EDWARD T. BREATHITT

OLD AGE ASSISTANCE

The average Old Age Assistance recipient today gets $12.80 more on the month than he did in 1959 under Chandler. If an Old Age recipient paid 3% sales tax on every penny of the $12.80 more he gets today it would only be 38c a month, leaving $12.42 more on the month today with the sales tax than ever before.

Our Old Age people of Kentucky are getting more money today than ever before . . . 10 times more than paid in sales tax.

VOTE BREATHITT . . . Get more Old Age Pensions!

AID TO NEEDY BLIND

The average Aid to Needy Blind recipient today gets $26.28 more on the month than he did in 1959 under Chandler. If a Needy Blind recipient paid 3% sales tax on every penny of the $26.28 more he gets today it would be only 79c a month, leaving $25.49 more on the month today with the sales tax than ever before.

Our Needy Blind people of Kentucky are getting more money today than ever before . . . 10 times more than paid in sales tax.

VOTE BREATHITT . . . Get more aid to Needy Blind!

LOOK FURTHER AT THE RECORD . . .

Governor Bert T. Combs recommended to the 1960 and 1962 Legislatures and got:

1. $4.00 increase average in Unemployment Compensation Benefits for the unemployed.
2. $6.00 per week increase in all Workmen's Compensation benefits.

THE PRESENT ADMINISTRATION RECORD

During its first two years in office, 1960-1962, the Combs administration provided $1,961,638 to Floyd County's Old Aged, Dependent Children, Needy Blind and the Permanently and Totally Disabled.

This was $224,464 more than was provided for this county's Welfare Program the last two years of the previous administration.

LET US LOOK AT THE RECORD!

In 1959 the average Old Age Assistance check in the state was $44.93. In 1962 under the present administration the average was $57.73. This was an increase of 28.6 percent.

In 1959 the average Aid to Needy Blind check was $43.61. In 1962 under the present administration it was raised to $66.89. This was an increase of 53.4 percent.

In 1959 the average Aid to Permanently and Totally Disabled was $44.19. In 1962 under the present administration it was raised to $68.80. This was an increase of 55.7 percent.

In 1959 the average Aid To Dependent Children check was $72.34. In 1962 under the present administration the average check was raised to $92.32. This was an increase of 27.6 percent.

THESE INCREASES ARE 10 TIMES MORE THAN THE RECIPIENTS PAID IN SALES TAXES.

AID TO PERMANENTLY AND TOTALLY DISABLED

The average Aid to Permanently and Totally Disabled recipient today gets $24.61 more on the month than he did in 1959 under Chandler. If a Permanently and Totally Disabled recipient paid 3% sales tax on every penny of the $24.61 more he gets today it would be only 74c a month, leaving $23.87 more on the month today with the sales tax than ever before.

Our Permanently and Totally Disabled people of Kentucky are getting more money today than ever before . . . 10 times more than paid in sales tax.

VOTE BREATHITT . . . Get more aid to the Permanently and Totally Disabled!

AID TO DEPENDENT CHILDREN

The average Aid to Dependent Children recipient today gets $19.98 more on the month than he did in 1959 under Chandler. If an Aid to Dependent Children recipient paid 3% sales tax on every penny of the $19.98 more he gets today it would be only 60c a month, leaving $19.38 more on the month today with the sales tax than ever before.

Our Aid to Dependent Children recipients of Kentucky are getting more money today than ever before . . . 10 times more than paid in sales tax.

VOTE BREATHITT . . . Get more Aid To Dependent Children!

FLOYD COUNTY BREATHITT FOR GOVERNOR CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE

P. E. O. STATE CHAPTER MEET IS SCHEDULED AT MAY LODGE

The Kentucky State Chapter, P. E. O. Sisterhood, will hold its annual convention at May Lodge, Jenny Wiley State Park, April 18-19. It was announced this week.

Mrs. Margorie Reid, Lexington, president of the Kentucky State Chapter, will preside.

The day preceding the formal opening of the convention there will be a board meeting, also at May Lodge.

The P. E. O. Sisterhood was founded January 21, 1889, by seven college girls, students at Iowa Western College, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. Although established as a college sorority, campus chapters were discontinued when emphasis was placed on the organization of chapters in towns and cities. This change from a college group to a community group opened the way for the growth of the organization in the United States and Canada.

The P. E. O. Sisterhood is now an international organization with a membership of more than 145,000 women. Almost 3,900 chapters have been organized during the 84 years since P. E. O. was founded.

DeROSSETT
For
CIRCUIT CLERK

In this, my first race for public office, I want to say that I believe the voters are entitled to know the platform upon which I appeal for support.

Many of you are acquainted with my background, qualifications and Christian training. A sense of service has ever prompted me to assist my fellow man. I shall carry these qualities of heart and mind into the office of Circuit Clerk.

I believe in giving our young people a break in life. One break they should have is adequate driver education. This is the day of modern traffic problems and proper training will save lives and money. I pledge you to initiate and promote a driver training program in every Floyd county high school. This program will save at least 30 percent on insurance protection and, which is more important, it will save lives on our highways. Floyd county is the only one in the state that doesn't have such a program.

Enquire about me from my neighbors, friends and associates. You will find that I merit your consideration and I pledge to make you an efficient public official.

Sincerely,

FRANK DEROSSETT

Why We Support Breathitt

The Floyd County Times departed from its long-standing policy of political neutrality when it editorially supported Bert T. Combs, of Prestonsburg, for Governor.

It has never regretted that stand. Now, almost four years after Governor Combs took office, we hold this to be true: When the political smoke that clouds men's vision has lifted and we can truly provide a true perspective, history will rank Bert Combs as one of Kentucky's greatest Governors—if not, indeed, its greatest.

It is an ironic fact, and possibly a reflection upon our own shortsightedness, that the monumental achievements of the Combs administration in the areas of education, state parks and highways have evoked greater recognition nationally than here at home.

It has happened to other Kentucky Governors as it has to Governor Combs: the good that they do, or have done, is lauded in sectional disputes and bitterness, in personal spite and enmity, with such commonplace things as jobs, patronage, personal favors and the like inevitably governing individual likes and dislikes.

Yet the incontrovertible facts remain:
There would be no great Mountain Parkway from Central Kentucky into the Mountains but for Bert T. Combs.

Jenny Wiley State Park would not be developed and its magnificent lodge would be only a dream but for Bert Combs.

The Community College program, including a college here to serve counties of this area, would be no more than a figment of the imagination but for Bert Combs.

What more can we ask the man to do? Has any other even dreamed of doing so much?

During these less than four years of the Combs administration Kentucky has jumped forward educationally to make the greatest advances in that area of any state in the Union. No longer do we have to hide our chagrin with the crack, "Thank God for Arkansas."

During this time the Kentucky parks system has become recognized as the greatest in the United States, which is tantamount to being recognized as the greatest in the world. As a consequence, tourism has become the state's No. 2 industry and promises to become No. 1.

In these few eventful years, too, not only a Parkway to the Mountains—"the Promised Land," because it has for a century and a half survived on a diet of promises—has been built, but its counterpart is driving into Western Kentucky. These roads do not belong to the distant past; they are roads for today and the future.

Into these and the splendid interstate route being built through Kentucky smaller roads will merge, connecting all Kentucky eventually in a great, modern highway network.

These last four years have seen, too, more money for schools—for classrooms, teachers, textbooks; for assistance to the aged, the blind, dependent children; more for the mentally retarded; and a program of hospitalization for the needy.

Not every vice spot in Kentucky has been eliminated, but Newport, the center of organized vice and crime, was rid of its evil. As a result, we have a Governor Combs in answer to the pleas and prayers of church people of every denomination. Bert Combs could have "looked the other way," as had been done in the past, looking the other way could have been profitable. But he chose to act.

We do not presume to claim perfection for the Combs administration. Mistakes have been made, but they were made when mistakes usually occur—when things are being done.

Because we believe in the Combs program, see in it the progressive ideas, ideals and work that Kentucky must have—

Because we are indebted to Governor Combs to the full extent of our ability to appreciate every good thing done for our section of this Commonwealth—

Because he sees in "Ned" Breathitt the man possessing those qualities of mind and heart which will impel him to make Kentucky a good Governor—

Because Ned Breathitt has committed himself to a continuance of the work which Bert Combs has in such a great way begun—

Because we hold that Kentucky cannot afford to turn back the clock—

For these reasons, and not because of any spirit of personal malice toward any other candidate, we gladly offer Edward T. Breathitt our support in his campaign for Governor.

This Is a Sound Ruling

The Times believe (1) that those who are unable to work or who cannot find work should be supplied food, and (2) that those who will not work should not eat.

So it is that we had the ruling recently announced here to the effect that those who refuse employment and are able to work will be denied food stamps.

We do not believe that it was the intent of the federal government or, more specifically, the U. S. Department of Agriculture, to encourage any able-bodied man or woman to live on foodstamp largesse and refuse to earn a living in the opportunity is presented.

Farmers have complained that food stamp recipients have refused work and that they cannot employ help with their crops. The new ruling should correct that situation.

What this country needs is a public works program, but until that comes along it must make the best of what is at hand. And the best is not a program to encourage idleness and sloth.

There is able-bodied in this county that could make huge hay. Planting trees is near, and those who can work should be supplied plots for gardens. Many need instruction, some may need seed. Give them both. But let them work. Let them have a normal human's share in this business of living.

Those who are sick or crippled or in any way incapacitated must be fed and clothed. We cannot excuse ourselves by a cold refusal to help because even many have a certain advantage of governmental agencies and even their friends and neighbors help them. The cry of real human distress must never be ignored.

But the only real help that can be given the able-bodied is work to do, a living wage, an opportunity to become self-supporting and a self-respecting member of the race and society.

Mrs. Harris Dies at 83 At a Louisville Hospital After 4-Month Illness

Mrs. Lula Harris, well-known Prestonsburg woman, died April 2 at the age of 83 at a Louisville hospital following an illness of four months. She became ill while visiting a daughter at Jeffersonville, Indiana.

A daughter of Franklin and Elizabeth Butler, she was known here where she had spent almost her entire life, as "Aunt Lulu." She was a member of the Free Will Baptist Church. Mrs. Harris was twice married—first, to J. C. Shepherd, and next to Jeff Harris, both of whom preceded her in death.

Surviving her are two daughters, Mrs. W. H. Craft, Jeffersonville, Indiana, and Mrs. Bess Stone, East Lansing, Michigan, and one sister, Mrs. Mary B. May, of Frankfort. Six grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren also survive.

The body was returned here and funeral rites were conducted Saturday afternoon from the chapel of the Floyd Funeral Home by the Revs. W. D. Jagers, M. Roberts and William Amburgey. Burial was made in the Mayo cemetery.

Mrs. Hanson Victim Thursday at Pikeville Of Paralytic Stroke

Mrs. Martha Cole Hanson, 79, wife of F. D. Hanson, of Hill Hat, died Thursday at the Methodist hospital, Pikeville, as the result of a paralytic stroke suffered three weeks earlier.

Besides her husband, survivors include three sons and three daughters, Norvin Hanson, Mrs. Rosa Newcome, Mrs. Mamie Belle Newcome and Mrs. Edna B. Osborne, all of Hill Hat. Cousin Hanson, South Bend, Indiana, and Ezra Hanson, Duplaine, Ohio, also leaves a brother, Elbert Cole, and one sister, Mrs. Etta Hall, both of Melfin, 25 grandchildren and 37 great-grandchildren.

Her funeral was conducted Sunday from the home of Estill Osborne at Hill Hat by the Rev. Hershel Huff, Jerry Hall, Charlie Jones, Marshall Hamilton, John B. Hamilton and Johnny Jones. Burial was made in the Newman cemetery; the Hall Brothers Funeral Home directing.

Who Are The "Citizens For Educational Freedom?"

Approximately five years ago, a new name began to appear. It is "Citizens For Educational Freedom," or CEF, as they are commonly known.

Whether this group was a tool of the Roman Catholic Aid For Parochial Schools hierarchy, or representatives of Protestant Parochial School Churches, a few Jewish private school leaders, plus a few others that have been thinking that "all school children deserve tax money for their education," is a little hazy. The group is still too small to be able to determine. However, some of its literature has been connected with a Jesuit priest writing under an assumed name.

The stated aim of this group is "Educational Freedom," by which is meant education for all at taxpayers' expense, whether they advance their own opportunity to attend the public schools, or to an independent literature (socialist or communist) or religious school. (Naturally, they make no mention of the communistic schools in their literature or pressure on political leaders, but to be just they must include them in their claims for aid.)

In order to circumvent the constitution, they are advancing the Roman hierarchy scheme of having the money paid to the pupil who will then use it to pay his "tuition" to the school of his choice.

How much longer we in the United States will tolerate a multiple school set-up, with its multiple teachings of history, morals, psychology, science and in its higher branches, medicine, law and ethics is a question. Certainly we need to teach one complete United States history, if not all branches of history, and behavior and morals should all have the same basis. Historical facts are facts, stealing is stealing—whether one dollar or fifty.

Mr. Johnson was a son of Isaac and Naomi Burchett Johnson. He had been seriously ill the last five months.

urgency. During the day, when the demand for electricity is at its peak, waterdrives turbines would produce the power. At night a steam plant would be switched on, the turbines reversed, and the water pumped back into the reservoir for reuse the following day.

"This thinking necessarily involves a chain of lakes and dams working together in a coordinated power production program," a spokesman said.

Eastern Kentucky coal, instead of being shipped out of the area, would be used at home.

The conservancy district might be involved in other projects, including flood control, land conservation, reforestation, tourism, and possibly multi-megawatt power.

Money for the projects would come from revenue bonds issued to the district. The sale of power and water and proceeds from other projects would pay off the bonds.

Enabling legislation would have to be passed in Frankfort before the district could be established. After that there would be a referendum in the five counties to determine whether residents desired to form the district. If the referendum should win approval a local authority would be elected to determine and finance projects.

A member of the group said, "If it takes what it learns, it plans to formally contact the Department of Interior about setting up a conservancy program in the area."

The spokesman confirmed that the group has invited the director of one of the largest conservancy projects in Washington to meet with it soon.

Congregation Members Join Pastor in Inviting Public to Baptist Revival

Members of the congregation of Irene Cole Memorial Baptist Church this week joined the pastor, the Rev. W. D. Jagers, in inviting home to Jagers, in Frankfort, residents to attend the revival worship service.

A series of cottage prayer meetings also will be held Friday evening as a prelude to the revival which will be led by Evangelist Larry Taylor, of San Antonio, Texas.

Music at the services, which will be held twice daily, at 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m., will be led by Gus M. Kolas, minister of music, Beechmont Baptist Church, Louisville.

The Rev. Taylor, since his conversion eight years ago, has led more than 300 revivals and the result has been the addition of more than 12,000 persons to the church. His previous Eastern Kentucky revival was at First Baptist Church, Hazard, where 100 professions of faith resulted.

Nursery facilities will be provided for the convenience of parents of young children. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend each service.

All county offices, including the county courthouses, will be located on the first floor, George Lee Shannon, architect, said. Commonwealth Office and the almost six-room office will occupy the second and third will be devoted to the county jail and the jailer's living quarters. Plans, too, for a private residence for each office, with public restroom on the first floor.

Both courthouses will be finished with walnut paneling and acoustical ceilings.

The contractors will have 365 days in which to complete the building after the work order is issued. Akers & Akers were contractors on the May Lodge which was completed last year at Jenny Wiley State Park and has the contract on the amphitheatre to be built there this summer.

The old courthouse site will become the principal part of one of two urban renewal projects here, if applications already filed with the Urban Renewal Administration are approved. The old building, which has by succeeding grand juries been termed unsafe, will be available for use, however, until the new courthouse is ready for occupancy.

Federal aid on the building itself will be not less than 50% with urban renewal participation in the amount of $100,000 or more, if the urban renewal project is approved.

The courthouse here will be the fourth to be built in an Eastern Kentucky county within the last few years. Johnson and Maudlin county's courthouses are already in use, and bids have been accepted on Breathitt's.

Creek by the Indians. Scoutmaster May pointed to an avenue of descent from the cave and to Little Mud Lick Creek in which she waded to hide her trail.

It was nearly noon when the Scouts left Jenny Wiley Cave and trekked down Little Mud Lick Creek where it enters Big Mud Lick Creek. Most of them crossed the stream on a plank that broke with a heavy master May and dropped him in the creek. They came out on Ky. 124, hiked to the mouth of Jenny's Creek and had their picnic near the newly-erected historical marker commemorating a Civil War battle. Still full of energy, they trekked on the lawn of the old Dan Davis home. Several of them built a pyramid of their bodies and yelled with delight when the top-most Scouts fell, crumpling every body into a mass of laughing youth.

The sun was descending, there was a long way to go and they hurried them along. Crossing Big Paint Creek on a bridge, they began the ascent of the mountain that bears the name of the area's greatest pioneer heroine. When they emerged onto U. S. 28 the day was nearly spent. The boys were loaded into cars and trucks and brought to the mouth of Little Paint Creek where Mrs. Wiley came to the Big Sandy River and a short distance from Harman's Station which became her refuge.

Soon they will try again, and successfully, for the trail is now known. Rapid rules of departure, march and read safely will be observed. Medals will be issued to those who successfully complete a hike on the Jenny Wiley Escape Trail.

Scoutmasters May, Gobie, Ezra Robinson, veteran Scout leader N. M. White and the officers of the Floyd County Historical Society and the Johnson County Historical Society who are sponsoring the development of the trail, envision it as the most popular Big Scout hike in Kentucky.

It could very well be that, for the route has some of the most impressive scenery in the Big Sandy valley and the area is deep with legend and history.

Boat Owners Reminded Boat Licenses Are Due

Boat owners are reminded that the first year on boat licenses runs from May 1 of one year to April 30 of the next. This means all 1962-63 registrations expire this month, April 30, says Boating Director, Bud Calman.

The Boating Division started accepting registrations January 21st, so there will be no extension of time, says Calman.

Water patrolmen started checking boats April 1 for required equipment and May 1 will start issuing citations for lack of proper equipment or expired registrations.

HISTORIC AND SCENIC LITTLE MUD LICK CREEK FALLS

Little Mud Lick Creek Falls, Johnson county, Kentucky, near where Mrs. Jenny Wiley was held captive in early 1790 and from which she escaped to Harman's Station at the mouth of John's Creek, was a favorite recreation spot in the last decade of the nineteenth century. This photograph, made about 1895, shows the falls in mid-summer when the stream was dry.

The Jenny Wiley Trail, sponsored jointly by the Floyd County Historical Society and the Johnson County Historical Society, is being established by Boy Scout Troop No. 27, Prestonsburg.

The First National Bank salutes the Boy Scouts of the Jenny Wiley District for their devotion to industry and their program of developing our youth into outstanding citizens of tomorrow.

JARVIS ALLEN ANNOUNCES FOR COMMONWEALTH'S ATTY.

I have decided to become a candidate for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney in the Democratic Primary election to be held May 28, 1963.

I have talked to numerous citizens and voters in this county and believe that they want to vote for a candidate who is independent and free to enforce the law by prosecuting crimes and criminals that may come before the circuit court, without fear, or being influenced by any politician, political group or faction.

I do not believe that the citizens of this county will agree for a group of local politicians to dictate who shall serve as public officials in Floyd county, especially when their motive is to gain control of all law enforcement and remove any opposition to organized crime in which they may be interested.

I am sure the citizens of this county know that I have always done exactly what I believed to be right and that no politician has ever been able to persuade or influence me to do otherwise.

Numerous citizens of this county have stated that I was too honest to be a politician. I have never desired to be a politician but I firmly believe that no man can be too honest to serve in a public office.

If elected Commonwealth's Attorney I will prosecute all criminals that may come before me, on an impartial and equal basis, regardless of wealth, political power, race or color. I firmly believe every man should have equal rights as guaranteed by the United States Constitution and will do all in my power to see that such rights are protected.

As a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney

DeROSSETT APPEALS TO VOTERS

To the Young . . . To the Old . . . To the Veterans:

I am a son of John DeRossett and Anna Calhoun DeRossett of Ball Creek, a lifelong resident of this county. My father is now 82 years old. He is a former teacher and former employee of the Kentucky-West Virginia Gas Company. He is a lifelong resident of the county and a life member of the Regular Baptist Church.

I was born in 1922, attended our local schools, served in the U. S. Army 5 years in the European Theatre.

I do not make any hero's claim but I was awarded the Bronze Star and five Battle Stars, one for the Normandy Invasion.
I am a member of the Free Will Baptist Church.

My family connections include many well-known Floyd county names, to mention a few: Calhoun, Lafferty, Robinson, Rowe, Mayo, Rorrer, Wallen, Shepherd, McGuire, Sizemore, Meadow,
Miller, Slone, Warrick, Tussey, Parrott, Wells, Thornsberry, Webb, Montgomery, Flannery, Sprigg, Hall, Mosley, Peters, Anderson, Sammons, Skeans, Smith, Ellis, Prater, Moore, Nelson, Oasley, Pat-

burn, Burchett, Conn, Crisp, Crum, Davidson, Dingus, Dotson, Ford,

Barnett, Younce, Gannell, Merritt, Ramey, Garrett, Goble, Gray,
Harmon, Hayes, Herald, Holbrook, Hobson, Layne, Horn, Jarrell,

This is my first time to ask for a public office and I do now, knowing that I can perform the required duties, and I will go beyond that call and establish a Driver-Training Program in every Floyd county high school. I believe Floyd county owes this to our younger generation. It will eliminate many highway accidents.

YOU'LL KNOW WHY FORD SWEEP THE FIRST

FIVE PLACES AT DAYTONA...WHEN YOUR '63 FORD IS STILL GOING STRONG YEAR AFTER YEAR

Daytona's big, banked oval puts unbelievable stresses and strains on engines, steering gears and frames. The Ford that won at Daytona took all the punishment this famous track could give in 200 miles of grueling competition without missing a beat.

In this toughest of all track car events, mechanical failures claimed over fifty per cent of the starting field. But of twelve Ford's entered, nine won the distance. Ford took six of the first ten places.

Five-hundred-mile events like Daytona are a public demonstration of toughness, reliability and sheer engineering excellence that are part of the new generation of Ford's. A lot like this can't be duplicated on anybody's testing grounds—it's run right out in the open. Any car can enter. But only the car that has the best total combination of strength, balance, precision

ALFALFA FIELDS
 Here are some pointers on fertilizing Kentucky alfalfa fields.

Most alfalfa fields in Kentucky need an annual application of phosphate and potash. This fertilizer application can be made almost any time during the year.

However, if an alfalfa field did not get any fertilizer last year or winter, a good time to do it is after the first cutting of spring harvest. Most alfalfa crops now have quite a bit of growth and fertilization may not be too late.

If phosphate and potash are needed, an application of 60 pounds of phosphate and 120 pounds of potash are recommended. No nitrogen is recommended. No nitrogen should be put on six hundred pounds an acre of a 0-10-20 fertilizer (or equivalent) will do the job. Also recommended applying 15 to 20 pounds of borax an acre annually to alfalfa fields; this borax can be put on separately or in borated fertilizer.

Soil tests will decide the nutrient and limestone needs. Soil tests are urged because some fields will need phosphate only other fields only some both phosphate and potash, while a few fields will NOT need either one.

CLOVER MITE PEST
 The clover mite pest already has been reported "invading" Kentucky residences.

The main problem with clover mites in houses—they do not bite humans nor otherwise bother them—is that they congregate on walls. When housewives try to sweep them off the mites leave an ugly, reddish stain from the crushed bodies. They appear on walls as tiny pinpoints since reddish-brown specks.

Control measures, according to R. L. Miller, U. K. Ag Extension Service entomologist, inside the home use an aerosol bomb containing pyrethrins. Spray directly on the insects.

Outside the home, use Malathion. Mix one tablespoonful of 57 percent strength emulsifiable concentrate with a gallon of water. Spray foundation walls and outside walls of

Dear Mother and Dad:
 There is a link death does not sever.
 Love and remembrance last forever.
 We miss you but until each hour is silent.

And the shuttles come to fly; God will unroll the pattern.
 And explain the reason why.
 The dark threads are as needful in the Weaver's skillful hands.
 As the threads of gold and silver.
 For the pattern which he planned.

SOIL TESTS
 Soil tests are the best way to determine the "nutrient-needs" of crops. Using soil test data, farmers can order the proper grade (nutrient proportions) and proper amounts to supply the nutrients in proper balance for phosphorus, potassium and limestone. There is no soil test for nitrogen, therefore, farmers must determine this need from past cropping and treatment history.

GRUB WORMS INJURE LAWNS
 Grub worms are the larvae of hard-shelled beetles. They are whitish with brown heads and usually lie in a curled position in the soil around grass roots. The grub worms eat the grass roots. If a large number of grub worms are present, they eat enough grass roots to kill patches of grass. These patches of dead grass usually are first seen in April or May or in October and November. However, most of the injury is done several weeks before the dead patch of grass is noticed.

A good way to test for grub worms is to take the bare hands and tear the dead grass loose from the soil. In event of severe grub worm injury the roots have all been eaten off and the dead grass can be rolled up like an old thick rug.

After the dead grass is rolled up and removed look for grub worms on the soil. If more than two grubs are found per square foot it will be advisable to poison them by using aldrin, Dieldrin or Dieldrin. These may be used in either liquid form or as granules.

The aldrin, Dieldrin or Dieldrin must be applied exactly according to directions on the container and is best used in early March so the worms will wash into the soil. To prevent the material from being washed away it will be necessary to water it thoroughly into the soil. If any of these materials are used as a spray, be sure to water in thoroughly after spraying and see that pets and children are kept off the lawn until the spray dries. It is also necessary to avoid spray drift on yourself or on edible crops. The best time to apply to the soil is in late afternoon.

GRUB CONTROL
 Lexington, Ky.—The standard materials used for control of cattle grubs, tested last season by U. K. Ag Experiment Station entomologists, performed very satisfactorily. Fred Knapp, entomologist, said the materials were tried in two types. One was the pour-on and the other was added to cattle feed.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

SEE'S SO RIGHT!
 EDITOR, The Times:

I am sure that you have heard that saying about "this country's going to the dogs." Well, after what I have just heard about getting clothes on animals, I believe it.

I have never heard of anything so stupid in my life. If the Lord had intended for the animals to wear clothes, he would have put clothes on them in the first place.

I think it's a shame that strong, able-bodied men have nothing more to do than parade up and down the streets, carrying signs about clothing animals. If they would carry signs about clothing the women who are walking around, half-naked, it would be a more worthwhile cause.

SCHOOL PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL BUS DRIVER COME TO BLOWS

BUS DRIVER'S VERSION

I have been school bus driver in Floyd county for 2 years and the Transportation Supervisor will tell you he had no complaints as to the manner of my driving or otherwise until recently when the school principal, Phillip Dingus, of Allen Graded School and the Superintendent of Schools learned that I was supporting A. B. Chandler and Harry Lee Waterfield. I was first called into the Superintendent's office and questioned concerning certain political items which I had signed as Co-Chairman for Chandler and Waterfield. I informed him of my rights as a citizen to support the candidate of my choice and that I was supporting Chandler and Waterfield.

Mr. Dingus boarded my bus after school that same afternoon, after the students had entered and I was ready to start off, and caused a great disturbance among the students. This he had never done before. I asked him to move out so I could proceed on my run and he then turned the ignition key, he was so wrought up in presence of all the students. I pushed him off the bus and continued on my run. I probably used him rough, but he deserved it, since his action brought on the whole thing.

More than 50 parents have called, sympathizing with me and denouncing such tactics in our schools. They know politics caused the Superintendent's and Board's action in firing me.

I am sure many employees of the school system, whether maintenance laborers, janitors, or teachers feel the same as I, and would like to express their views as to their support of a candidate of their choice but are intimidated, threatened, and coerced into silence.

I say we are free people, the Taxpayers are paying the bill — We should stand up for our individual rights — If you don't this time then next time may be too late.

God's Only Gift Which ALL SHARE EQUALLY

Anyone can see, of course, that the good things of life are not equally distributed.

Some are born to good health; others with physical or mental afflictions. Some enjoy in abundance the fruits of God's earth; others struggle through a lifetime of poverty. The unscrupulous often gain wealth and power; the virtuous find "virtue its only reward."

An all-wise and just God would obviously not allow such inequalities to exist without providing for their ultimate compensation. And we have His Word as to how this justice will eventually be meted out to both the mighty and the meek, the rich and the poor, the evil and the virtuous.

In one thing only, does God make all equal. To each of us He gives a soul... to each the promise of everlasting life. Where the durability of our body may affect the years and the joys of life on earth, the purity of our soul will alone determine our eternal destiny.

Because it is not a physical thing that can be seen or touched, some refuse to believe that there is a soul.

Others neglect to care even though lavishing attention upon the health, nutrition and beauty of the body, whose ultimate destiny is only dust.

Even if we choose to reject God's certain promise of judgment, reward and punishment... as related in both the Old and the New Testaments... common sense must tell us that we have an immortal soul.

ARCHER JOINS MAYOR GROUP

Supporting Breathitt
In Governor's Race,
Announcement Made

Dr. George P. Archer, mayor of Prestonsburg, this week was named to a 23-member Mayor's committee for Democratic gubernatorial candidate Edward T. "Red" Breathitt.

In accepting the appointment, Dr. Archer stated that he was supporting Breathitt, because "in my opinion his views are consistent with good government for the entire state, not just one section."

"Breathitt will continue the program of Governor Combs," Dr. Archer said, "and see to it that Eastern Kentucky gets its just and fair share. This has never been true in the past."

Selection of Dr. Archer to serve on the Mayor's Committee was called by Breathitt "a typical example of the progressive and reliable people we are getting on our team."

"With these hard-working well-informed people serving with us, we feel assured of victory in the primary election," Breathitt continued. "This appointment of Dr. Archer is just another example of the many excellent leaders who are serving in our organization."

Caney Junior College Sets Summer Opening To Fit Needs of Area

Pippa Passes, Ky.—Alice Lloyd College, at Pippa Passes, Kentucky, announced today summer term opening June 17 to accommodate a student body drawn almost exclusively from the flooded Eastern Kentucky area.

About 160 summer students are expected from high schools in the mountain counties of Knott, Floyd, Letcher, Perry and others. Some schools in this area are closing as late as June 8, or, in one instance, June 12, to make up school days lost this winter due to icy roads and floods.

The summer term serves a very important function of adjustment into college work for many high school graduates. Testing and registration will be conducted at the college, June 15. Registrar William R. Hughes is in charge of registration.

FLOOD RELIEF FROM ALUMNUS

Received at Alice Lloyd College was the personal check for $100 of former student Jimmie Mongard, of Brooklyn, N. Y., for "Flood Relief." It was mailed to the mountain college by Congressman Carl D. Perkins, also an alumnus. This help will very basically keep three or four financially distressed, now possessions and homes lost in the floods. With fellow students, they went in work units to help others in the communities, scrape mud, collect bedding and clothing for them, when they had done what they could for their own families.

This is not the first time Mr. Mongard has helped his college. When he was a student in the 1930's, he knew the Italian way of saving up creek rock in cement, and under his leadership the college boys built the library that is now being enlarged by student work.

Mr. Mongard visited Pippa Passes last August with his daughter, a gifted musician.

SPORTS CHATTER

By GORDON MOORE

BLACK CATS NOW 1-1

The Prestonsburg high school baseball team closed its 23-game schedule with a 12-4 win over Oil Springs last Wednesday afternoon. Junior right-hander Mike H. Wells gave up three runs and six hits before being relieved in the sixth inning by Lonnie Penix.

First baseman Jimmy Seiser was the leading hitter for the Black Cats with a double and three singles in four trips to the plate. He drove in three runs and scored the same number.

Second baseman Garry Goble and third baseman Danny Hamilton, along with pitcher Mike H. Wells, hit two for three in the 12-hit attack.

Saturday, the Black Cats stopped Wheelwright in a doubleheader, 9-2 and 11-3, and then dropped an exhibition game to Paintsville high, 3-2, Sunday afternoon.

In the Wheelwright doubleheader, centerfielder Raymond Schofield poked two home runs and catcher Mike E. Wells and outfielder Bill Campbell each posted a roundtripper.

The winning pitchers were sophomore Johnny Wright and Freddie Seiser.

Wheelwright high school has completed the field for its first annual invitational tournament that will begin on Christmas Day and run through December 28.

The eight-team field will include two of this past season's regional winners—Breathitt County from the 14th and Garrett from the 15th, along with Virgin, McDowell, Martin, Belay Layne and Wheelwright. Officials will be Sid Meade, Don Sullivan and R. B. May, Jr.

The Floyd County Coaches Association has voted to make the 54th district a unit conference, with only games within the county to count.

The book is about a feisty hood in the playfield field. A few local people were used as extras in the filming.

Protection against smallpox has reached a dangerous low in the United States. Discussing this fact at a recent meeting of the Public Health Committee of the Kentucky State Medical Association, the committee urged physicians and the public to reverse the declining immunization level against this serious epidemic.

According to Dr. Delmas M. Clardy, Hopkinsville, chairman of KSM's Public Health Committee, maintenance of protection against smallpox requires vaccination at five-year intervals. Recent outbreaks in other western nations and a growing amount of international travel emphasize the need for attention to this problem. Smallpox, although one of the easiest diseases to prevent, is highly contagious. The virus can be spread by coughs, sneezes, or even in dust.

In the interest of national safety, the committee urged physicians and their patients, particularly those who may be in contact with possible carriers, to maintain the needed protection against smallpox.

Hollie Conley As Judge Offers Justice, Personal Morality, Firm Decisions, Dignity and Respect

As your Commonwealth Attorney I have prosecuted with vigor those who the facts indicated were guilty. Despite our best efforts, there is still much to be done in our country in eliminating crime. Perhaps the illegal liquor traffic lurks in the background of most criminal activities in our country. I have never flinched as Commonwealth Attorney in prosecuting those charged with this evil offense. It is my thought that our Grand Jurors may have been unable to completely investigate this particular type of crime because of the many other crimes coming before them. I WOULD PROPOSE TO CALL SPECIAL GRAND JURIES TO DO NOTHING BUT INVESTIGATE THE BOOTLEGGING TRAFFIC.

Citizens are entitled to have their cases in court decided honestly and promptly. The issues should be met head on and a firm decision rendered, in a just, conscientious and fearless manner.

This type of service to all is honestly pledged.

Your vote and support are earnestly solicited.

Your friend,

SOIL CONSERVATION

By L. R. JOHNSON

With permission, I submit the following, written by G. W. Gee, as a creed worthy of the minds of us all, and one which every landowner and operator should carefully consider.

I believe God created the earth by His divine processes for the benefit of man, not one man, nor one generation, but mankind for all time.

I believe the Almighty gave man an inheritance of the earth, not to be hoarded as a miser guards his treasure, but to be used with wisdom and in the fullest for the perpetual benefit of all time.

I believe all of mankind, regardless of race or creed, are entitled to a fair and equitable share of the earth's bounty commensurate with their own efforts. But in so believing, I hold the irrevocable conviction that man himself owes earth a debt of respect and fealty.

I believe that whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap: that he who manages his fields, pastures, woodlands, and streams with respect and wisdom shall reap the bountiful harvest and so shall his descendants, while he who used them selfishly, thinking only of his own immediate gain, shall bring to grief his land, himself, and his children's children.

Holding these beliefs to be true, I dedicate myself to the task of helping my fellow men realize their own personal responsibility in conserving the earth for the generations which follow them. To this end I shall devote my best knowledge in guiding the best efforts of those who till the soil so that the land which nurtures us shall be fruitful without end.

For, truly, the earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof, but the responsibility for its stewardship is vested in man.

HUGE RESERVES OF COAL STILL IN EAST KENTUCKY

Lexington, Ky., March 31—Only 6 percent of available coal in Eastern Kentucky has been mined, a geological survey reported Sunday.

The survey underlined efforts to find new markets for coal, the major economic crutch in the depressed Eastern Kentucky area.

The United States Geological Survey, in cooperation with the Kentucky Geological Survey at the University of Kentucky and the U. S. Bureau of Mines, made the report. It shows that up to the late 1950's, about 17 billion tons of coal had been taken out of Eastern Kentucky and that more than 33 billion tons still were in the ground.

The line on statistics was drawn at January 1, 1956, representing the first major research covering the entire Eastern Kentucky coalfield since 1929.

The report said about 73 percent of the remaining coal reserves are in Pike, Harlan, Knott, Perry, Leslie, Letcher, Breathitt, Floyd, Martin and Magoffin counties.

The other 28 counties that make up the field have less than one billion tons, the report said.

The survey showed that the 33 billion tons of coal reserves are in beds more than 14 inches thick, with about 20 billion tons in beds more than 28 inches thick.

The 28-page report details how estimates were prepared and presents information on production and methods of mining.

In a pocket in the back of each copy of the survey are maps and a chart showing the amount of coal mined in each county between 1929 and 1955.
