Bids Asked On Half Of Promised Work

RIGHT-OF-WAY CLEARANCE SOUGHT

JUSTICE DECLARES 'THEY PROMISED 12 MILES'

County and state highway officials this week sought to clear the right-of-way of the Left Beaver Creek road of all encroachments so that contract for "black-top" surfacing a part of the route may be started on or about July 12, County Judge E. P. Hill, Jr., announced.

This action was taken following receipt of Highway Commissioner Zach Justice's letter to Judge Hill, of last week, reading in part:

"This road is set up for contract and bids are to be received on July 12, on which day, or soon thereafter, award will be made and a work order issued; provided, however, all encroachments on the right-of-way are removed by that time."

Though 12 miles of surfacing of the Left Beaver Creek road from its junction with Route 89, near Martin, to extend in the direction of Wheelwright to a point near McDowell was set up under the state highway commission's 1940 program, an advertisement calling for bids on the project, published in THE TIMES this week, provided for only six miles of surfacing.

Highway Commissioner Zach Justice, Pikeville, told this newspaper Wednesday afternoon that he was disappointed in the advertisement.

"They promised 12 miles would be advertised," Mr. Justice said, "I am going to Frankfort next week, and I am hoping to get the other six miles let to contract; for this road is needed and I want the matter settled."

Later, however, in a telephone communication with F. Y. Fishback at the state highway department's office in Frankfort, THE TIMES learned that highway officials there have little hope of more than six miles being surfaced this year. Said Mr. Fishback: "The 1940 highway program included 12 miles of the Left Beaver Creek

Dry Cleaning Plant, Residence Here Are Damaged

Two fires here Wednesday created damage variously estimated at from $3,000 to $5,000.

First of the blazes was that which, discovered at 4 a. m., gutted the home of George Burchett in "Yellow Town" to the extent that the building and its contents were termed a total loss. The fire started during an electrical storm and is believed to have had its origin in wiring. Mr. Burchett placed his loss at $2,000.

Later Wednesday afternoon, a fire of unexplained origin broke out in the cleaning department of the Prestonsburg Dry Cleaners, damaging the Harkins building in which it was located to the estimated extent of $1,500 and ruining cleaning and pressing machinery.

The building had been locked for the last few months, the electric service suspended, but gas service had not been cut, it was said. The blaze was discovered by a driver of the Sparks Brothers' Bus Company.

D. C. Stephens, original owner of the machinery, said he had sold the plant to his brother, Jerry Stephens, after having re-possessed it by court action from "Brownie" Williams, to whom he had previously sold it.

Damage created by the two fires was partially covered by insurance.

T. W. SMITH IS CLAIMED

FORMER CONTRACTOR SUCCEUMBS HERE, AGED 63

Tilden W. Smith, one of Prestonsburg's best-known citizens, died at 4 o'clock Wednesday morning at his home on Third avenue following an illness of 18 months. He was 63 years old.

Mr. Smith was seriously injured while serving as foreman on a Works Progress Administration highway project on Bull Creek, but partially recovered. Later, tuberculosis developed and this, with probable effects of his injuries, defied treatment.

A native of St. Albans, W. Va., he was a son of the late William C. and Sarah Elizabeth Lambert Smith. He came to this county with the beginning of construction of the railway to the Right Beaver Creek valley and was a contractor on that undertaking. He also was a highway and bridge contractor, having done extensive construction work in West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Virginia, as well as in this state. Mr. Smith then moved to Prestonsburg and had resided here for about 20 years, and over the years had become known as one of the county's best men. He had been a member of the Presbyterian Church for a number of years.

Mr. Smith was married on May 18, 1902 to Miss Mamie Blanche Walker, who survives. He also leaves two daughters and three sons; Mrs. E. P. Davis, Betsy Layne, and Miss Loraine Smith, Prestonsburg; C. P. Smith, of Harold, W. P. and Woodrow Smith, of Prestonsburg; eight grandchildren and the following brothers and sisters: Melvin M. Smith, Denver, Colo.; Charles W. Smith, of Kansas; Walter J. Smith, San Diego, Calif.; Mrs. George W. Edwards, Gallon, O., and Mrs. W. C. Lee, Dunbar, W. Va.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed Wednesday afternoon. Burial will be made here under the direction of the Arnold Funeral Home.

Mrs. Rebecca Baldrige, East Point, Dies Monday

After becoming ill early Sunday morning Mrs. Rebecca Hager Baldrige, East Point, wife of Thomas Andrew Baldrige, succumbed at her home Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Death was attributed to a stroke of paralysis. She was 50 years old.

After arising Sunday morning Mrs. Baldrige complained of having a pain in her head and later collapsed. She suffered the stroke at seven o'clock Monday morning.

Besides her husband, the victim is survived by her mother, Mrs. C. G. Hager; one son, William Thomas Baldrige, at home; five brothers, Chauncey Hager, Malcolm Hager, Charlie Hager and Harry Hager, all of East Point, and John Hager, of Auxier; one sister, Mrs. Oma Hager Badgett, East Point.

Funeral services were conducted from the Methodist Church at East Point Wednesday afternoon, with the Revs. Printis Speer, pastor of the East Point Methodist Church, and the Rev. W. B. Garriott, pastor of the Prestonsburg Methodist Church, officiating. Burial was made in the family cemetery at East Point, under the direction of the Arnold Funeral Home.

Sportsmen Are Told Paid Game Warden May Be Hired

Friday evening's meeting of the Floyd County Fish and Game Protective Association was told by Merle Wilson, Prestonsburg, this district's League of Kentucky Sportsmen representative, that he had been informed that a paid full-time game warden for Floyd county may be employed after July 1.

Mr. Wilson attended the recent League meeting at Somerset, and there sought the services of a game warden for the county after the fish and game association, together with county officials, had petitioned Governor Johnson and Major Brown, head of the division of fish and game, for such wildlife protection.

The association joined County Agent S. L. Isbell in planning an itinerary for him and a representative of the Forestry department in exhibiting a film of forest fire prevention. The tentative schedule provides for two shows a day, beginning July 8 and continuing till July 13. Ten communities of the county will be visited.

Steps were taken to provide food for quail as the association authorized the purchase of 400 pounds of buckwheat seed to be distributed by members over the county.

2ND APPRAISAL OF UTILITY SOUGHT

CITY COUNCIL WEIGHS GAS COMPANY'S PURCHASE

Benefiting from the experience of Paintsville in its negotiations ultimately leading to the purchase of the water system serving that town, the Prestonsburg city council Monday evening directed that an engineer from the Kentucky Public Service commission be asked to come to Prestonsburg and make an appraisal of the property of the Prestonsburg Water Company which the city of Prestonsburg hopes to buy.

An appraisal made of the Prestonsburg waterworks by an "independent" engineer placed the value of the property at $125,000. An appraisal made by an "independent" of the Paintsville system fixed its worth at $180,000, but the Public Service Commission's engineer lowered that figure to $118,000. The property was finally purchased for $105,000.

Services of the Public Service Commission's engineer will cost Prestonsburg nothing, it was said.

Mayor J. B. Wells of Paintsville was accompanied here by Cyrus Cooper, manager of the waterworks, and James Chandler, representative of a Louisville bonding company, their visit being prompted by Paintsville's desire to convert to municipal ownership the gas company—a step in which co-operation from Prestonsburg is necessary. The Southern Public Service Corporation, owner of the gas franchises here and in Paintsville and Pikeville, though admitting a desire to dispose of these three remaining Kentucky properties, has indicated that it will not sell one unless the other two can be sold. For this reason, the Paintsville delegation sought to interest Prestonsburg in a deal similar to that which it plans.

Mayor Wells said he "believed the gas company here could be bought for $15,000."

Offer of Mr. Chandler to send an engineer here to make an appraisal of the gas property and to negotiate for its purchase—at no cost to the town, unless he deal is consummated—was accepted.

FALSE ARREST TERM UPHeld

GIRL'S IMPRISONMENT HELD 'OUTRAGEOUS, CRIMINAL'

Denouncing the stopping and searching of a party of young people in Floyd county and the placing of a 16-year-old girl in jail as "outrageous, criminal conduct," the Court of Appeals Tuesday upheld a five-year false arrest sentence imposed on Deputy Sheriff Tom Parsons.

The opinion said the young men and women were searched as well as their car and "no liquor or other contraband" or other evidence of law violation was found and added:

"The only intimation of an excuse or purpose for the outrageous, criminal conduct of these men (the officers) is the implication contained in a remark by one of them referring to one of the young people: 'That is Bill Reynolds' girl and he will pay off like a slot-machine.'"

The opinion by Commissioner Osso W. Stanley, declared that after Parsons and Dewey Salisbury, another deputy, now dead, had been jointly indicted, "there were more than thirty misplaced indictments," and that Parsons, who the court said was also known as Tom Akers, was re-indicted. There was no explanation of what became of the "misplaced indictments."

The opinion stated Margaret Elliott was the girl kept in jail over night despite her father's efforts to free her. It did not identify the one referred to as "Bill Reynolds' girl."

To Encourage Sowing Winter Cover Crops In Floyd County

The Department of Agriculture's 1940 Conservation Program will close September 1, and County Agent S. L. Isbell and the county and community committees are encouraging Floyd farmers to sow during July and August winter cover crops, which this winter will protect the land against the washing and leaching of top soil.

The sowing of hairy vetch in corn fields before the last cultivation and on all fields where soybeans and cowpeas are harvested is suggested.

Wednesday meetings for the discussions of the farmers' problems were held on Little Mud and Toler's Creek. Today they were held at Banner and Dana.

Schedule for the meetings next week follows:

Monday, June 24—Brainard, 1:30 p. m.; Bonanza, 8:00 p. m.

Tuesday, June 25—Pitts Fork school (below Pyramid), 1:30 p. m.; Buckeye school, 8:00 p. m.

Wednesday, June 26—Hueysville, 1:30 p. m.; Maytown, 8:00 p. m.

Friday, June 28—Salisbury, 1:30 p. m.; McDowell, 8:00 p. m.

MARSILLET STABBED BY BROTHER, CLAIM

Although a knife blade said to have been sunk into his neck by his brother, cut his anterior jugular vein, Jack Marsillet, 18 years old, was said at the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, Wednesday to be much improved over his condition of earlier in the week.

The stabbing took place on Middle Creek Sunday as the result, it is said, of a drunken row. Authorities here were unable to give the name of the knife-wielder, since no complaint had been lodged against him.

In addition to the knife wound in his neck, Marsillet was also stabbed in his left shoulder.

Particulars of the affray are lacking in detail. Some of the witnesses said they were aware that the two were quarreling but that the first indication of violence they noted was when Salisbury seized Davidson in his arms and began cutting him. The cutting took place in front of Jack Morrow's place at Hunter, at 10:30 o'clock.

The slash in Davidson's neck pierced the jugular vein, it was stated.

The victim, a native of Perry county, was a son of the late Arliss Davidson and of Mrs. Dressie Spradlin Davidson. Besides his mother, he is survived by four brothers, Claude, Clyde, Billy Ray and Franklin, and one sister, Mary Lou, and his step-father, Ora Davidson, all of Drift.

The body was taken to Chavies, Perry county, Monday for burial in the family cemetery under the direction of the Ryan Funeral Home.

Spinal Meningitis Victim Is First In County Since November

The only case of spinal meningitis reported to the county health department here since last November, six-year-old Maggie Mullett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Mullett, Minnie, died this morning (Thursday) at the Stumbo Memorial hospital, Lackey, after a short illness.

Besides her parents, she is survived by five brothers and sisters.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete this morning, but burial will be made Friday at Auxier, with the Ryan Funeral Home in charge.

IRA DAVIDSON, KNIFE VICTIM

PEARL SALISBURY, 19, ALLEGED SLAYER, IS FUGITIVE

His neck slashed, front and back, with seven stab wounds in his back and a cut across his forearm, 18-year-old Ira Davidson, Drift miner, died Saturday night, a few minutes after having been attacked by Pearl Salisbury, 19, at Hunter.

The youth died as he was being taken to the Beaver Valley hospital at Martin.

Sheriff Dial Salisbury, Deputies Lackey Salisbury and Wm. Hagans and Coroner Elliott Prater searched the vicinity of Hunter for the alleged slayer Sunday night, but failed to effect his arrest. He was expected to be brought here Monday by his father, Lee Salisbury, but had not been taken into custody Tuesday afternoon, the Sheriff's office said.

Mrs. Minnie Rader, 44, Is Cancer Victim

Funeral services for Mrs. Minnie Rader, 44, who died Thursday of last week at the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, after suffering for some time from cancer, were conducted from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ambrose Nelson, near here.

Burial was made in the cemetery at the forks of Bull Creek, with the Arnold Funeral Home directing.

Ex-Convict Named As Would-Be Rapist

Authorities and citizens of Martin were combing the countryside around Martin Wednesday morning, seeking the arrest of Crit Yates, former Reform School inmate, who is accused by Mrs. Lily Osborne Cox, Martin, of attacking her near her home.

Mrs. Cox told County Attorney Forrest D. Short that Yates accosted her near her home after she had gone in search of ducks which she owned and which she feared were targets of rifle fire which she heard. Yates choked Mrs. Cox, a middle-aged woman, attempted to gag her and, after she had wrestled free of his grasp and started to run, fired a .22-calibre rifle bullet at her, it was alleged.

Suffering from shock and numerous bruises, Mrs. Cox swore to a warrant for Yates' arrest before Magistrate Joe Prater.

Mrs. Wm. Dingus is quite ill at her home on First avenue, suffering from neuritis.

Mrs. Elizabeth Laferty, Bull Creek, Dies Friday

Mrs. Elizabeth Laferty, 92 years old, widow of the late John Laferty, succumbed Friday at the home of her foster-daughter, Mrs. Seymour Gray, on the head of Bull Creek, the victim of complications attendant upon advanced age.

One of this section's oldest and best women, "Aunt Liz" as she was affectionately known, had been in declining health for the past year. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Fisher Laferty, who came to Bull Creek from West Virginia many years ago. Her husband has been dead about 20 years. She had been a member of the Methodist Church for a number of years.

Surviving are two sons, James and William Laferty; one daughter, Mrs. Sam Laferty, all of Bull Creek, and one brother, Robert Laferty, Dwayne.

Funeral rites were conducted Sunday afternoon, with the Rev. Harry Callahan, nephew of the victim, officiating. Burial was made in the John Laferty cemetery on Bull Creek, under the direction of the Arnold Funeral Home.

WRESTLING TITLE AT STAKE IN MATCH HERE JULY 4

PEDIGO-WILLIAMS TUSSLE, BALLOON ASCENSION TO FEATURE DAY

Kentucky's light-heavyweight wrestling championship will be at stake when Kid Scotty Williams, Kentucky's hill-billy wrestler, grapples here on July 4 with Blacksmith Pedigo, Louisville mat champion and claimant to the state light-heavyweight crown, it was announced this week.

Williams is the only Kentucky wrestler to dispute Pedigo's championship claims. As a result, the two are natural rivals, and their meeting here should be something to behold.

In addition to this feature of what is planned as the greatest Fourth of July celebration in the county's history, there has been scheduled a balloon ascension, a girl parachute jumper, a fireworks display and numerous other minor attractions and contests, with prizes to be awarded to winners.

Aside from these plans for entertaining during the holiday, a doubleheader of baseball, scheduled as a part of the regular Big Sandy League grind, will be played at Gasco Park here, with the Prestonsburg team meeting Wheelwright, present league-leader.

Prestonsburg business firms are sponsoring the celebration.

Celebration of the Fourth here is planned at an outlay of from $500 to $600, it was said. The largest crowd ever assembled here is expected to join in the fun.

Kimmer Davis, Drift, Succumbs Friday To Stroke

Suffering his third paralytic stroke within the past two years, Kimmer (Tuck) Davis, Drift, died Friday morning at the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin. He was 60 years old.

A native of Johnson county, the victim was the son of the late Leck and Mrs. Anna Webb Davis, of Paintsville. For the past several years he had been employed by the Beaver Coal and Mining Company at Drift.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Trennie Davis, and two step-sons, all of Drift.

Burial was made in the Martin cemetery at Drift Saturday afternoon, with the Ryan Funeral Home directing.

This Town-- That World

NAUGHTY NAUGHTS

Three naughty standing alone would mean nothing. But, the way they were left entirely out of THE TIMES last week, meant a lot.

We quoted Leroy Combs as saying at the Public Forum here that the Allies have only $11,000,000 credit in this country. The three naughty that should have been at the end of that figure would have made a lot of difference, as also would have three naughty added to the $1,000,000 we quoted Mr. Combs as saying the Allies had spent in this country for war materials.

All it amounts to is, he said, "billions" and we said, "millions."

BUSY AFTERNOON FOR 'SURE'

Magistrate Henry Stumbo, of the Third Floyd county Magisterial district, caught a man stealing during a recent Sunday afternoon, looked at a beautiful curve, waved a vicious war-club and may have called upon high heaven to witness the wrong done him.

No, you're wrong. He wasn't acting as Magistrate at the time, he wasn't filling his eye with feminine pulchritude, wasn't in a fight or wasn't being cheated out of his mortal rights.

He merely was playing for the Clear Creek baseball team of the Big Sandy League as the only county official in the state to be a regular baseball player this summer.

FISH FRY

The kitchen of City Clerk Burl Spurlock was filled with smoke on a recent early morn. Out went a call, in came the fire department on all four cylinders.

ONCE IN A LIFETIME!

Of honor between nations there remains a notable example.

Little Finland, smaller than ever now, since Russia has exacted its "pound of flesh," last week proffered its annual payment on its war debt to the United States.

That debt is more than twenty years old. It was incurred, back when far more powerful nations were receiving credit from Uncle Sam. Those more powerful nations failed to pay. But Finland did not. Every year, during this country's boom days, or during the depression, the Finns "came through" with their installment on the debt they owed.

They paid while other countries were in the depths of industrial and economic despond and while they themselves were surely likewise suffering.

They paid, all during the years before World War No. 2. This year, as the Second World War was in mid-holocaust, after they had made a heroic but losing fight against insuperable odds, they offered to pay again.

That is a story of splendid honesty. But it is not the finest part of the story to us Americans who should of all peoples, have a true appreciation of honesty.

The finest part of the story is—the Congress of the United States, learning that Finland was again about to pay, immediately moved to refuse that country's sacrifice in the name of honor. Moved to refuse that installment on Finland's debt, yet provided that Finland could obtain from this country further credits.

Thus two nations last week behaved in their relations with each other—one to pay an honest debt, one to refuse payment in honorable, human fashion; one to abide by its given word, the other to recognize its international neighbor's plight, to refuse a sacrifice that this democracy regarded too great for a sister republic to bear.

Thus two nations acted last week toward each other—thus they acted as the dictatorships of the world do to the men and women and children of other countries either to death or to the wearing of the heavy yoke of virtual slavery.

And, to paraphrase a well-known American sports commentator, thus came to pass what may happen only once in our lifetime.

WE CRUMBLE DOWN AS WE "LIVE UP" TO TRADITION

America's attempts to live up to the glorious tradition of freedom of speech, freedom of the press and the rights of assembly has merely succeeded in penalizing its own citizens, men and women whose patriotism has not been questioned, while affording protection to those who entertain only scorn for this land and its laws and, therefore, a blatant disregard for the rights of American citizens.

For instance: I, as editor of this newspaper, may not, under severe penalty of the law, say anything untrue of any other citizen, even if I do so in good faith, under penalty of the law; yet—

The editor of a Hitler-born publication may without hindrance revile the United States, its Constitution, its President, its people, and may, at the same time, laud to the skies every form of government and every group of people inimical to us.

As a dark example: The late General Mitchell, of the United States Army, years ago tried to tell the "Brass Hats" what this country needed by way of national defense, was promptly court-martialed and "busted"; yet—

A German Bund leader can harangue from any soap-box at any hour and for any duration of time

Mussolini is fighting his best friends in England and France, and only a coward would strike as Il Duce has. I believe he'll rue the day instead of rule. As much as we all detest Nazism, I believe Fascism is worse—but they against any sort of defense whatever—and be given the full protection of the law.

(Until only a few months ago, Germans, Japanese and other representatives of "hostile" nations were being caught with photographs of our defense fortifications. What was done by way of punishment for them? What was done to punish those snug officers who permitted such espionage?)

Another "horrible" example: A religious sect may use its scatterbrains in the handling of snakes, and a state law will be enacted against "sech doin's," for the protection, surely, of the snake-handlers; and still—

The German Bund can pick up America's youth, take them to Bund camps, fill them full of Hitler's venom and, generally speaking, carry on to their heart's content without fear of the law.

Freedom is a wonderful thing. Cherish it while you may. But, if Freedom continues to be License to some and Inhibition to others, License to the enemy and Inhibition to the friend—what have we to expect but disintegration from within as Hitler himself predicted for the democracies?

THAT WAS AN HEROIC FIGHT ON GLASGOW FIRES

BY J. HOWARD HENDERSON, in The Courier-Journal

No one will ever know the peril that hovered over Glasgow during the four years of the Chandler administration, but I want to set down here the heroic effort Governor Chandler and J. Dan Talbott made to save Glasgow from the peril.

Uncontrolled fire is an appalling thing. Life and property often get in its destructive path. Man has devised some method of combat. One is prevention, through removal of causes. Another is control of consequences, through elimination of needless hazards. A third is the detection and punishment of persons who willfully start destructive fires.

Years ago the state took over this work. By the time of Governor Stanley they were called "fire putters-out." Stanley called them that, in mock seriousness. They were political appointees then. They are political appointees now.

Theoretically, "inspectors" wander about the state looking over buildings with an eye to elimination of undue hazards, such as school doors that open inward, piles of oil-soaked rags and paper. Theoretically, "arson investigators" hasten to every fire where there is a suspicion that it was set.

New I cannot tell you how Governor Chandler and Mr. Talbott knew four years ago that a "fire bug" would begin operating in Glasgow within four years.

But I'll not be one to deny them the credit that is theirs.

Did not Governor Chandler and Mr. Talbott put Former State Senator W. A. Yates, Glasgow, on the state payroll as an "inspector"? Was not that to help Glasgow put down its fire losses? Who would be so cynical as to suspect that Governor Chandler and Mr. Talbott even thought of the help Senator Yates had given them in settling a little political score with the Rhea-Lafoon faction?

And when Chandler and Talbott sent an "arson investigator's" badge to Paul Greer, Glasgow attorney, was not that so he could find as early as 1937 the "fire bug" who began setting fires at Glasgow last year?

What foresight Frankfort displayed. How carefully Frankfort proceeded, never taking "Inspector" Yates and "Investigator" Greer away from their home-town posts. Not even a day in twenty months. Just sitting in Glasgow, waiting and waiting for the fires that were to come. Playing politics and practicing law while they waited for the fires.

If Yates and Greer were a bit inactive (and Post Auditor Sewell said they were), Frankfort was alert to the situation. Frankfort "sensed" the presence of the "fire bug" at Glasgow.

Mrs. Nellie Vaughan was a Glasgow housewife who had shown an aptitude for politics, so Frankfort made her an "arson investigator." She headed the late Senator M. M. Logan's state campaign in 1936, to the discomfiture of the Chandler-Talbott organization. But that, dear reader, had nothing to do with her employment as an "arson investigator."

But last year, when the going got rough and after "Inspector" Yates had drawn pay for three years and had fallen through the platform at Shelbyville, he was let out. Glasgow was without an "inspector" now, and about that time fires began to break out.

Alarmed, the Frankfort administration put on another "arson investigator, J. M. Rousseau by name, a newspaper publisher by trade. Not because he had supported Chandler in his newspaper in 1938, Kern Johnson in 1939. Oh, no! Because Glasgow needed another "arson investigator" to help Mr. Greer and Mrs. Vaughan, who were overworked looking for the "fire bug" who was operating at Glasgow.

Glasgow was not saved from the destruction of two big fires. The fear has not been lifted.

Anyway, the Chandler-Talbott organization tried, both will be destroyed—the Allies will win an ultimate victory. . . Right will conquer—that's why the paganism of Ole Hitler and Bushwhacker Mussolini will fall.

None of us want war—but if it has to come, let's get the heathens before they can get over their wounds—I would a lot rather go to help destroy the dictators now than to have my son to go about 18 or 20 years from now.

The way some folks talk up in this section, you'd think they were members of the Fifth Column. I believe it's IGNORANCE more than anything else.

Just wait until Henry Ford starts making 1,000 planes a day—the dictators will think it's locust year. We'll have so many "Lizzies" in the air, we'll just smother the Jerries.

We should start to get ready to produce a thousand tanks a day.

A lot of fellows argue about our small army of 400,000 men. They forget that this army is equal to a million Germans—fellows who were in the trenches in 1918 told me this.

According to the newspapers, we'll have to go down and straighten up Brazil. Winchell said there were a million Nazis down there and well organized. They ought to be shipped back to Hitler.

What will happen to these Republicans who changed their registration to get on Dan's payroll? They are just "out in the weather."

The more I hear Lindbergh the more I wonder how in the h— he ever flew to France. He is trying to play politics in a national emergency.

I hope Stalin hurries up and jumps on Hitler—that would be like the "Bean Beetles" and the "Tater Bugs" fighting each other. When they get through slaughtering each other, then we could step in and finish the job.

Martin's baseball diamond must be awfully poor ground—the manager

BILL HENRY SAYS:

WORLD WAR NO. 2

While certain Congressmen and Senators are still playing to a very small minority of pacifists, the war is drawing ever nearer to our shores. Yes, this will be a World War No. 2 dwarfing into insignificance the first World War. Actually, without declaration on the part of many countries, including the United States, hostilities minus the minor item of firing a gun already exist. Every nation has cast its die; every individual has taken his stand. The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse ride again, but with much greater fury; this time babies, children and women are a part of the sweeping holocaust. The Four Horsemen—Germany, Japan, Russia and Italy; their leaders mad men, armed with every weapon of destruction, casting aside all rules of civilized peoples in their effort to dominate the world.

Hitler speaks of the "decadent democracies." If we should take this as meaning that the democratic countries have closed their eyes and refuse to admit what is happening, the definition would be correct. We take the words "liberty" and "freedom" so literally we have been lulled to sleep at the switch. While we take months to plan totalitarian governments act, Hitler plowed it up and planted it in soy beans.

The above brings to mind the story of the shortstop playing on a diamond where the weeds were about a foot high. He raced back of second after a hard-hit liner—missed the ball—but came up with a young rabbit which he tossed to first. The ump called the hitter out by a HARE.

Just as soon as any trouble arises—according to the Institute of Public Opinion—the Democrats gain about five per cent—and, incidentally, Mr. Roosevelt gains with the Democratic gains. Seems that the people know we have the world's greatest LEADER—and if this war scare keeps up the election will only be a formality.

I'm just wondering what becomes of all those fellows who called F.D.R. a dictator in 1936. I don't blame you—I'd keep quiet too. I've still got a package of SUNFLOWER seed left, in case any of you fellows lost your seed in the November 1936 front.

The Taft flower is a daisy—Yep, the ground where they will grow is just as poor as his chances of being elected. I guess Mr. Dewey will adopt the Morning Glory as his flower—they fade and wilt in the heat.

There seems to be a crime wave in our county—Judge Stephens takes the pistols—but the knives and clubs still remain deadly weapons.

While our Congressmen and Senators talk from "soap boxes" the totalitarian governments turn out mere soldiers and ammunition with which to destroy us. We have the greatest leader on earth; his past record stamps him as the champion of champions of the democratic form of government, he has proved himself as a leader among free people, and yet some of our members of Congress, many of whom haven't the ability to run a garbage collection route in a small town, refuse to give President Roosevelt the power to act. It is well to say, "If anything happens to us, we will hold these Congressmen responsible," but this is like the driver of an automobile who insists on his right-of-way at the crossing and loses his life. While we listen to a lot of rubbish about the rights of communists and fascists in this country they are slowly but surely creeping upon us. We are at war—what will you do? Will you listen to your pet Congressman or Senator who refuses to acknowledge the ability of a man who is capable of leading us on a safe and sane course to a continuation of the freedom we love so well? Will you follow that Congressman and Senator to oblivion? PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT MUST HAVE FULL AUTHORITY TO ACT! Do your part in seeing that he gets that authority.

It is definitely known that Senator Barkley of Kentucky and Congressman May of this Congressional District are co-operating with the Administration 100 per cent.

THE FIFTH COLUMN
Many of us are inclined to think of the Fifth Column as consisting entirely of aliens. This is far from the truth. Any American citizen who willingly lends his ear to propaganda intended to slow up in any way this government's preparation for defense, whether it be in the form of armaments, the training of soldiers or the deportation of subversive elements, is a greater menace to our security than an alien. It is only through the intervention of this type of American citizen that the "Trojan horse" is able to continue his work among us. Remember that these enemies among us, those who are trying to undermine our confidence in your government, hollow "liberty" and "freedom of speech" the loudest; the very things they are trying to take away from you.

When war comes to our shores, and it is coming very soon, the Sandy valley will play a big part. We will need every ounce of coal from the full capacity of our mines. It would be very easy for a few members of a Fifth Column to destroy and tie up for months the only means we have of getting this coal out. We do have men among us who advocate the overthrow of our government, men who will tell you that Joseph Stalin of Russia, and Hitler and Mussolini "are going to make the world a better place in which to live." NOTE: It is no time for hysterics and mob rule; when you know of some individual whose actions may warrant investigation go to your legal authorities.

THE MAD ELEPHANT
Several years ago a carnival manager at one of the recreation parks in Portland, Oregon, purchased from a circus an elephant with the intention of using it as an attraction to draw the crowds. This elephant was a huge thing in bulk and had grown quite old in the circus he had the best care that well-trained handlers could give him. He had led parades; covered with colorful decorations he would swing his enormous trunk and trumpet majestically. At the time the sale was made to the carnival manager this symbol of the Republican party had become too difficult to manage in moving about the country, and would turn on those who had petted and pampered him and would fly into a rage and tear down tents and crush into splinters wagons within his reach. His new owner purchased the heaviest chain available and constructed a heavy fence around him; he broke the chains, destroyed the fence and finally he was placed in a large barn, chained in it. This will hold him, they thought, he will quiet down. But no, he came to the side of the barn, chains and all. The elephant had gone completely mad and had to be shot.

In Philadelphia this week the vanguard of Republican leaders is gathering. They are making preparations for what, they themselves say, will be the most momentous convention in the history of the Republican party; and it will be, for they are marching to the tune of "We are against anything the Democratic party is for. . . . We don't like Roosevelt, regardless of what he stands for. . . . we are going to run our candidate on a platform of no war even though we have no way of knowing now what the interests of our fellowman may dictate in the future. . . . yes, we were petted and pampered years by the voter, but today we are old and rusty just as that elephant (the symbol of the Republican party) at Portland, Oregon, was a few years ago, and we will turn on our keeper." The Republicans are truly "mad" if they believe for one moment that the people will take any chance on the big gamble they have to offer. There are still improvements to be made, but we are on the right road and we are not going back to the system where a few Morgans told us what we could and could not do.

This column is going out on a limb to state: "Watch Senator Vandenberg of Michigan and McNary of Oregon as the Republican nominees!" Wilkie is in the picture when the storm blows over, the Republican party is not only gone mad but incurably insane.

road for black-top surfacing at a cost of $50,000. But we have learned that that amount will not surface 12 miles, since the construction job will, of necessity, include a water-bound macadam base in addition to the bituminous or "black-top" type of surface.

Mr. Fishback added that highway engineers had reported to the state office that the present surface value of the road extends only to a depth of approximately two and a half inches. It was indicated that this condition makes the macadam base necessary.

The surfacing work, as provided for in bids now asked, will extend to a point above Hunter, or approximately a mile below Drift.

County Judge Hill and a state highway engineer Saturday inspected the highway and found that 24 buildings have been erected on the right-of-way purchased for the road. Owners of all these buildings, however, indicated their willingness to co-operate in complying with the State Highway Commission's ruling that highways, wherever located, must be cleared of such encroachments before contract on their improvement are awarded.

County Attorney Forrest D. Short Monday was preparing notices to be sent to each person owning such structures, stating that the deadline for right-of-way clearance is June 25.

Highway Commissioner Justice urged immediate action by the County Judge and County Attorney, at the same time requesting J. D. Fitzpatrick, Prestonsburg, Floyd county highway supervisor for the Commission, to swear out warrants for offenders if necessary, or to take any other steps necessary to clear the right-of-way.

Mr. Justice told Judge Hill that right-of-way clearance of all encroachments was a ruling made by Lyter Donaldson, Commissioner of Highways; that the same requirements were in force in every county of the state.

Urgency of the task of clearing right-of-way in time for letting of the contract July 12, is pointed out, results from the desire of the Highway Commission to have the job of surfacing completed before the coming of cold weather.

ENOUGH ELECTRICITY CAN BE BOUGHT TO EQUAL TWO HOURS OF HARD WORK

IT IS difficult to say just how much useful work this gal might be doing pushing a lawn mower around the lawn. Engineers would figure the height and density of the grass, the slope of the lawn and the drawbar pull on the mower. Perhaps it would be more useful if she turned it over to the old man and made him reduce his waist line. Without being technical, just remember that one cigarette's worth of electricity at our low rates will always do more work than any man or woman can do in two hours.

Old Virginia Land Grant Is Evidence In Suit

Frankfort, Ky., June 18—Reviewing land titles running back to those granted by Virginia to settlers in what is now Kentucky, the Court of Appeals today upheld a Martin circuit court judgment for mineral rights on 660 acres given the heirs of W. J. Ward, Sr., against the Warfield Natural Gas Company and Lewis Dempsey.

The record which had to be considered contained more than 5,000 words and ran back to a grant of 15,000 acres by Virginia in 1786.

TOWN-WORLD

The building was not afire. But Burt's catch of fish was a total loss. Right before he had cached them in the oven of the kitchen stove without telling Mrs. Spurluck, who, next morning, lit said oven. The resultant smoke indicated that the house was afire. The odor hinted that Burt's favorite pair of wading boots was a smouldering.

COMEDY RELIEF

The following are excerpts—it is alleged—gathered from letters from relief of cards received by various governmental relief agencies:

My husband has worked about in shifts for two months, and now he has left me, and I ain't had no pay since he has gone nor before either.

Please send me my elopement and I have four months old baby and he is my only support and I kneed all I get every day to by food and keep us in close.

I am a poor woman and all I have is gone.

Both sides of my parents is very poor, and I can't expect anything from them as my mother has been in bed for one year with the same doctor and she won't take another.

Please send me a letter and tell me if my husband made application for a wife and child.

Do I get more than I am getting?

I have already wrote the President and if I don't here from you I will write Uncle Sam about both of you.

This is my 5th child. What are you going to do about it?

I ain't getting sick pay. I got six children can you tell me why it is?

Mrs. — has no clothing for a year and she has been visited by the clergy regularly.

I am glad to say that my husband who has been missing is deceased.

Sir, I am forwarding my marriage certificate and two children, one of them is a mistake.

I am writing to say that my baby was born two years old. When do I get my money?

I am very annoyed to find out that you have branded my oldest child illiterate. It is a dirty shame, and a lie, as I married his father a week before he was born.

You changed my little girl to a boy. Will that make any difference?

In accordance with your instructions I have given birth to twins in the enclosed envelope.

I have two children and my husband cannot supply enough milk for them.

How do you cook these here grape fruits we billed 'em, an fried 'em, an stewed 'em, an they ain't fitten to eat no way I cooked 'em.
