Jr., of Hi Hat.

Meetings of all public agencies would be required to be held in the open, with secret sessions being outlawed if a bill sponsored in the House by Rep. David Martin, Hi Hat and Lon C. Hill Prestonsburg, is approved.

In addition, the same two representatives along with Rep. Goebel Newsum, Elkhorn City, proposed to make it mandatory that State Auditor's reports be required to be published in local newspapers with the largest circulation in the affected area.

The General Assembly approved and sent to Governor Chandler for approval a bill to require natural gas producers to supply consumers living within reasonable distance of their pipelines at rates to be fixed by the Public Service Commission.

The bill was sponsored by Rep. Bill Cornett, Hindman, and Senator Doug Hays of McDowell. The legislation, it was said, applies only to gathering lines.

State Senator Hays proposed a bill in the Kentucky Senate to permit local option election on whether to permit the legal sale of 2-2 "nonintoxicating" beer in local option (dry) territory.

Prize in labor surplus areas would be allowed a 20% differential in bidding on public contracts under terms of a proposal offered in the Senate by Senator Hays, who holds from an area that has been suffering economically. The bill would direct that such contracts be awarded to contractors and suppliers in such areas where the price in differential is not greater than twenty per cent.

Contract Carrier Service Denied Louisville Man

Existing contract carrier service being sufficient in the area sought to be served, the State Department of Motor Transportation last week denied application of Ben Backer, Inc., 4407 Jewel Street, Louisville, for a contract carrier permit authorizing transportation of products of Standard Oil Company, Inc., Louisville, to points in Eastern Kentucky.

It was proposed that the service be rendered between Louisville on the one hand and Ashland, Fleming, Jackson, Leitch, Manchester, Paintsville, Pikeville and Weckburg on the other.

Families in Laurel county have ordered approximately a million strawberry plants from the Cumberland Strawberry Growers Association.

Rabid Foxes Increasing Health Department Says

That rabid foxes were on the increase in Kentucky was pointed out this week by a report of the State Department of Health. In the fiscal year of 1955-56 only 20 foxes were disposed as rabid by the department but the fiscal year of 1954-55 had 53 rabid fox deaths.

The number of rabid dogs decreased from 228 in the first named period to 115 in the last, according to the report.

It is apparent that the number of cases in dogs has been reduced by approximately two-thirds, while in foxes the number has more than doubled. The number of cattle has increased slightly, while in all other animals the cases have dropped to less than half, with a 50% reduction in total cases," the report said.

"There were 27 counties which had one or more confirmed cases of rabies in foxes. The majority of these counties were in the eastern part of the state, however Jefferson county reported ten cases, Breathitt and Henderson each had five cases, Lee and Madison, three cases each; Boyd, Harlan, Boone and Jessamine, two cases each, and the remainder—Bath, Boyle, Crisley, Clark, Elliott, Shelby, Wolfe, Woodford, Jackson, Oldham, Christian, Menifee, Morgan, Powell, Hopkins, Nelson, Rowan and Lawrence—each had one case."

Appliance Demonstration Witnessed by Sixty

Sixty persons attended the clothes dryer demonstration given at David, Feb. 8, by the Home Appliance Company, Prestonsburg, according to Don Phillips of the Big Sandy R. E. A. Cooperative, Paintsville. Three more demonstrations are planned—one in this county and two in Johnson.

Puts you in the Big Time
for only $2394³⁵

Why hold back from the fun and thrill and pride of owning a Buick—when you can boss such a big and strapping beauty for the price of a smaller car?

Hand to believe? Listen... If you can afford any new car, you can afford this Buick Wildcat. Sedan—for a very simple reason. This Buick is priced within a few dollars of the well-known smaller cars—and actually costs less than some models of those very same cars. (The price we show here proves that.)

Want more proof? For two years in a row now, Buick has outsold every other car in America except two of those well-known smaller cars. And you can bet your bottom dollar that it takes bedroom prices to stay in the Top 3 of the nation's best sellers.

But even that isn't the whole story—but by a long shot. Folks are buying Buicks in record numbers because they find in these big beauties a lot more automobile for the money. They find here more styling freshness and distinction, more snap and ginger and power thrill—more cozy hunk and luxury—more ride stability and steadiness, and more structural solidity and pure automobile than the same money buys elsewhere.

Dear Sir: Buick is the most popular car in America. It's the car that's been chosen by more than 10 million Americans. It's the car that's been chosen by more than 10 million Americans. It's the car that's been chosen by more than 10 million Americans.

So if you want to move into the big-car world at a small car price—if you want to have the true of your working life with the lift and pride and prestige of a beautiful new Buick as your very own—what's holding you back?

Depressions right quick tomorrow, market—and well show you the biggest bundle of high-powered Buick ever offered in America—a low-price bill.

JOHNSON MEN DIE OF BURNS

Neighbors at Denver Victims in Separate Blazes During Week
Two Johnson county men, both close neighbors of the Denver community, died a few hours apart of burns received in two separate fires. The victims lived within a quarter mile of each other in the Jennie Creek section.

Robert Caudill, 31, died in Paintsville hospital Saturday morning from burns received last Friday near midnight while fox hunting. The other victim, Charles W. Ratliff, 27, died at 2:30 p. m. Sunday in the Paintsville hospital from burns received in a fire at the home of a brother, Leander Ratliff. He and two companions had gone to the home to sleep. Coroner James Trimble said after the fire started the three men got out but Ratliff, thinking his brother was still in bed, ran back inside and was wrapped in flames.

Caudill was with a party of fox hunters with six neighbors and had built a fire on a ridge while their dogs ran. Caudill remained at the fire while his friends walked off to hear the dogs. He thought he rolled in the fire while asleep. Hearing his screams, his fellow hunters returned and found him rolling in the leaves, trying to put the fire out. Ratliff, a son of Joppy and Leona Ratliff, was a veteran and was a miner. Besides his parents, nine brothers and four sisters survived. General rites were held at Denver Missionary Baptist Church Tuesday.

Caudill was a son of Monroe and Alka Blair Caudill, both surviving. He too was a miner. Thought he rolled in the fire, Paul and his daughter, a sister and three brothers also survived. Burial was held Monday at the Beechwald United Baptist church and burial was made in the family cemetery.

Topmost Man Sentenced For Postoffice Break-In

Carl Custer Harris, 37, of Topmost, recently waived indictment by a federal grand jury on a charge of aiding and abetting a postoffice break-in and was sentenced to two years in prison by U. S. District Court at Lexington. Harris denied participating in the November 13 break-in at the Topmost postoffice, but admitted he was a companion of the man who did. He said he waited in a car about one-fourth mile away while the other man broke into the office.

He admitted he knew the man was planning to enter the postoffice and that he had given some money taken from it when the man returned to the car.

Water Level Down at Request of Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources

The modernization program designed to fill only shallow waters to complete the job it was said. The poisoning will be done by boat. The water level is being lowered within the old channel of John's creek above Brandy Keg Cove, but downstream waters extend over bottomlands, and this situation there may present a problem to those working with boats to distribute the poison.

CRAZY BUT NOT DUMB

"Did you hear of the fellow who had a flat tire in front of the insane asylum?" inquired our friend out in Arizona. "Well, he took off the jugs and dropped them in the hub cap and proceeded to fix the tire. Before he had finished a careless driver almost hit him, did hit the edge of the hub cap he had removed and sent the jugs spinning so far into the bushes that they could not be found."

One of the asylum inmates was peeking through the fence called out "Sho, mister, you can here to walk into town. Just take one lug from each of the other wheels and put them on. You can buy more when you reach town."
"Well, said the driver, you're smart. You don't belong in that institution."
"Oh, yes, I do," said the inmate. "I'm crazy, all right, but I ain't stupid."

TIDBITS OF KENTUCKY FOLKLORE

A SENSE OF HISTORY

No matter what the subject being taught, one of the hardest things to get across is the idea of history. It is far easier for us to think that things are as they have always been than to make an effort to see things historically. Then we can consider better in our conception of time than our ancestors. It is still pretty rare indeed to consider our distortion of things.

Two of my numerous teachers drilled and drilled into me a sense of time. One of them was a Presbyterian minister, that is, one that could not have been at the time they appeared in a story or great departure some time of a long time ago. One teacher, especially fond to find in Virginia's ALBANY evidence of the author's putting things from his own time back into the context period of his time, who came from the town about 1183 B. C. to found Rome or its early settlements, Shakespeare, and his whole period, pointed time to much that it sometimes becomes funny. Of course, his actions were drawn in Elizabethan costume, hence it was not odd for Julius Caesar to appear in doublet and hose like Sir Walter Raleigh himself.

It is possible that a small number of the people who attended plays then were amused by this anachronism, most of the rest probably saw nothing at all, just as some King Lear spectators of the British Isles being told like a counter of their own time. But Virgil and Shakespeare are just two of the many who have unconsciously or even intentionally projected their own time backwards.

Probably one of the funniest things we do is think that shows how close we still are to the folk to so imagine that the great men of other times were accomplished in the same way as similar men would be today. With our modern methods of

Basic Training Cut For Incoming Airmen, Recruiter Announces

Many new recruits reporting to Air Force Basic Training Centers here during this month will make the change from studying to Air Force technicians more rapidly than previously under a new program of combining basic military and technical training, according to Sgt. Superior Murphy, local Air Force Recruiter for this area.

This is the first step in increasing Air Force plans to decrease means of reducing the time needed to train a new airman and make him a productive member of the Air Force team.

Sgt. Murphy said that new airmen found eligible by aptitude classification tests and other selective means to attend an Air Force technical school, and for whom spaces are available, will receive only six weeks of basic military training at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas. They will receive the balance of their Air Force training while being prepared for their future Air Force careers.

The recruiter pointed out that this change in the initial training program will place newly-trained technicians on the job five weeks sooner, saving the government money in reduced training, time and cost, and improving utilization of Air Force manpower.

Those airmen not scheduled for formal technical training will continue through the normal 11-weeks of basic training before being sent to commands for duty and on-the-job training with duty assignments in governmental units.

Further information on opportunities in the Air Force can be obtained from Sgt. Murphy who is located at the Post Office building in Prestonsburg, or by calling Prestonsburg 2680.

Kentucky Highways Claimed Lives of 862 During 1955

Economic loss from fatal accidents on Kentucky roads in 1955, calculated at the cost of more than $500 million, was the highest since 1949, according to three Lexington-based State Police Commissioner P. A. B. Waldener declared this week.

Pointing out that 872 persons died in highway accidents during 1955, Waldener said, however, that traffic experts indicated the average loss from each road fatality is about $500,000. "This shows that state's loss from road wrecks during 1955 at $77,580,000," he stated.

On the basis of these figures, Floyd county's 12 highway fatalities last year cost $1,170,000.

The economic loss rate of that figure includes funeral expenses, home loss, property damage, hospital costs, doctor bills, legal expenses, property damages, and other factors," Waldener said. He explained that statistics indicate an average three bedroom home in Kentucky during 1955 cost $12,500.

"The 1955 highway death toll was one of the highest in recent years," Waldener emphasized. He cited the previous four years, revealing that 748 persons died on Kentucky roads in 1954, 804 in '53, 796 in '52, and 742 during 1951.

The Commissioner explained that 136 State Troopers now patrol 118 of Kentucky's counties. Troopers do not patrol roads in Jefferson and Fayette counties.

Included with the 136 road patrolmen are men holding the

Live Telecast To Show Ohio Valley Development Over WSAZ-TV in April

The industrial development story of Huntington and the Central Ohio Valley will be shown in live telecasts over the National Broadcasting Company originating from WSAZ-TV in April.

Announcement was made last week by Lawrence H. Rogers, vice-president and general manager of WSAZ, Inc., that the station in cooperation with the Huntington Chamber of Commerce has completed plans to originate NBC's "Today" program 7:00 A.M. to 9:00 A.M., April 24 and 25th.

According to Rogers, the entire cast of "Today" including star Dave Garroway, reporting personalities Jack Lescault, Frank Blair, Lee Ann Meriwether, and the champagne mascot J. Fred Muggs would all be telecast live from area locations, utilizing the facilities of WSAZ personnel and equipment.

It is planned to arrange a special meeting of the Governors of West Virginia, Ohio and Kentucky on the program one morning to discuss the potential of the area now developing.

The schedule of features forming the major portion of the telecast each day will be concerned primarily with industry in Huntington and the Central Ohio Valley including Ohio and Kentucky.

It is contemplated that the show will originate from locations on the Ohio River, various industrial and transportation developments as well as the studios of WSAZ-TV.

Governor Seeks Approval For State Road Program

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 13 (Sul.)—Public approval of a bond issue to finance an enlarged highway development program in Kentucky that may go as high as $200,000,000 will be sought by Governor Chandler.

The Governor revealed his plans to a State-wide advisory committee more than 40 members of the group being pressed. The group is headed by William F. Foster, Mayfield, industrialist.

The plan of the governor is to correlate Kentucky's road program with any federal road building plan that may be developed, and take full advantage of any federal funds that may be available on a matching plan.

President Eisenhower has suggested a plan of $1.6 billion, or 9% of federal funds to $1 of state funds. Such a program could easily result in more than $1,000,000,000 investment on the improvement of Kentucky's highways. A survey last fall made by an outside firm estimated that it would cost approximately $2,000,000,000 to bring Kentucky's highways up to proper standards, and to meet needs of long-forsseeable future.

The bond issue method is favored by the Governor as a feasible and practical approach. It will be submitted to the people as the Constitution forbids the General Assembly from lifting beyond its current means, authorizing a $500,000 limitation to take care of casual deficits only, but allow for popular approval of bond issues.

The Governor praised the Advisory Committee headed by Foster for giving "candidly of their time and talent" in public affairs. He promised that he would submit a "sane and sensible budget" to the General Assembly at a coming special session.

FRAUD RACKET IS REPORTED

Unlawful Persons Posing As Internal Revenue Men, District Director Warns

Warning was given this week by Wm. M. Gray, district director of Internal Revenue, to Kentucky taxpayers to be on their guard against being defrauded by persons posing as Internal Revenue field officers.

As has happened recently in several cities in Ohio, in Covington, Kentucky and in New Albany, Indiana, the method followed by such individuals usually is of a pattern.

A stranger person visits a taxpayer, usually a small businessman, asks to see his books and then informs him that he owes the government a specified amount. The impostor attempts to secure cash in payment.

In several instances these impostors have quantities of various tax forms which they use to window-dress their activities. Of course it is well known that tax forms are available to everyone and should not be given any weight in a situation of this type.

Mr. Gray went on to say that all Internal Revenue field officers carry very distinctive credentials, means of identification which consist of a black leather folder, with the Treasury Seal stamped over parts of a picture and the signature of the Agent, together with the signature of the regional commissioner of Internal Revenue on the inside. All taxpayers should demand to see this identification folder when approached on official matters by anyone purporting to be an Internal Revenue officer.

Mr. Gray also requested that anyone who has been approached by a person posing as an Internal Revenue officer, contact immediately the nearest office of the Internal Revenue Service or the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Highway Program Set-Up Dr. Addie M. Lyons Returns to Old Post

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 8 — Rural Highway Commissioner J. B. Wells, Jr. today recommended closure of the rural-highway and rural-secondary-highway programs.

Under present Department of Highway Organization, Wells directs the rural-secondary-highway program, which is financed by the 2-cent motor tax levied for that purpose.

The rural-highway program, financed by a $500,000 appropriation from the Legislature, is headed by George H. Hines, director of rural highways.

Wells sought superior both programs under the recommendations made in a memorandum to Robert Humphreys, commissioner of highways.

The rural-highway commissioner also recommended a reduction in State standards for some rural secondary roads. He said money could be used to better advantage and provide funds to some areas where they are needed most.

The change he recommended is to delete the 60-foot right-of-way requirement for a road to qualify for the rural-secondary program, in some instances, he said the 60-foot right-of-way takes up the entire strip of title land in mountain valleys.

Wells would permit rural-secondary funds to be used for some such county roads, but the roads would remain under county operation.

Wells also would make a change in the maintenance of rural highways and rural-secondary highways. He recommended that special maintenance crews be put to work on large roads, to work independently of the maintenance crews who work on primary highways.

FLOYD TEAMS IN "BIG FIVE"

Wayland's Hindman Win Features Regional Play; Other Leaders Keep Pace

By Gordon Moore
The "Big Five" of the 15th region—Wayland, Paintsville, Pikeville, Wheelwright and Betsy Layne—continued their battle for hardwood supremacy on the high school front over the past week-end as all continued to win.
Wayland's uncanny-scoring Wags and their ace markman, Kelly Coleman, blasted Hindman, 96-80, before a capacity crowd at the Knott county seat Saturday night, thus averaging a 70-60 loss on November 19. Coleman made 14 of 20 shots in the first half by scoring 38 points and controlling the rebounds. Three by his phenomenal first half, he could get only 20 points in the final 15 minutes to end up with 50 for the night.
Jim Wheeler's Paintsville Tigers joined Wayland and Wheelwright in the 20-game-winner circle by besting Meade Memorial, 63-60, for the third time on Friday night and ousted Hazard 82-66, on the following night. Chas. Hill, Tommy Daniels, and Phillip Estep hit 24, 18 and 18 respectively for the victory.
Paintsville now has a 20-1 record having lost only to Wheelwright. Pikeville's late-coming Panthers whipped Elkhorn City 71-61 in a Pike county contest, Saturday night in front of 32 at the half, John Bill Tivette's charges ousted in the last half. All five Panther starters hit in the double figures; Herwig Darwin Smith led with 16 and Delbert Justice paced Elkhorn City with the same number.
Auxier, the smallest school in the region, led Betsy Layne for three quarters before bowing, 90-72. The Hornets lost six men via the foul rule and finished the last ten minutes with four players while Betsy Layne romped to the 18-point decision.
The Wheelwright Maroons one of the top offensive teams in Kentucky bounced Maytown 39-78, mainly through the efforts of center Che Curry's 32 points. High scoring honors for the night, however, went to Maytown's Otisus Hancey, who totaled 36.
Wayland's triumph marked its 12th consecutive win and upped the team's season's slate to 24-4, best in the mountains. Currently best in the state is the team in averaging 87.7 points per game and Coleman 47.9 in 27 games, or 1,222 total points.
Martin's Purple Flash split two week-end games in downing Elkhorn City, 62-52, then lost a close fray to Garrett Saturday night, 44-51. Senior guard Delmar Thompson led Dennis Halbert's charges with 22 and 27 in the two games.
Prestonsburg lost two starts-to-Maytown 83-79, and Hazard, 96-79, but all-around athlete Lowell Hughes was the one bright spot for Coach William Goebel as he burnt the nets for 49 and 40 points to

Wayland and Betsy Layne Seeded for Net Tournament

BY GORDON MOORE
Wayland's wild-scoring Wags have been Wheelwright, 100-75, on their own floor and two weeks later on the same floor in the semi-finals of the pre-season Floyd tournament, with fabulous-scoring Kelly Coleman watching the latter part of the game from the bench.

Wayland and Wheelwright will meet for the third time Friday night on the spacious Wheelwright floor. Hugo Miller's Wheelwright Maroons have pinned two of the defeats while Betsy Layne has split two with Wayland, winning 80-88 and losing 80-66, three weeks back. In the 59th district, the two favorites, Paintsville (20-1) and Flat Gap (18-8) drew in opposite brackets. Warfield and Tuz open the district meet at 7:00 p.m. February 23, and in the second game of the upper bracket at 8:30 on the same evening. Paintsville vies with Van Lear.

What Do You Want Out of Life?
Do you want to be a success? Are you set on getting rich? Do you want to be famous? Even if you attain these goals, it is practically a sure thing that you still will not be satisfied. It has been demonstrated time after time. So why break your back and your heart in the rat race to secure these?

Perhaps it would be well for you to do some re-thinking about your goals. Do you have a worthwhile purpose in life? Religion gives purpose to life—eternal purpose. Knowing God gives the only lasting satisfaction. "Aspirant now itself with Him, and he at peace; thereby good shall come unto thee." (Job 22:1.) There are many ways to get acquainted with God, but the most direct is through the church. Worship God in Church Every Week.

Statistics reveal that 20 manufacturing industries use nearly half of all the electric power generated in the United States and that almost 49,000,000 tons of coal are required annually to produce the power demanded by the three leading industries—primary metal, chemical companies and stone, clay and glass products.

Meet the man who performs hundreds of "weddings" a day...

BILL BAKER
Bill is just one of about 1,300 Southern Bell cable splicers. Been with the Company almost 10 years. He's active in PTA work, likes to bowl, and is as handy with tools around the house as on the job. Was "topkicker" to his National Guard post for years.

Meet Bill Baker, cable splicer for Southern Bell. In his day's work he "joins together" the hundreds of tiny wires in the telephone cables which carry your calls.

Cable splicing is just one of many jobs it takes to fill your telephone needs. And Bill is typical of some 65,000 Southern Bell people who work as a well-coached team. Keeping intricate equipment in top shape. Putting your calls through. Giving you the kind of service you want.

— Because you can depend on the people behind the lines, you can depend on your telephone 24 hours a day.

COAL EXPORTS ARE DOUBLED

U. S. Coal Exportation Twice 1954 Volume, 1955 Figures Prove

The Coal Exporters Association of the United States, Inc., reported recently that 1955 overseas exports of American coal was approximately 24,700,000 tons, or more than twice the 1954 volume of 13,118,287 tons.

W. P. Estes, executive secretary of the Association, pointed out that 1955 export volume was the second highest in history, being exceeded only by the all-time record of 42,910,000 tons sent overseas in 1947 and said the 1955 improvement in exports "becomes all the more important in the light of the fact that as recently as 1950 overseas shipments of U. S. coal totaled only 2,830,000 tons."

Current high demand for American coal abroad directly reflects industrial expansion, particularly in Western Europe. Mr. Estes said present indications are that exports will be just as large or larger in 1956, he said.

"European industry is having a rapid expansion, and huge quantities of coal are required for fuel and power," the Association executive said. "This demand must be met by American coal since supplies of coal abroad are unable to do so."

Exports of U. S. coal in 1955 had another decline of two million tons. Consequently, England already plans to reduce her imports of 1956 and Free Europe generally will feel the impact. Mr. Estes said.

"America's ability to meet this European demand reflects, not only the unlimited reserves of coal in this country, but the high degree of production and preparation efficiency coal mining has achieved here."

Shipments of American coal to Canada showed a modest improvement in 1955 when the 1954, 1950 amount of one million tons to 16,827,150 tons.

Scotchfield in New Post

Beecher Scotchfield, Floyd native and Perry county's only medical veterinarian has taken a position with the United Mine Workers' Memorial Hospital at McDowell. He assumed his new duties at the McDowell institution last Monday.

Scotchfield, a son of Dr. Frank Scotchfield of Water Gap is a Berea College graduate and was associated with the Hazard, Clinch since its founding in 1947. He specialized in laboratory work and an X-ray technician.

The Scotchfields have as yet announced no plans to move from Hazard to McDowell but it was said they would probably remain there until the present school term expires.

Scotchfield's resignation leaves Perry county without a registered veterinarian Raleigh Johnson, Perry county health administrator, said the matter of securing a successor to Scotchfield would be referred to Ronald Heathorn, state director of veterinary medicine.

Scotchfield assisted his father in this county last year in the administration of anti-rabies serum doses in three hills at various intervals but in the main his work has been lab and X-ray work.

INCREASED FLOOD CONTROL FUNDS ASKED BY CLEMENTS

Washington, D. C., Feb. 15 (Sp.)—Specific details of a campaign the portland work as the Corps of Engineers will wage for increased federal funds for East Kentucky flood control projects were announced here today by Senator Estle C. Clements.

They are no money in the budget for a survey needed on the Little Sandy River and Tygart's Creek. I will ask Congress to appropriate $20,000 for this study.

"Modernization of navigation facilities on the Ohio River is important to eastern Kentucky because these projects are necessary to our hopes for providing navigation on the Big Sandy and other rivers and they will stimulate the industrial development of the area.

Last year Congress agreed with that construction of the Greenup and Markland-Waraw locks and dams should be speeded up. Senator Clements added, "The Corps of Engineers informs me that the $9,800,000 in the budget for Greenup and Markland-Waraw locks and dams is not adequate and that it is found that more money can be used if it will be transferred to Greenup from other funds. The same is true of the $3,000,000 in the budget for construction of Markland-Waraw locks and dams.

However, I feel strongly that another of the great Ohio River navigation projects should be started in fiscal year 1957, and I will press for $1,150,000 to start construction at Lock 41 at Louisville. The budget contains only $100,000 for planning on this project. I will also ask for an increase from $30,000 to $150,000 for planning at the New Richmond lock and dam."

SOVIET IS SECOND

Insurance Commissioner Seeks Court Action

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 13 (Sp.)—Commissioner of Insurance Cad P. Thurman filed suit in Franklin circuit court today that it name an auxiliary receiver in Kentucky for the Inland Empire Insurance and Loan Corporation, whose rights in do business already have been dependent in Idaho and Kentucky.

A receivership for the company has been ordered by a United States Court in Idaho.

The suit also asks that appropriate accounts and collateral due the company that are located in Kentucky should be conserved the protection of policyholders, creditors, subscribers, and stockholders who reside in Kentucky.

Thurman's pleading avers that he is of opinion that the continuing liquidation of the company and its affairs are in such a state as to be hazardous to it to attempt to further transact business in Kentucky.
